A CRUCIAL SUCCESS

We have finished the pilot of Alpha. It concluded this past Pentecost Sunday. You are probably wondering, "What is Alpha?"

At its roots, Alpha is a place to explore life's big questions, to say what you think and to hear other people's points of view.

How Does Alpha Work?

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Each session includes a meal, a teaching video on a different aspect of Christianity and a conversation.

The series of videos explores the basic Christian message. If you think you have nothing to learn about that basic message, consider that I, myself, learned a great deal from the videos.

An Initial Step

We needed to pilot Alpha before we open it up to everyone to attend. The pilot helped us to train those who will put on the first season of Alpha in the parish.

The pilot was a success given the reaction of the participants. At the conclusion of the final session of Alpha, one participant was emphatic, "Everyone in the parish should go through this!" Another said, they "feel more comfortable talking about my faith." 65% of participants witnessed God at work in people's lives and strengthened existing faith.

Who Is Alpha For?

Alpha is for everyone. You'll be hearing more about Alpha in future bulletins or in Church at Mass.

Grateful and Praying

Thank you to all who participated in the pilot of Alpha and experienced how successful it can be. As we get closer to the launch of the first season of Alpha in the fall, you will hear more about it as parishioners from this first pilot experience share with you at Sunday Mass how it has impacted them. Please pray for the continued success of Alpha as we move forward into the future God is preparing for us.

In our prayers, let's keep focused on what it is we are building in the new parish of Divine Mercy. We are, most of all: Making Disciples, Building Church, Serving Others!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (JOHN 16:13)

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us know and live the truth. To prepare ourselves, we need to open our hearts to receive this gift before we can give it. Develop a daily prayer routine. Talk and listen to the Holy Spirit. This is best done in silence, when we can hear His response.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That the union of life in the Trinity may bring us into deeper union with those society tends to reject or ignore; we pray to the Lord.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group meets every Monday morning. We'll meet at the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass. We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. We share what is in our hearts and on our minds. No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome—it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

A PRAYER FOR OUR WORLD

Sweet Virgin of Fatima, who has deigned to appear in the land of Portugal and has brought peace both interior and exterior, we beg you to watch over our dear homeland and to assure it's moral and spiritual revival. Bring back peace to all nations of the world so that all, and our own nation in particular, may be happy to call you their Queen of Peace.

A PRAYER FOR FATHERS

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless the Fathers of Divine Mercy Parish. May they be strengthened as Christian fathers and men of God. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their spouses, loved ones, sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

"God loves with a Father's love. Every life, and every one of us, belongs to him."

RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE

Note that the Respect Life Committee will not meet during the month of July. Our meetings always take place on the first Wednesday of each month from 4-5:30pm at the St. Philip Convent. Our next scheduled meeting will take place on August 7th. All are welcome!

NEW AND BOLD

As part of our Renew My Church efforts in building our new reality to become a vibrant faith community that seeks to make disciples, build church and serve others, we want to be BOLD in everything we do! That can manifest itself in so many exciting and creative ways. The possibilities are endless. We wanted to share with you one of the (visible) bold steps our Senior Leadership Team decided to take to help move our parish forward. On May 12th, when we celebrated Mother's Day with all the wonderful women who mother in one way or another, we invited several women from the parish and our staff to share their thoughts on motherhood, as it fit so well with that Sunday's Gospel:

"Jesus said:

"My sheep hear my voice;

I know them, and they follow me.

I give them eternal life,

and they shall never perish.

No one can take them out of my hand.

My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Given that these reflections were so well received and many parishioners want to hear more from women of the parish, we wanted to share with you the text of some of those Mother's Day Reflections in this column. They're a great reminder to be bold!

This reflection comes to you from Judy Pyke, who spoke at the 5:30pm Mass (at St. Philip) and the 7:30am Mass (at Sacred Heart) on May 12, 2019.

Good morning. For those of you who do not know me, I am Judy Pyke, the Director of Ministries (now Communications) here at Divine Mercy. I'm grateful for this opportunity to share my thoughts with you on faith and motherhood, especially in light of the gospel we just heard.

