SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*For everyone who asks, receives;
And the one who seeks, finds;
And to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.*

Luke 11:10

NEWS FROM THE PARISH

Note there is no column from our Pastor this week, as Fr. Steve is fulfilling his civic responsibility of jury duty.

MEET THE STAFF

KATHY HANDELMAN

I am the new Children's Ministry Coordinator for Divine Mercy Parish, and I could not be more excited to join Sue Lehocky, who has led our program for the past four years, as well as all the other staff members who are helping Father Steve make our parish even more vibrant and dynamic.

My husband, Jeff, and I have been parishioners since we moved to Winnetka in 1991. We knew from the beginning that Sacred Heart was a very special place. We were warmly welcomed by former Pastor Tom Raftery, and our four children were baptized here. All four children also attended "CCD," and because of their age span, we were blessed to know the amazing Sister Betty Tranell, Sister Luanne Wilhelm and Sue Lehocky, who joined the parish the year our youngest was confirmed. In fact, I taught Religious Ed for three years, going back to the time when we had Wednesday night classes, so I have a great appreciation for the amazing work that goes on behind the scenes and for all of our incredible catechists.

This past year I served as the marketing coordinator for Sacred Heart School. I learned a lot about all of the great things going on at the school and was privileged to interact with the amazing teachers and staff, especially Principal Kristen Fink. I look forward to continuing to work with the school staff as we together prepare all of our children for the sacraments.

In addition to raising our family, I have always loved working and volunteering, using my background in writing, editing and communications. I had the opportunity to create several issues of Extension magazine and other marketing materials for Catholic Extension. This work took me to some of the poorest areas of our country. I saw firsthand how the Church provides faith, hope and love to those most in need.

When Father Steve described his goal of transforming hearts through our Children's Ministry, I knew this job was for me. We have a wonderful faith community and I feel blessed to help Father Steve and Sue achieve their vision for this ministry. Without a doubt, Divine Mercy Parish is leading the way toward creating a new, engaging, welcoming and dynamic church experience. I am delighted to have the opportunity to help our Children's Ministry as we work together to grow in our faith and engage the hearts of our children and families.

A THANK YOU FROM ST. BENEDICT THE AFRICAN

Dear Divine Mercy Parishioners,
The end of the fiscal year gives us an opportunity to say that we continue to be grateful to you for your concern and support. A special thank you for all the items you sent for our Bummage Sale. You certainly did help to make it a great success. Most of your items went first.
The top of this note pays it all.
God's peace to each one of you.
Gratefully,
St Benedict the African

COMING SOON!

- The parish will schedule two "Town Hall Meetings" this fall to give parishioners an update on our Renew My Church efforts. This same presentation was given to Bishop Mark Bartosic this summer. Watch for those dates to be announced.

- A Parish Calendar of Events for the Coming Year! First up is something you'll want to mark in your calendars to save the date:

Mass in the Meadow Movie Night
Saturday, September 7th at 5:30pm

- A dedicated group of parishioners and staff are working on a radical approach to Hospitality and Welcoming, which will come to Divine Mercy this fall. Stay tuned!
- Season One of Alpha, which will be open to all parishioners - practicing and non-practicing alike! We'll offer sessions on Monday evening, beginning September 23rd and Wednesday mornings, beginning September 25th. Come and see!
- A new Divine Mercy Website is coming your way!

SAVE THE DATE:

MASS IN THE MEADOW & MOVIE NIGHT

SEPTEMBER 7th at 5:30pm

This fall, Divine Mercy will offer a new special event which combines traditional events from both St. Philip and Sacred Heart. On Saturday, September 7th, we will hold Mass in the Meadow followed by Family Movie Night. This event will take place on the beautiful grounds of St. Philip. Mass will be held outdoors beginning at 5:30 pm. Following Mass, food and drink will be available for purchase. Grill Chasers Food Truck will be on hand as well as Graeter's Ice Cream. We'll also be selling movie candy, popcorn and beverages (adult beverages too, of course!). A family friendly movie will begin at sunset (approximately 7:15 pm). For additional fun, we'll provide a do-it-yourself photo booth!

Families are encouraged to bring their outdoor folding chairs and blankets. In the event of inclement weather, the event will be held in the gym at St. Philip.

We hope you'll join us for this fun event. We hope lots of parishioners from both Church sites gather together for this celebration!

Acquire the habit of speaking to God as if you were alone with Him, familiarly and with confidence and love, as to the dearest and most loving of friends.

