Sacred Heart Church St. Philip The Apostle Church

January 6, 2019 The Epiphany of the Lord

God of All,

Be our daily star that guides our lives as we search for your love.
May we always follow your light of truth in all that we do, forever trusting, hoping and believing in your word. Lift our eyes to the heavens so we too may follow your guiding star as we travel home to you. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

VISIONS AND DREAMS

I wrote this column before Christmas. That's just the way it has to be, due to bulletin deadlines over the holidays. People take time off and so we have to get things in to the printer well in advance at this time of year.

I hope by the time you are reading this that the Blackhawks are doing better. At the time this was written, their season wasn't going well. It's no fun being a fan (and I am a fan) when your team is constantly losing. At least I can't be accused of being a fair weather fan. So, it's through thick and thin with me and the Hawks.

In those losing times (whether we're talking the Hawks or other more important things in life), what sustains us is the vision and the dream that the days ahead will be better. What motivates you when things are not so good? What drives us all to put one foot in front of another and carry on?

HOW FAITH FUNCTIONS

I hope that your answer to those questions is, in part, faith—faith in God and faith in one another.

There have been ups and downs in my life and in my ministry, but I've never lost faith in God. There may have been dry spells in my relationship with God. But there has never been a time when I felt estranged from God or that God was not present to me in the sacraments, prayer, or for that matter, in work.

What drives me forward and keeps me going is all of you. When I see so many good people pulling together to make this parish vibrant and alive and serving others, I take heart.

So I do have faith in God, always. But I also have faith in you, the wonderful parishioners of Divine Mercy parish.

THE JOURNEY OF RENEWAL

We've got a long way to go in terms of the merging of Sacred Heart and St Philip. We're not done with the operational aspects of the combining.

But given what's transpired so far, I have great hope for the future. People want this combining to work and, therefore, it will work. With faith in each other, with a major dollop of good will every day, and with faith in God we will become the parish God intends for us to be: vibrant, alive, evangelizing, welcoming, serving, all of that and more.

We can't see the journey's end yet. Did the Magi? Not while they were on the journey. Even after their arrival in Bethlehem, the culmination of their searching, they didn't know where their lives were headed—for they returned home by a different route after being warned by dream.

Visions and dreams propel us, too. We'll know it when we get there. And beyond.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Catholic Charities is looking for volunteers to help in the food pantry and clothing room at our office at 1717 Rand Road, Des Plaines. Volunteers are needed on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, during the day.

If you are interested in helping, please contact Denise Yonkers at (847) 376-2101 or dyonkers@catholiccharities.net.

Thank you!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

HOLY HOUR AT ST. PHILIP CHURCH

Join Divine Mercy parishioners for Holy Hour every Friday afternoon at 3:00p.m. at St. Philip Church.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That the Manifestation of the glory of Christ will enable all nations to also recognize the sanctity of each and every human life, we pray to the Lord.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group meets every Monday morning. We'll meet at the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome—it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"..they fell down and worshipped him.

Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh..." - MATTHEW 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and then prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

Children's Liturgy is actually the Liturgy of the Word for children. The Sunday scripture readings are proclaimed and explained on a level the children can understand and enjoy. Children's Liturgy takes place at our 10:30 am Sunday Mass from September through May (see schedule below). Any child in pre-kindergarten through 3rd grade is encouraged to join us. Parents are also welcome – especially if your child is a little nervous with new experiences. No registration is necessary.

After the opening prayer, the celebrant will invite the children to come forward for a blessing and the adult leader will lead them to the fireplace room in the parish office. After a brief welcome, they listen to the First Reading proclaimed from the Children's Lectionary. Next, the Gospel is proclaimed by one of the adult leaders. An age-appropriate reflection is shared by the leader through stories, discussions, or pictures - whatever the leader finds most appropriate. The children are then invited to share their own thoughts and ideas. The children return to the church after the Prayers of the Faithful to celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist with the entire community.