I wonder. Is there any woman in this church, whether she is a mom, or one of the wonderful women who have mothered children in one way or another, who doesn't identify with the first sentence in the Gospel? "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." It's something we all aspire to as parents, and as Catholics. Just as disciples of Christ follow him, we hope and pray that our children will hear our voice and follow us. We hope that the seeds we sow will fall upon the fertile soil we've prepared. And then we pray. And pray. And pray. At some point, though, we have to let go and let God, as the saying goes.

I have to remind myself that it's my job to plant the seeds and care for them... and then, I need to turn it over to God. God can certainly take it from there. I have to trust that faith is stirring in the heart of my child. I have to remind myself that my child received the gift of the Holy Spirit at his baptism, which was strengthened at his confirmation. As Jesus said in today's Gospel, "No one can take them out of the Father's hand."

As long as we continue to hear his voice and follow him, and set that same example for the children in our lives, Christ is with us. And we know when the Spirit is at work in our children. We can see it.

In my case, it was when my son was 4 years old, and in tears when he encountered a homeless person asleep in a storefront doorway and insisted we bring the man home.

It was when he was in third grade, and obsessed with Michelangelo, thanks to his excellent art teacher. When we travelled to Rome later that year and visited the Sistine Chapel, his faith came alive as he looked at Michelangelo's masterpiece.

It was when he was in middle school, and over the course of several weeks, would spend time with a young Jesuit priest, who was dying of cancer. They had the best talks.

It was just a few weeks ago when we were visiting colleges and he challenged me on the existence of God. I think it was the Holy Spirit that guided us through a dialogue about the world and the people around him, all created by a benevolent God who loves us. Thankfully, God is back in business again in his book!

We all have those stories, those moments. We see the signs that the Holy Spirit is alive and well in our children. We hear the voice of Christ, he knows us and we follow him. On this day when we recognize those special women in our lives who have mothered us, remember how much they do for us, how much they teach us, how much they guide us, how much they worry about us, and above all, how much they love us.

To echo the words from today's passage from the Acts of the Apostles, may you, and all the mothers in your life, be filled with joy and the Holy Spirit. Happy Mother's Day!

On behalf of Divine Mercy Parish, thank you, Judy!

OFFER THEIR REFLECTIONS
TODAY.

OUTREACH

"WHATEVER YOU DID FOR ONE OF THESE LEAST BROTHERS OF MINE, YOU DID FOR ME." MATTHEW 25:40

The following is an article published previously, written by one of our Ministers of Care, describing her experience. It warranted reprinting (with minor editing to update the article), given a constant need for new Ministers of Care who are able to bring Holy Communion to the homebound, those in the hospital, and the residents of Maryhaven, Glen Oaks and Lake Cook Nursing Homes. Please, as you read this article, say a prayer to ask the Lord if you are being called to this ministry.

We are many parts, we are all one body in Christ...we often sing these words of St. Paul (1 Corinthians 12:2) in our liturgies during the Communion procession. But we probably don't often think about what and who those parts are. Divine Mercy Parish has many parts—we have hundreds of families and dozens of ministries and organizations that make us a vibrant faith community. Some parts are more visible than others, just as in our physical bodies. There are two parts of our parish bodies that are all but invisible, though many of us probably pass by them frequently without realizing it; they are the Glen Oaks and Lake Cook Health Care Centers on Skokie Blvd in Northbrook.

At Glen Oaks there may be from twenty to forty Catholics at any one time; at Lake Cook there are about twenty to twenty-five. My experience has been at Glen Oaks, so this article will concentrate on that facility. Ministers of Care from the Sacred Heart site have been visiting the Catholic residents at these two facilities, bringing them the comfort and the blessings of the Eucharist each week, for over thirty years. It's a beautiful circle: as Ministers of Care representing our parish community, we are the Body of Christ feeding the Body of Christ to the Body of Christ.

Surprisingly not all the residents are elderly. They are young and middle-aged as well, some going out to work programs, depending on their ability. Some residents have physical disabilities, some are mentally challenged, but whatever their need for care, they each have their own story, hopes, dreams, and personality—they are just like us except that they need special care. Over time, we come to know them just as we do friends and neighbors.

