The Extraordinary Peace of Christ

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

GREATLY BLESSED: PART ONE

I want to share an important message with you from the Finance Council.

Our parish is blessed to have received three significant donations, totaling $187,000, that are included in offertory income as designated by the donors. These generous gifts greatly boost our Sunday collection income, as indicated in the "At a Glance" numbers reflected in this week's bulletin. We are very grateful for these unexpected donations.

Please accept our heartfelt thanks to all of our donors. Divine Mercy could do nothing without the generosity of each and every person who has made a gift to this parish. All gifts, no matter the size, help us to further our mission. By giving, we emulate God himself, who has been so generous to us.

The offertory collection is our primary source of revenue, so please continue your support each week. Sunday collections and donor gifts not only help maintain our facilities, but they provide financial support for the mission our Divine Mercy Parish has embarked upon. The parish will be developing programs which will enable people to share their faith and serve others in new and exciting ways. Our prayer is that every parishioner of Divine Mercy parish will grow in their faith, and experience and share all our parish community has to offer.

Our future is an exciting one and we hope you feel that same excitement.

WHAT A BLESSING YOU ARE!

God bless you all for your generous support each week. Large or small, each gift is important and gives glory to the Lord. You may be physically putting a cash or envelope gift into the basket, or you may be electronically donating to the offertory, or you may mail in or drop off a check to that same collection. In whatever form your donation comes to the parish, we are deeply grateful for your generosity. Without that generosity, we would not go very far in "making disciples, building church and serving others," as expressed in our tag line.

GENEROSITY ENABLES CREATIVITY AND LIVELINESS

From my perspective as pastor, it is exciting and humbling to see such generosity. Know that the staff, the Senior Leadership Team, the Parish Council and the Finance Council are actively working to put this generosity to good use as we move through phase five of Renew My Church.

We are evaluating liturgy and music, and are beginning to prepare for a different sort of vibrant and uplifting Mass experience on Sunday evenings (and expanding from there to other weekend Masses). Alpha is off to a good start in its pilot form. We will offer Alpha in the fall to everyone who wants to attend. Religious formation of children is continuing to innovate, shifting from being content-driven to conversion driven.

GREATLY BLESSED: PART TWO

Next weekend Sacred Heart School awards its graduates diplomas at a special weekend Mass at 1:00 in the afternoon. These young graduates go forth from our school.

We send them forth with our blessing. But they, themselves, are a blessing: to us, to their families, and to the new schools they will be attending in the upcoming academic year.

Of course, as they move on, they are not leaving the parish. We are excited to send them on their way with our prayers, and we look forward to their continuing personal and faithful development as disciples of Jesus who are learning elsewhere but who are celebrating that discipleship here at Divine Mercy parish.

A special thank you to the parents of the graduates for sacrificing and making the investment to enroll their child in a Catholic grammar school. This investment is a gift you give to them that lays a beautiful foundation for their future, and ours, as a church!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

MEMORIAL DAY MASS AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

It has been a tradition to offer Mass on Memorial Day at Sacred Heart Cemetery as we pay tribute to those who have given their lives in defense of our nation, as well as to pray for all of our beloved dead buried there or elsewhere. Due to construction on Dundee Road at Lee Road it would be inconvenient to have the Mass there. Hence it will be moved, for this year only, to Sacred Heart Church. It will be the only Mass offered on Memorial Day at Divine Mercy Parish.

It has also been a tradition to invite those in attendance at the cemetery to take a flower to the grave of their loved one at the end of Mass. This year those attending will be offered a flower as they enter church; and they will be invited after the homily to bring their flower forward and place it in a vase at the altar. After Mass there will be a reception in the Sacred Heart Church Courtyard, and the vases will be carried in the recessional and placed before the statue of the Sacred Heart in the courtyard. Please join us at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, May 27 for this lovely and meaningful Mass and the reception following.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"...do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That Christ's farewell gift of peace may be preserved through a renewed respect and protection for every human life, particularly as the State of Illinois considers legislation that would endanger the unborn; we pray to the Lord.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

Note, due to the observation of Memorial Day, the scripture reflection group will NOT meet on Monday, May 27. We will resume our gatherings on Monday, June 3rd.