We hope your child/ren will join this ministry. Upcoming dates: January 6, 13, 20, 27. Questions? Contact Patty Sanfilippo at psanfilippo1380@gmail.com or call the RE office at 847-446-6535.

OUTREACH

MINISTER OF CARE TRAINING

This wonderful ministry is always in need of people who want to bring Christ to others. What does that mean? To quote one of our current Ministers of Care, "It's a beautiful circle: as Ministers of Care representing our parish community, we are the Body of Christ feeding the Body of Christ to the Body of Christ."

There are many sick or homebound parishioners, and nursing home residents, that parishioners from Divine Mercy visit on a weekly basis to bring them the Eucharist. If you are interested in being a part of this fulfilling ministry of the parish, there is a 6 week Archdiocesan training program that will take place on Tuesday evenings starting January 29th at Presence St. Benedict Nursing Home in Niles. You must register through Divine Mercy Parish. For more information, contact Judy Pyke at jpyke@divinemercynorthshore.org or call the Parish Office.

SHOPPING CARTS FOR THE ST. COLUMBANUS FOOD PANTRY!

Every week, the St. Columbanus Food Pantry serves between 400 and 500 families. Many of the patrons are seniors. Many don't have anything in which to carry items home, or they use anything they can find, including broken suitcases that have wheels. Several parishioners decided it was time to do something to help. We'd like to raise some funds to purchase shopping carts for the clients of the Food Pantry.

If you would like to make a donation towards the purchase of these shopping carts for the St. Columbanus Food Pantry clients, you can send a check to the parish office, payable to Divine Mercy Parish, with "Shopping Cart" in the memo line. Thank you!

PAPAL TWEETS

"Like the Magi, we must leave our comfort zone to find Jesus."

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

The following is an exegesis of this Sunday's Gospel from Matthew (2: 1-12) from Rev. John J. Kilgallen, SJ. Fr. Kilgallen is a world renowned scripture scholar, and shares a weekly exegesis with many throughout the Chicago archdiocese. An exegesis is a critical explanation or interpretation of a text from scripture. If you'd like to receive his weekly exegesis via email, please contact Judy Pyke at jpyke@divinemercynorthshore.org.

SUNDAY OF THE EPIPHANY, JANUARY 6, 2019, MATTHEW 2, 1-12

Many people know our central heroes as we 'three kings of orient are'. But we know that these men are not kings but Magi; Matthew does not give their number, and they are certainly not from the Far East, called the Orient. Magi (a Magus) are people who dedicate their entire lives to gaining all the knowledge they can, from heaven, earth and under the earth, to promote human happiness. The best of them could be found in the courts of kings, who always wanted knowledge as a way of preserving and developing kingdoms. Apparently, Matthew's speaking of three gifts has given rise to THREE Magi; actually, in the past centuries, some people thought the Magi even to be seven. These men came from the East, but it is not clear just how far east of Israel, Jerusalem and Bethlehem that was. What moved the Magi, which means 'Wise

Men', to seek out Jesus?

We now have no revelation about Jesus from the angel of God, so usual in Matthew; revelation will come from elsewhere here. A common teaching is that sometime about 6BC, near the time of the birth of Jesus, there appeared a star in the heavens east of Israel. This appearance was bizarre and called for interpretation. In those days the world was divided into twelve sections, and these corresponded with twelve sections of heaven. This star appeared in the heavens where there was another bizarre astronomic action, the nearness of Jupiter to Saturn, and both in the area of the constellation of Pisces. Jupiter and Saturn were linked to gods, one a king, the other to a great warrior. The magi noticed this marvel in the sky and reported it to their king, interpreting for him the meaning: a mighty king has been born in that section of the earth corresponding to what has appeared in heaven. Israel was this section. As usual, at the birth of a new-born king, presents would be sent to him: the presents were meant as a sign of good will and the desire of peace between the royal giver of these gifts and the royal recipient. The Magi were designated to make the journey to find this new-born king and offer him these peace-offerings. The gifts chosen were extremely expensive, usually available only to those who had great funds. Gold is obviously costly, but so were frankincense and myrrh. Frankincense was the most expensive scent available; given the lack of bathing in this world, odors were a constant displeasure; frankincense, the finest of odors, fitted the needs of kings and queens. Myrrh, so difficult to harvest and then to send across trade routes, was a balm of great value, but extremely costly.

