

DIVINE MERCY PARISH

SACRED HEART CHURCH · ST. PHILIP THE APOSTLE CHURCH

July 29, 2018

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In his letter to the Ephesians, St. Paul urges us “to live in a manner worthy of the call you received, with all humility, gentleness, with patience...”

How well do we do that?

LIVE A LIFE WORTHY OF THE CALL

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

MASS ETIQUETTE

It's good from time to time to review the Church's expectations on how we are to celebrate the parts of the Mass. In that vein, I'd like to go over a few things with you.

The Fast Before Mass

The Church asks all those who will be celebrating the Mass with the intent of receiving Communion to fast from all food and drink (except water) for one hour before Mass. The purpose of this fasting is to prepare one's self physically for the reception of Jesus in the Eucharist.

The other exception to this rule is for those who must eat or drink due to medical conditions such as diabetes or other similar conditions. Likewise, medications are not considered food or drink.

Proper Attire

When we are in church we are on holy ground. If you were a guest in someone's house because they're throwing a party, you'd generally dress up as a sign of respect to the hosts. This is the same for attendance at Mass.

Notice I'm not being real detailed here. There's a wide range of what people would consider tasteful and appropriate. I leave it up to your own good judgment. Sleep wear and pool wear aren't generally considered to be appropriate for Mass.

Getting There On Time

Late-comers are always welcome but it's best not to make this a regular practice. The constant flow of bodies entering the assembly late makes for a less-than-desirable celebration because it breaks the spirit of the assembly. Would you do this in a theatre? (Most theatre ushers don't let you come in once the performance has started.) For the same reason, it's really good for people to make the effort to arrive in church before Mass starts.

Reception of Communion in the Hand

The proper way to receive Communion in the hand is to cup one hand in the other so that the top hand is palm-open. The minister of Communion places the host in that open hand. This is important because Communion must always be received, not taken. So in the case of Communion in the hand, we're talking about not reaching out and grabbing the host using your fingers. In other words, the Eucharist is a gift which is given or bestowed on us by God, so grabbing is not an option—except for those who literally, physically cannot cup one hand in the other.

Reception of the Precious Blood

If you are going to drink from the chalice then you must go through the physical action of drinking, precisely because that is the liturgical action in which we engage at that point: in order to manifest the fullness of the sacramental act (eating and drinking). In other words, the act at this point is not eating and "dunking," it's eating and drinking. The formal term for "dunking" the host in the Precious Blood is intinction.

Self-intinction is not permitted. In fact, the word in the Church documents governing this is "forbidden." Why can't you receive a host and then walk it over to a minister of the chalice and dip it into the Precious Blood? Because, once again, no one can take Communion, it must be received. The Church judges self-intinction to be taking rather than receiving. Again, the other reason upon which this rests is the sacramental action of actually drinking, versus dunking or dipping. It may seem like splitting hairs or making too fine a distinction, but I'm not the one making the rules here, it's the universal Church which regulates how we celebrate Mass. I'm just passing on to you what the Church says about all this.

Like I said at the beginning, it's good to know what's expected of us. Following through on expectations help to bind us as one, as opposed to a collection of individuals each doing what he or she wants to do.

Obviously, in educating ourselves in these matters we never want to lose sight of the heart of the matter which is that the Mass is the privileged place to deepen our relationship with the Lord Jesus within his household among the community of the faithful. That's why we gather. That's why we pray and sing and celebrate the holy Presence that makes us who we are.

MEET THE STAFF

JUDY PYKE

I'm the Pastoral Associate for Divine Mercy Parish. I joined the Sacred Heart staff more than 5 years ago and will oversee the ministries of Divine Mercy as we bring our two faith communities together. I've ministered at St. Benedict Parish (Irving Park) and St. Bride Parish on the South East side. Before my call to work for the Church, I spent 20 years in advertising at the Leo Burnett Company. I was the Associate Director of Government Affairs, building advertising coalitions around the world to lobby anti-advertising legislation.