— Alphonsus Liguori

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

RESPECT LIFE

For those who are far away from the Church, especially within our own families, that they may respond to the call of repentance and reconciliation, we pray to the Lord.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group meets every Monday morning. We'll meet at the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. We share what is in our hearts and on our minds. The Holy Spirit is always at work! No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome - it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

"In difficult times, even more than in times of peace, the priority for believers is to be united to Jesus, our hope."

A PRAYER FOR OUR WORLD

Sweet Virgin of Fatima, who has deigned to appear in the land of Portugal and has brought peace both interior and exterior, we beg you to watch over our dear homeland and to assure it's moral and spiritual revival. Bring back peace to all nations of the world so that all, and our own nation in particular, may be happy to call you their Queen of Peace.

COMMUNITY

NORTH SIDE KAIROS

North Side Kairos is a 4-day retreat for North Side Chicago teens who have just completed their Sophomore, Junior, or Senior years of high school. This year's retreat will take place at the Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House on August 9-12, 2019.

Kairos Retreats are well known throughout the Chicagoland area. Many Catholic high schools have Kairos retreats on a regular basis. This particular Kairos is unique because of its diversity. The youth who participate in and lead this particular Kairos come from both public and Catholic high schools. They come from many different parishes in the city and the suburbs, and this Kairos is co-educational, which many are not. This retreat is also led by trained peer leaders. With appropriate adult leadership from priests and male and female lay ministers, we feel this Kairos is the best possible environment for a Catholic retreat. And even though a participant need not be Catholic to be on the retreat, this diversity creates a safe environment to understand the richness of our Catholic community.

The cost of the retreat is $225, which covers the four day, three night stay at Bellarmine, as well as transportation, food and supplies. You can register at www.standrew.org/kairos2019. Scholarships are available for those in need. For more information regarding, contact Sue Lehocky at the parish office.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

DOCTORS OF THE CHURCH

Each day this week, with the exception of Saturday, the Church celebrates Saints who have contributed greatly to our tradition. On Monday, we celebrate Saint Martha, mentioned in last weekend's Gospel. Tuesday we celebrate Saint Peter Chrysologus, a bishop and Doctor of the Church. Wednesday, we remember Saint Ignatius of Loyola. On Thursday, we remember Saint Alphonsus Liguori, also a bishop and Doctor of the Church. Finally, on Friday, we remember Saint Eusebius of Vercelli and Saint Peter Julian Eymard.

You may be curious to know more about the title 'Doctor of the Church'. The following provides some information from the Crossroads Initiative that you may find interesting.

"The title 'Doctor of the Church,' unlike the popular title 'Father of the Church,' is an official designation that is bestowed by the Pope in recognition of the outstanding contribution a person has made to the understanding and interpretation of the sacred Scriptures and the development of Christian doctrine.

As of 2019, the official list includes thirty-six men and women who hail from all ages of the Church's history. Of these, four are women (Catherine of Siena, Teresa of Avila, Therese of Lisieux, Hildegard of Bingen) and twenty-four are quoted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (Those who are not quoted are Saints Ephraem, Isidore, "the Venerable" Bede, Albert the Great, Anthony of Padua, Peter Canisius, Robert Bellarmine, John of Avila, Hildegard of Bingen, Gregory of Narek and Lawrence of Brindisi).

There are three requirements that must be fulfilled by a person in order to merit being included in the ranks of the "Doctors of the Catholic Church":

- 1) holiness that is truly outstanding, even among saints;
- 2) depth of doctrinal insight; and

3) an extensive body of writings which the church can recommend as an expression of the authentic and life-giving Catholic Tradition.

During the era of the Church Fathers, (approximately AD 100-AD 800), eight Doctors particularly stand out and are called "Ecumenical Fathers" because of their widespread influence. Bronze statues of several of these eight are to be found in St. Peter's Basilica. Four of these hailed from the Western (Latin-speaking) half of the Roman Empire.

