FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

THE VATICAN MEETING

Due to bulletin deadlines, I am writing this column in advance of the special meeting of Pope Francis and the heads of all of the bishops' conferences worldwide. I am writing this on February 20. The meeting begins on February 21.

This means, of course, that I really cannot comment on what has just transpired because as of this writing I haven't a clue. In case the media haven't explained, let me say a few things about this special meeting.

It's unprecedented in the history of the church. First, because up until the Second Vatican Council there was no such thing as a bishops' conference. At least, not worldwide. In the USA there was a conference of sorts during the WWII years to coordinate the bishops of this country in their response to and support of the war (and relief) efforts.

The Second Vatican Council called for the establishment of bishops' conferences to be organized by nation or by distinctive geographic area. When they were initially set up by the Council (in October 1965 with the decree Christus Dominus), it was stipulated that each bishops' conference put together a central administration office for the conference, and that the conference would then hold regular meetings.

Each conference would focus on common concerns regarding the pastoral situation of that region and it had the power to make binding regulations for the whole region in certain specified liturgical and disciplinary matters. Since their establishment in 1965, Saint Pope John Paul II, on the advice of the then head of the Doctrinal Office, Cardinal Ratzinger, limited the ability of bishops' conferences to issue binding regulations, saying that the conference needed to be in unanimous accord (versus the majority vote previously needed). He argued this point in that each bishop of a diocese is the sole head with complete power within his diocese—no other bishop other than the pope, the Bishop of Rome, could intervene within that diocese. Hence the need for a unanimous vote of the conference for authoritative national action. This voting restriction may have changed since then, I haven't kept up entirely up on this. Here is how the Catechism weighs in on the matter:

As Christ's vicar, each bishop has the pastoral care of the particular Church entrusted to him, but at the same time he bears collegially with all his brothers in the episcopacy the solicitude for all the Churches. Though each bishop is the lawful pastor only of the portion of the flock entrusted to his care, as a legitimate successor of the apostles he is, by divine institution and precept, responsible with the other bishops for the apostolic mission of the Church (CCC n 1560).

As far as I know, the presidents of all the bishops' conferences have never been called to Rome to meet with the pope about a specific issue or problem. That's why I say this meeting is unprecedented.

It indicates the depth of concern over the abuse issue. It shows that Pope Francis is serious when he wants the entire worldwide church to address this effectively. We shall see what worldwide steps will be taken as a result of this special meeting and how those general steps will play out at each conference level and from there how it filters down to each diocese.

COMMONWEAL ARTICLE

The Pennsylvania grand jury report created a bit of press when it was issued. Since then, author Peter Steinfels has written a very lengthy critique of the report. I found it fascinating.

You can read his take on the report in the January 25 (2019) issue of Commonweal. Those who receive the print version of that magazine read on the front cover of the January issue: "The Pennsylvania grand jury report on sex abuse by Catholic priests is inaccurate, unfair, and fundamentally misleading. Its shortcomings should not be masked by its vehement style, its befuddling structure, or its sheer bulk." -- Peter Steinfels (who actually read it)

The article is definitely worth reading.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back."
(LUKE 6:35)

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Mercy and compassion will put us on the path to holiness.

HOLY HOUR AT ST. PHILIP

Join Divine Mercy parishioners for Holy Hour every Friday afternoon at 3:00p.m. at St. Philip Church.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That writers, artists and performers may inspire people to be compassionate, kind, and respectful of each and every human life from conception to natural death, we pray to the Lord.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group meets every Monday morning. We'll meet at the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome—it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

PAPAL TWEETS

"Love of God and love of neighbor are inseparable. They are two sides of the same coin: lived together they are the true strength of believers!"

BUILDING THE NEW REALITY AT DIVINE MERCY PARISH LENTEN SPEAKER SERIES: FROM MAINTENANCE TO MISSION

As we near the end of phase four of Renew My Church, the operations phase, we have a much better understanding of our needs as a new combined parish. There's still a lot of work ahead of us, but we have turned a corner and are now headed towards the final phase of renewal in which we'll begin to build our new reality.

The good news is that the St. Philip and Sacred Heart faith communities have gotten to know each other a little better. We've gathered together for Mass, for Adult Formation events, and parish events like the Pancake Breakfast and Pasta Palooza. Getting to know each other takes time and effort on the part of all of us.

In an effort to help guide us into the final phase of building our new reality, we will host a speaker series during Lent that will offer parishioners insight into the future.

BETH WHITE & JENNIFER DELVAUX - WHAT IS RENEWAL?

Monday, March 11th at 7pm in the Sacred Heart Parish Center

We'll welcome Beth White (Director of the Office of Evangelization for the Archdiocese) and Jenn Delvaux (Evangelization Coordinator of the Archdiocese) to talk to us about renewal. What does it mean? What do we need to do to become a true faith community of disciples focused on the Mission of Christ? How do we bring our parish mission statement to life (Making Disciples / Building Church / Serving Others)?

FR. JASON MALAVE - WHAT IS CHURCH?

Monday, March 18th at 7pm at St. Philip the Apostle Church

We'll also welcome Fr. Jason Malave, the Cardinal's Liaison to Renew My Church. Fr. Jason will discuss the topic of Church, which can range from the universal church, the Church in Rome to a small faith community that meets in your family room!

FR. PETER WOJCIK & MARCO OROPEZA -

BUILDING THE NEW REALITY. WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Monday, April 1st at 7pm in the Sacred Heart Parish Center

Finally, Fr. Peter Wojcik, Director of Parish Vitality and Mission, and Marco Oropeza, Chief Program Management Officer will talk about building our new reality. What does that mean? They'll discuss the need to transform our culture, and the mission we are called to embrace and sent forth into the world to realize.