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

"We pray for those who live with severe illness. Let us always safeguard life, God's gift, from its beginning until its natural end. Let us not give in to a throwaway culture."

OUR PARISH

OUR FUTURE

BE BOLD

As part of our Renew My Church efforts in building our new reality to become a vibrant faith community that seeks to make disciples, build church and serve others, we want to be BOLD in everything we do! That can manifest itself in so many exciting and creative ways. The possibilities are endless. We wanted to share with you one of the (visible) bold steps our Senior Leadership Team decided to take to help move our parish forward. On May 12th, when we celebrated Mother's Day with all the wonderful women who mother in one way or another, we invited several women from the parish and our staff to share their thoughts on motherhood, as it fit so well with that Sunday's Gospel:

"Jesus said:

"My sheep hear my voice;

I know them, and they follow me.

I give them eternal life,

and they shall never perish.

No one can take them out of my hand.

My Father, who has given them to me,

is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Given that these reflections were so well received and many parishioners want to hear more from women of the parish, we wanted to share with you the text of some of those Mother's Day Reflections in this column. They're a great reminder to be bold!

This reflection comes to you from Patty Sanfilippo, who spoke at the 5:00pm Mass on May 11, 2019.

GRATITUDE

My name is Patty Sanfilippo. When Judy 1st asked me to speak on this weekend, I told her "well, OK, but you've got to recognize that I'm a one-trick pony. I tell the same story and/or borrow shamelessly from presentations that others have done before." So – I'm letting you know - don't be surprised if you've heard some of this from me or others before!

I know that it's Mother's Day

weekend, and not Thanksgiving, but I thought I'd share things that I'm thankful for. As you listen, maybe you can add the things you are thankful for too.

I want to start by saying how thankful I am to have had terrifically loving and generous parents. I'm especially thankful for a Mom who went back to work and supported our family when my Dad switched from the "safety" of the corporate world to being an entrepreneur. She was a wonderful role model ... independent, confident, well-organized. (I like to think I picked up some of those qualities.)

I'm thankful that I've been able to launch two amazing children, Michael & Anna. They are smart, interesting, resilient young adults and I'm really proud of them and their accomplishments (although I have to admit that I sometimes find myself wishing they were still young and at home greeting me when I'd come home from work at night – "Mom, Mom – You're Home!"). I bet some of you feel the same, yes?

I'm thankful for music - The Beatles, Diana Ross and the Supremes, The Temptations, Billy Joel, WFMT.

I'm thankful for the challenge of the Sunday crossword puzzle in the Tribune.

I'm thankful for Jason Guy who's a writer for the Wall Street Journal – he always makes me smile with his snarky sense of humor.

I'm thankful for the Chicago Botanic Garden...enough said.

I'm thankful for the Winnetka Library – countless free books and movies! What could be better!

I'm thankful for TV and shows like Grace & Frankie, The Blacklist, Friends, The Great British Baking Show and, in general, The Food Network although anyone who knows me knows that I don't cook.

I'm really thankful for musical theater (and Broadway in Chicago) ...some favorites: Hamilton, Dear Evan Hansen, Beautiful, Jersey Boys, Waitress, Wicked. I could keep going but I'll stop there.

I'm thankful for my cat, Sasha, who keeps me company but like most cats, it's on her time, not mine. For example, she likes to be petted in the morning while I'm eating breakfast but not in the evening when I'm sitting around relaxing – she just watches me then. Weird!

I'm thankful for words like "hangry." So descriptive!

I'm thankful for clean, drinkable water that's plentiful. I'm thankful for public servants (police, fire department) and any one who is serving or ever served in the military.

I'm thankful for my health. I'm thankful for my job.

I can't even begin to tell you how thankful I am for my friends.

I'm thankful for the healing power of prayer.

I'm thankful for a parish led by a strong pastor and parish staff that's willing to take on the challenges of renewing the church in order to create a faith community that will thrive and grow into the future.

And I'm thankful for the many parishioners who offer their time, talents and treasures in support of ministries in our parish and the broader community.

I'm going to stop there so that I can share a short story with you...