Such were the gifts presented to Jesus.

Matthew, up till now dependent on revelation from heavenly nature, completes his story with revelation from the Jewish Scriptures. The star brought the Magi to Israel, but then ceased. Logically, the Magi went to Jerusalem, capital of Israel, to ask where might be found the 'king of the Jews'? Herod the Great, already named by Rome as 'king of the Jews', took offence at the implication of the Magi's question. Herod appealed to his own type of Wise Men (known as Scribes), men excellent in their understanding of Jewish prophecy. Their advice to Herod was to look in Bethlehem for this child. The prophet Micah (approx. 730-690BC) spoke of a future king from 'you (in Bethlehem), shall by no means be least among the rulers of Judah; you shall be a ruler to shepherd my people Israel'. The Magi turn, then, to the road leading south from Jerusalem, to Bethlehem about 15 miles away. The star appeared again and led them to the exact house (note: not a cave now) in which they could find this king and give their gifts. Herod's intention was evil when he gave directions to the Magi; his intent was ultimately to kill this new-born usurper, 'king of the Jews'. Matthew now appeals to a device he is quick to use when presenting heavenly messages: the Magi learn in a dream that they should return home by another route, and so they do.

Matthew's story, with input from what we know of the middle east of the time and from astronomy, means to emphasize the kingship of Jesus. He will be a wise, powerful and holy king, and so an excellent protector and leader of his people. But Matthew wants us to know that already, through the OT, Jesus of Nazareth, the adult preacher and teacher, has long been prepared for by God. The citation from Micah is one of hundreds that show support for faith in Jesus; for Christians, an enduring value of the OT is its preparation at all literary and theological levels for the coming of Jesus. Granted that such beliefs as the three Persons in one God, the virgin birth, the Eucharist, the redemption from sin by Jesus' death – granted that these are at best only faintly found in the OT, the witness to the importance of the OT for interpreting Jesus as a continuation of God's love for Israel is sure. But of great importance here is the fact that, in a Gospel dedicated so strongly to the salvation of Israel, there should be mention, at the very beginning, of Gentiles finding the king of the Jews. This Magi story serves as the beginning which ends with: Go teach all nations, baptizing them. Jesus is, when the story ends, really understood to be king of Israel and of the Gentiles, of all nations. Matthew's story is his literary way of preparing for the end of his Gospel and the church thereafter.

WHERE'S WALDO?

It's a fun thing to try and find where Waldo is, right? Just to let you know, in the deeper winter depths, the months of January, February and probably March, the priests of Divine Mercy parish will for weekday Masses pretty much stay at the campus where they reside. Again, this pertains only to weekday Masses. Throughout winter, on the weekend Masses, they'll continue to rotate around the campuses and the Masses.

Once winter is finished, they'll then resume rotating between the campuses as they preside at weekday Masses.

IN THE SPIRIT OF RENEW MY CHURCH: GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES

"The Church was founded for the purpose of spreading the kingdom of Christ throughout the earth for the glory of God the Father, to enable all men (and women) to share in His saving redemption, and that through them the whole world might enter into a relationship with Christ."

Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity, #2

"The disciple of Christ must not only keep the faith and live on it, but also profess it, confidently bear witness to it, and spread it."

Catechism of the Catholic Church
#1816

"How are you to be recognized as true disciples of Christ? By the fact that you have love for one another (John 13:35) after the example of his love: a love that is freely given, infinitely patient and denied to no one (1 Corinthians 13:4-7)"

Pope John Paul II, Message for World Youth Day, August 15, 1996

"I will go anywhere in order to communicate the love of Jesus to those who do not know him or have forgotten him."