St. Ambrose, 340-397

St. Jerome, 345-420

St. Augustine, 354-430

St. Gregory the Great (Pope), 540-604

Four of the Ecumenical Fathers also deemed Doctors came from the Eastern (Greek-speaking) Roman Empire:

St. Athanasius, 295-373

St. Basil the Great, 330-379

St. Gregory of Nazianzus, 330-390

St. John Chrysostom, 345-407

There are eight other Doctors from the patristic period making in total, sixteen (16) Fathers who are also recognized as Doctors of the Church:

St. Ephraem the Deacon, 306-373 (Syriac)

St. Hilary, 315-368 (Latin)

St. Cyril of Jerusalem, 315-387 (Greek)

St. Cyril of Alexandria, 376-444 (Greek)

St. Leo the Great (Pope), 390-461 (Latin)

St. Peter Chrysologus, 400-450 (Latin)

St. Isidore of Seville (last of the Latin Fathers), 560-636

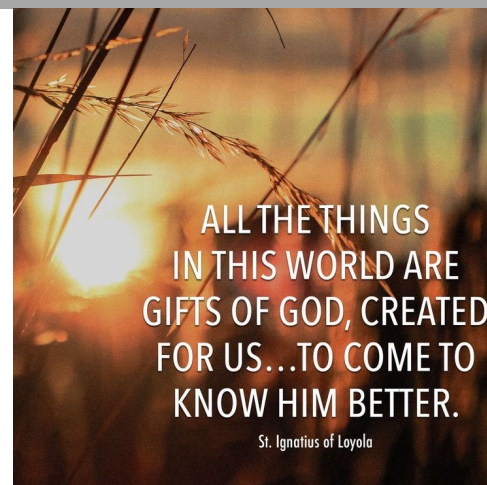

St. John Damascene (last of the Greek Fathers), 676-749

There are eleven Doctors of the Church from the Middle Ages, all of them except the last from the Latin or Western Church:

St. Bede "the Venerable," 673-735

St. Peter Damian, 1007-1072

St. Anselm, 1033-1109

St. Bernard of Clairvaux, 1090-1153

St. Hildegard of Bingen, 1098-1179

St. Anthony of Padua, 1195-1231

St. Albert the Great, 1200-1280

St. Bonaventure, 1217-1274

St. Thomas Aquinas, 1225-1274

St. Catherine of Siena, 1347-1379

St. Gregory of Narek 951-1003

(from the Armenian Church).

There are seven Doctors of the Catholic Church who were prominent in the 16th century Catholic Reformation, all from the Latin Church:

St. John of Avila 1499-1569

St. Teresa of Avila, 1515-1582

St. Peter Canisius, 1521-1597

St. John of the Cross, 1542-1591

St. Robert Bellarmine, 1542-1621

St. Lawrence of Brindisi, 1559-1619

St. Francis de Sales, 1567-1622

There are two Doctors of the Church in the modern era, both from the Latin Church:

St. Alphonsus Liguori, 1696-1787

St. Therese of Lisieux, 1873-1897

This list and definition of the Doctors was adapted and updated from that provided by Louis Miller, Beacons of Light: Profiles of Ecclesiastical Writers Cited in the Catechism (Liguori, MO: Liguori, 1995), 61-62."

Welcome to Children's Ministry

Religious Education/PREP has a new name!

We focus on growing faith and engaging hearts of our children and families. Our approach features Gospel based lessons, increased parental involvement and a focus on service and prayer. Our Sunday Morning Children's Ministry is offered at both the Sacred Heart and St. Philip the Apostle campuses.

For more information or to register online go to www.divinemercynorthshore.org.

Children's Ministry needs you: your gifts, your faith, and your love!

We have open positions for adults and teens as Catechists, Assistant Catechists, classroom aides, room parents and service coordinators. Grow in your own faith while helping our children to open their eyes and hearts to God's love for them. Share in Jesus' ministry with your own talents and gifts. Challenge yourself, have fun and make friends! Don't think you have what it takes? If you have an open heart and are willing to say yes, you already do!

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL!

The school office will be open for the remainder of June from 9:00am to 12:00 noon. In the month of July, we will be here, but our hours are much more fluid. We encourage our staff to take time off to recharge so please email Kristen if you need to come by the school. kfink@shwschool.org.

Are you or someone you know considering Sacred Heart School for the 2019- 2020 school year? Some of the classes are close to capacity so if you are interested, contact our principal Ms. Fink to set up a tour. Here are our current program offerings:

Preschool (8:15-11:30)

Junior Kindergarten (8:15-1:30)

Full Day Junior Kindergarten (8:15-3:15) Kindergarten (8:15-3:15)

1st through 8th grades (8:15-3:15)

In preparation for next year - all incoming PS, JK, K and 6th graders, as well as any students participating in sports through SHAC, will need a current Illinois state medical form by the first day of school. All Kindergartners, 2nd graders and 6th graders need a new dental form as well. Also, all new students to Sacred Heart as well as the kindergartners need a vision form by October 15th. If you need any of these forms, please let us know. Most dentists and pediatricians have these forms available and they are on our web-site as well. We can accept them anytime, so please don't delay and get them to us as soon as you have them.