As you prepare for this Lenten series, think about ways you and / or your family can help Divine Mercy help build the new reality. How can you help to live out our parish mission of making disciples, building church and serving others? Think big!

ADULT FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

INTERESTED IN HOSTING A SMALL FAITH GROUP DURING LENT?

If you'd like to gather a group of friends or family to read and reflect on the Sunday scriptures and share in a Lenten meditation, using a resource provided by the parish (LIVE LENT or ARISE), please contact Judy Pyke at the parish office or at jpyke@divinemercynorthshore.org. The resource includes all the materials you need, including the readings for Lent, discussion questions and instructions on how to begin and end each session.

HEALING OURSELVES FROM A PLACE OF CENTERING PRAYER

Be Still and Know That I am God.
(Psalm 46:10)

This simple wisdom saying is an invitation given to you by God during this Lenten Season. It is a call to take time and set aside some of your activities to explore the rich wisdom and teachings of the Contemplative tradition through the Method of Centering Prayer, and come into intimate relationship with God, with yourself, with others, and learn how to rest in God in silence, stillness, and solitude. It is our hope that this journey will transform your relationship with yourself, others, and most importantly, with God.

This five-week course is an opening to the presence of God through contemplative dimension of the Gospel. The topics for the course include: The Spiritual Journey with Fr. Thomas Keating, (A Cistercian Trappist monk); Who is God - Attitudes Toward God; Emotional Programs for Happiness; and the Spiritual and Psychological Experience of Centering Prayer. Centering Prayer is a contemporary prayer of the heart, a prayer of simplicity, a prayer of faith, and a method as a way of reducing obstacles to the development of grace.

Weekly classes will be offered on 2 different days and times:

Thursdays at 7-8:30 pm: March 7, 14, 21, 28, and April 4, 2019.

Saturdays at 9:15 – 10:45 am: March 9, 16, 23, 30, and April 6, 2019.

PLACE: 319 WAUKEGAN RD. NORTHFIELD, ILLINOIS

All are welcome! There are no fees, just an offering for the handouts and other materials.

CONTACT Sr. Leonette Kaluzny at either 847-881-8424; 847-441-0126, or leonettekaluzny@aol.com.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

2019 Annual Catholic Appeal

"Come, Follow Me... and share the Word"

This weekend, our parish will be conducting the Annual Catholic Appeal in-pew Commitment Weekend. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The Annual Catholic Appeal theme, "Come, Follow Me...and Share the Word," was selected to remind us to continue to answer Jesus' call to follow Him in thought, word and deed by providing the necessary contribution to fund ministries and services to share God's love with many others in our Parish and our Archdiocese.

Each pledge makes a difference! All parishes communities participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our parishes, schools, and ministries to deliver needed services. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

OUTREACH

January 2019

Everything lies in this:
that the eternal birth
should take place in me.

*Dear friends at St. Philip,
Thank you! The gift cards are very appreciated and our minds are spinning with plans already!*

*Joining with Christians all over the world,
we remind ourselves of the powerful gift and responsibility of the Incarnation for us.
May we call one another to the holy work of making Christ present in life. Thank you for our connection.*

SACRED HEART HELPS FEED THE HUNGRY

Many thanks to all those who contributed to Sacred Heart's monthly trip to the Just Harvest Community Kitchen (www.ajustharvest.org) on Sunday, February 17.

We were able to share a warm, healthy dinner with our Rogers Park neighbors.

Our cooks and servers included Beth & Craig Benson; Sheilah & Julia Burnham; Brendan Cohn; Ally & Jack DuBord; Sidney Hollis; Kristin, Amanda, Jack & John Kroepfl; Rowan Lawlor; Clara Manzano; Rob, Jack & Michael O'Keef; Camila Sanchez and Jim Carey.

We thank our friends at Sunset Foods in Highland Park for their ongoing generous donations of fresh produce.

We make a trip to Just Harvest on the 3rd Sunday of every month.

If you and your family would like to help, contact Patty Sanfilippo at 847-525-3754, or at psanfilippo1380@gmail.com. We would love to have you join us!

The competition was fierce! Principal Fink versus the 8th graders in a Lip Sync contest proved to be entertaining and fun! Sacred Heart students gathered in the gym last week to see Miss Fink perform "Let It Go" and "Baby Shark" while the 8th graders did hip hop and country songs that really got the crowd going. The 8th graders came out on top but it was close. These performances were brought to Sacred Heart from the spectacular fund raising done by our students during Boosterthon earlier this year.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

SACRED HEART CAMPUS

A family is our first community and the most basic way in which the Lord gathers us, forms us, and acts in the world. The profound and the ordinary moments of daily life – mealtimes, workdays, vacations, expressions of love and intimacy, household chores, caring for a sick child or elderly parent, and even conflicts over things like how to celebrate holidays, discipline children or spend money – all are the threads from which you can weave a pattern of holiness.” Follow the Way of Love, USCCB

Divine Mercy Family Faith Connection

“This is a wonderful program. Whenever I tell people about it, they’re eager to get started.”

SAINT PHILIP CAMPUS

*“I want to walk as a child of the light.
I want to follow Jesus.”*

“And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.’”

Last Saturday our students from 2nd grade received the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time in their lives.

We all rejoiced with them and worshiped our merciful Father for His great love which He has for each one of us.