How did I move from advertising to the Church? The Holy Spirit deserves all the credit. I volunteered A LOT at my parish, particularly with the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults), and God was constantly tugging at my heart.

MICHELLE WASIELEWSKI

I am the Business Manager and Assistant to the Pastor at Divine Mercy Parish. Father Steve makes sure that "second" part of my title keeps me busy!

In 2010, I joined the staff of Sacred Heart after spending many years being a stay-at-home mom. My husband, Rob, and I are blessed beyond measure to have four grown children, three of whom had major life events in the span of 5 weeks this summer: one college graduation, one high school graduation and one wedding. In my former career, I was an Audit Manager at PriceWaterhouse Coopers for 8 years, specializing in the financial services industry.

I am excited for all the potential that exists in our "new" parish. I'm currently immersed in Phase 4 of Renew My Church, which is the operational transition. The Archdiocese tells me they have a 500+ item checklist of items that need to be addressed as part of this phase. It certainly feels as though EVERYTHING is affected!

I decided to leave corporate America and work for the Church. I entered Catholic Theological Union to obtain my Masters of Divinity degree, which made an interesting addition to my MBA in Marketing and BA in Political Science!

I answered yet another call from God, this time to motherhood. I fell in love with my son Bradley as an infant, when he was being cared for by my mother, a foster parent for Catholic Charities. I adopted him just before his 4th birthday. He's now entering his last year of high school, and is looking at colleges! God has blessed me in countless ways. I'm thrilled to be a part of Divine Mercy and look forward to the ongoing conversation of our faith community.

I am also extremely happy that we are beginning the restoration and repainting of the stained glass windows/frames as part of the Legacy of the Heart campaign conducted by Sacred Heart and the gym renovation at St. Philip the Apostle that is made possible by the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign. Both of these projects are getting started due to the guidance and hard work of the members of the Divine Mercy Finance Council and buildings and ground volunteers at both sites. These volunteers are incredibly gifted and work hard for our parish.

PRAYER AND LITURGY

HOLY HOUR AT ST. PHILIP CHURCH

Join Divine Mercy parishioners for Holy Hour every Friday afternoon at 3:00p.m. at St. Philip Church.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE GROUP

A scripture reflection group meets Monday mornings after the Sacred Heart 8:30am Mass in the Fireplace Room of the Divine Mercy offices at Sacred Heart Church. We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome and encouraged to join.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"...come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest awhile."
(Mark 6:31)

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

For those who govern us, that they may have the heart and mind of a good shepherd, and keep the protection of human life as their first priority, we pray to the Lord.

PAPAL TWEETS

Try reading the Gospel for at least 5 minutes every day. You will see how it changes your life.

PRAYER AND LITURGY

SAVE THE DATE FAMILY MASS! AUGUST 26th 4:30 PM AT SACRED HEART

We're doing something a little different with Family Mass in August. Instead of meeting in the Sacred Heart Parish Center, we'll meet in the yard behind the Sacred Heart Rectory and the Church. So bring your blankets and lawn chairs! We'll have some chairs set up for the seniors among us, but encourage everyone else to come ready for that outdoor experience.

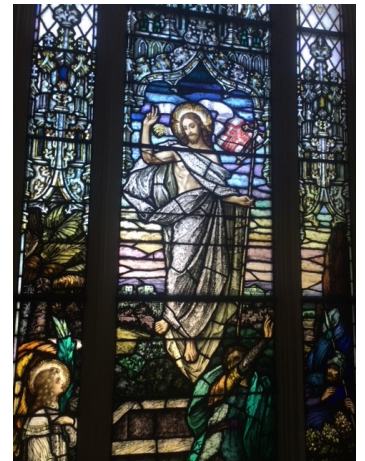

We'll host a little reception after Mass. Beer and Wine for the adults, along with some snacks and ice cream for the kids. Come join us as we celebrate families at the Lord's Table!

WORK BEGINS ON SACRED HEART STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

Thanks to all those who contributed to Sacred Heart's Legacy of the Heart Capital Campaign, we were able to start work on restoring the beautiful stained glass windows in Sacred Heart Church.