UNOPENED GIFTS

There was once a woman who had a dream and, upon waking, she wondered what the dream was about. In her dream she went to heaven and found herself in a room about the size of a small bedroom. And, in the corner of the room she noticed a huge pile of beautifully wrapped gifts. Well, she was a patient woman so she waited and waited and waited ... but nothing happened. Finally, her curiosity got the better of her and she went over and looked more closely at the gifts to find out who they were for. And, come to find out, her name was on every one of the gifts! So, she waits a little while longer and then suddenly Christ himself walks into the room. Can you imagine her surprise and amazement?! Christ then speaks to her and asks, "What's on your mind?" She says, "WOW! All these gifts are for me? What's the meaning of all this?" Christ replies, "These were all the gifts you were given on earth... but never opened." Don't forget to open your gifts! Thank you & Happy Mother's Day!

On behalf of Divine Mercy Parish, thank you, Patty!

LET'S TALK ALPHA

First, thank you for your continued prayers for our Pilot Alpha. Prayer is a key component of the Alpha experience, and essential for its success.

We also wanted to share some basic information about Alpha so everyone better understands what it is, and what it is not. Alpha provides a welcoming space where one can explore life's big questions and the Christian faith. It is an opportunity to get to know Jesus. No two Alphas look the same, but generally have three key things in common: good food, a video and good conversation in a small group setting.

Alpha is NOT the catechism, nor a teaching mechanism. Alpha is not going to answer all the questions one might have about Christianity or Catholicism. It is, however, a conversation starter, a door opener. It's just one tool we'll use to engage people in conversation about those big life questions and Jesus Christ.

We hope you'll give Alpha some thought whether you are a cradle Catholic, a fallen away Catholic, someone seeking a deeper relationship with Christ, or someone who does not know Jesus at all. All are welcome and invited to join Alpha!

We are set to launch Alpha on Monday, September 23rd at 6:30pm. Come and see! Again, all are welcome and invited!

RUMMAGE SALE

Spring cleaning time is upon us and we will once again be collecting clean, gently used clothing, baby items, household goods & garden tools for St. Benedict the African's summer rummage sale. Linens, kitchen wares & small appliances are in high demand. We are unable to accept large furniture, books or computer/stereo equipment. We are only able to accept flat screen TV's up to 50 inches.

We will be collecting your many treasures at the St. Philip the Apostle Gym, located west of the Church in the front of the school on Monday, June 10, Tuesday, June 11 & Wednesday, June 12 from 9:00-noon & Monday, June 10 from 5:30-7:30.

This rummage sale provides financial assistance to our sharing parish & material goods for the people in the Englewood community. We are in need of volunteers for all times on Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday to help sort & pack donations. We also need volunteers on Friday, June 14, from 8:30-10:15 to help pack the truck for transport to St. Benedict. Please email Judy Meade at mamabinn@aol.com or call 847-998-9808 with any questions & to volunteer.

Thank You for a Great Year!

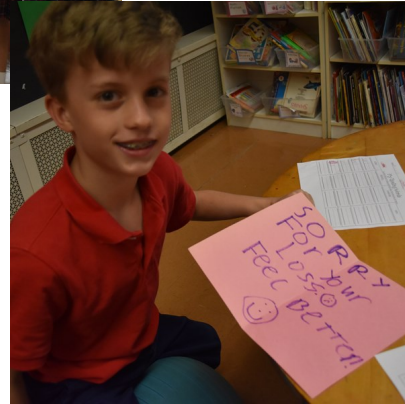

The Sacred Heart campus celebrated our last session with a Family Mass, May Crowning and Reception. Our children and Catechists shared highlights of the year with an inspiring witness of service, prayer and faith sharing. We expressed gratitude to our wonderful Catechists and Aides who are the core of our faith formation. Thank you to all who made our year together a success!

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL!

Last Thursday was the final meeting of prayer families for the 2018-2019 school year. With a focus on the Corporal Works of Mercy - Bury the Dead, students created cards for those who have lost someone. Those cards have been given to the parish and will be shared with parishioners at their time of need. Prayer Families also created items to thank the eighth graders who led them throughout this entire year.

bought souvenir rocks and geodes in their gift shop. The best part - they got to take the Metra to and from the rock shop! They had a blast an unforgettable field trip!