St. Frances Cabrini

Let us pray.
God of goodness,
We ask you to shower us with your love and fill us with the fullness of your Spirit.
Strengthen us in faith so that we can live as authentic disciples of your Son.
Give us the courage to go and make disciples in our world today.
We ask this in the name of Jesus, who has promised to be with us until the end of time.
Amen.

GRATITUDE

THE ST. PHILIP GIVING TREE

Many thanks to all the parishioners who participated in the St. Philip Giving Tree, which provided gift cards for the parishioners of St. Benedict the African (the sharing parish of St. Philip the Apostle) and toys for clients of Catholic Charities. Your generosity is always amazing and the recipients are always so grateful.

Remember
donations are being accepted until January 6th. Thank you so much!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR OUTREACH TO ST. COLUMBANUS

First, thank you to all the parishioners who participated in this year's Christmas Sharing program by adopting a needy family from St. Columbanus and providing them with gifts for Christmas! Nearly 100 families participated! Thank you!

Some statistics for you:
97 families participated in Christmas Sharing and adopted 93 St. Columbanus families. 40 of the 93 were families from St. Columbanus parish, 20 were from the Food Pantry, and another 33 were from the parish School, August Tolton Catholic Academy.
190 boxes full of presents (and one recliner!) made their way from the Sacred Heart Church sanctuary to the St. Columbanus Church Sanctuary. In addition, over 50 families donated to the Jewel Foods Gift Card program!

Special thanks to the volunteers at Sacred Heart Church who helped checking in and moving all the boxes: Jack Kroepfl (8th grader), John Ryan (HS sophomore), Maria Ryan (College sophomore), Jim and Fran Freeman and Janet Ryan. Thanks also to all the parishioners who helped move the boxes out of the sanctuary after 10:30am Mass. It is quite the production!

Thanks as well to all those who contributed to the Shopping Cart Collection for the St. Columbanus Food Pantry over Christmas. Fr. Matt O'Donnell, pastor of St. Columbanus, and Preston Mahone, the Director of the Food Pantry, are extremely grateful for these funds!

*This year,
as you pack up the Christmas decorations, don't put away the spirit of Christmas.*

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL!

Our 8th grade students, along with the 8th graders from Faith, Hope and Charity, participated in the annual 8th grade Christmas Dinner Dance in the Parish Center. The students from both schools dressed up in their finest attire, ate dinner together, and then put to good use the dance lessons they've been receiving thus far this year. It was a wonderful evening of food, laughter, conversation, and dancing.

Look who came to Sacred Heart School! Santa first came to us during Mass. Without saying a word, he walked up the aisle to approach baby Jesus, knelt before him to leave a gift and say a prayer, and left just as quietly. Santa then came over to visit the PS, JK and K classrooms.

We had another lovely meeting of prayer families before break. Students met with their families to learn about the Corporal Work of Mercy - Visit the Sick. They made the ornaments by stuffing different materials inside clear plastic ornaments and then decorating the outside of them as well. Ornaments were delivered to a local nursing home to decorate the trees in their common room.

Here's to a blessed happy and healthy New Year! See you back at school on Monday, January 7, 2019!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

SACRED HEART CAMPUS NATIVITY PAGEANT DECEMBER 16, 2018

Students in Sacred Heart Religious Education celebrated the third Sunday of Advent with the annual Nativity Pageant. The Pageant was performed by the third grade and was attended by all students in Religious Ed, as well as parents and other parishioners. The festivities began with the lighting of the Advent wreath led by sixth grade students, followed by a Christmas Carol Sing-along led beautifully and enthusiastically by the fourth and fifth grade. Then came the Pageant which reverently showcased the Nativity of Jesus. The performance was followed by a fun and festive Christmas party for all in attendance. Many thanks to the Pageant Directors Barb Anderson and Ed Kuffert, our music helpers Jim and Nicholas Carey, our parent co-chairs Amy Chudgar and Julie Stiller, Catechists Heather Stepan and Missy and Margo Hession and all the other third grade parents who assisted at practices and at the pageant. Most especially we thank our third graders who worked hard to prepare for this special, and always touching, performance. Bravo!