There is DeAngelo, the young man with misshapen legs, but a talent for art; Malik, another young man, bedridden who can only say a few words, but has a smile that lights up the room; Mary, a young woman with MS who looks forward to a pilgrimage to Lourdes; Paul, a kind, devout elderly man who recently received the Anointing of the Sick. These are just a few of our friends at Glen Oaks. There are dozens more. They expect us each Thursday and some come looking for us—if we are late, they worry we may have forgotten them! At Glen Oaks, few residents are bedridden—we might find our people anywhere in the building. So our practice is to "make rounds". We walk the halls, knock on doors, and visit the day rooms on the two floors. When we meet one of the flock, we stop for a brief chat, say the prayers for or with them and, as reverently as possible under the circumstances, give them the Eucharist. Most are tremendously grateful. Some who may be having a difficult time are moved to tears and need a hug.

Occasionally people who are obviously not believers ("Could I have one of those cookies?") ask to receive. Then we offer a blessing or a short prayer with them and usually they feel blessed and grateful. Only rarely do we experience any hostility, which we attribute to the person's mental state. . . .For people whose lives are relatively grim, they are surprisingly thoughtful, generous, and grateful for their blessings.

It's not easy to witness some of the suffering at a nursing home. We can't help but be touched by that, but we've also been moved by many instances of residents caring for one another; and by their gratitude for the small bit of comfort we are able to bring. These are the least brothers and sisters Jesus is talking about. They are not living several continents away, or on an island in the Caribbean or even the relatively short distance of a Metra ride. They are here, living among us, hidden and hungry, part of Divine Mercy Parish. We bring them the blessing of the Eucharist, the Body of Christ, but as we leave, we feel we ourselves have been blessed in return.

~June Hocter, Minister of Care

Think you might be interested in this ministry?

Contact Judy Pyke or Maureen Valvassori. They'll enroll you in the next scheduled Archdiocesan training session. You'll apprentice with an experienced minister, either visiting a homebound person, or patients in a nursing home or hospital.

So help yourself by helping others! Consider this worthwhile ministry. We could really use your help.

Meanwhile a big thank you to all of our Ministers of Care at Divine Mercy, who have given so generously of themselves and their time to bring the Body of Christ to others!

THANK YOU!

FINIAL REPLACEMENT AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

As you probably recall, the bell tower at Sacred Heart Church was struck by lightning late last summer. The effects of that strike included the "explosion" of one of the finials, or decorative pieces, at the top of bell tower, in addition to damages to the sound and video systems, the fire panel and the parish center elevators, just to name the more significant areas.

Immediately after the lightning strike, we hired a masonry company to secure the area and remove debris – this was obviously a significant safety concern! At that time, the masons sent the damaged finial to a fabricator who molded a new finial. Due to the time it took to fabricate the new finial, we were unable to install it until just this past week.

This photo shows the masons very carefully securing the new finial. As if the lightning strike wasn't enough drama, the replacement did not lack its own share of drama...at one point the masons were stranded at the top of the bell tower for several hours due to a malfunction of the lift they used. We are very grateful that they didn't have to spend more time up there!

The new finial is bright white and doesn't yet match the patina of the existing stone, but not to worry! We have been assured that it will age very quickly and you won't be able to see the difference.

Director of Operations*

What You Need to Know

- Religious Education has a new name: Children's Ministry.
- Children's Ministry will be led by Sue Lehocky, the new Director of Evangelization and Lifelong Formation at Divine Mercy. Sue will be assisted by a Coordinator of Children's Ministry, to be hired in the near future.
- We have a new, creative plan to rejuvenate Sunday morning faith formation. This new approach will feature less time "in the classroom" and more time connecting faith to everyday life. Key features are Gospel based lessons, increased parental involvement, service and prayer sessions.
- We will offer 2 programs—Sunday Morning Children's Ministry and Family Faith Connection
- Beginning July 1, 2019, there will be one Children's Ministry program for both Sacred Heart and St. Philip the Apostle. Both sites will continue to host Sunday morning Children's Ministry. Family Faith Connection will be held at the Sacred Heart site.
- Catechists and volunteers will still be needed at both sites.
- Divine Mercy families can register their children at either campus.

Our Mission

Children's Ministry focuses on growing faith and engaging hearts. We offer faith formation to children, kindergarten through 8th grade at both the Sacred Heart and St. Philip the Apostle campuses. We foster the life-long growth of our children and families, as disciples of Jesus Christ, in the Catholic tradition. Our program is supported by many generous adults and high school students who share their faith, time and talents with the children of the parish.