The restoration of these windows originally crafted by artisans of the Tyrolian Glass Company of Innsbruck, Austria, will take time and fastidious attention. The remediation of the paint and lead around the windows precedes the work of restoring and protecting the glass itself. We are told that when the project is finished, parishioners will be astounded at difference they'll see in each and every window! Again, thanks to all who contributed to the Sacred Heart capital campaign for making this possible!

HEALING OURSELVES & THE WORLD FROM A PLACE OF CENTERING PRAYER

Is God calling you to more stillness in your life? Come learn a prayer method based on the early Christian, contemplative tradition. Centering Prayer is a method of silent prayer in which we experience God's presence within us.

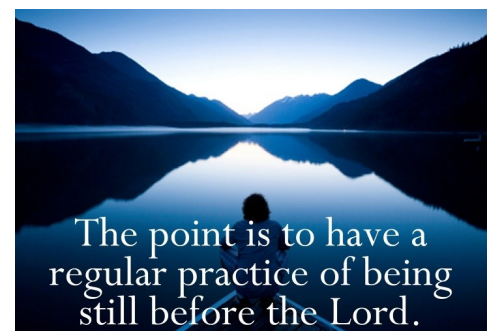

New Centering Prayer groups will begin in September. The first 4-6 weeks focus on the theological foundation of Centering Prayer and on contemplative outreach to further the knowledge and experience of God's love in the consciousness of the human family. The foundation of Centering Prayer is the Divine Presence in every human person. The divine action is the healing process of transformation in Christ, enabling us to experience intimacy with God and the practical caring for others that flows from this relationship. The Divine transformation is the gift of the Holy Spirit and the source of all the good that God is accomplishing through us.

- In order to be well grounded in the background of Centering Prayer, beginners will learn the Christian Contemplative tradition in dialogue with contemporary psychology, science and the wisdom teaching of other religions.
- As participants sensitivity to the spiritual dimension of their being develops, the first steps of Centering Prayer will be taught. Since Vatican II the Church has been encouraging Catholics to live the fullness of the Christian life without expecting priests, religious, or anyone else to do it for us. That implies creativity, as well as responsibility on the part of lay people to come up with structures that will enable us to live the contemplative dimension of the Gospel in everyday life in the world.

Centering Prayer Group Sessions resume in September on Thursdays, Sept. 6th at 7pm and on Saturdays, Sept. 8th at 9am. If you want a head-start, purchase a new edition of Open Mind, Open Heart by Fr. Thomas Keating.

More information can be found in the back of Church or by contacting Sr. Leonette Kaluzny, at 847-881-8424 (office) or 847-331-4792 (cell) or leonettekaluzny@aol.com.

RENEW MY CHURCH

PRAYER FOR RENEW MY CHURCH

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women
who have gone before us.
in every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: "Renew My Church."

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly to listen to each other attentively
to imagine our future boldly
to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously
to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints. May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

INTERESTED IN JOINING THE ADULT FORMATION TEAM?

We are group of parishioners who brainstorm, plan and host formation & education gatherings for adults. Our goals, as set forth in the Parish Transformation process, are to enhance the adult formation/education efforts of the parish and to build community. We meet when necessary, and schedule meetings according to the majority's availability. We keep meetings to an hour, and take turns hosting (setting-up & cleaning-up) the events we plan. We also help provide hospitality for those events.

We have a great line-up for the fall and host the popular Cocktails in the Courtyard, which will return in the early Fall at both St. Philip and Sacred Heart sites. We hope you'll consider joining us. Contact Kathleen Clarke for more information at clarkekathleen63@aol.com.

Renew My Church

Our Renew My Church journey is both spiritual (to re-encounter Jesus Christ as disciples and parish communities) and structural (to ensure our parishes have adequate resources for vitality).

Why the need for spiritual renewal?

We are facing not an "age of change" but a "change for the ages."

Christendom age

New apostolic age

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| • Christian culture   | • Secular culture  |
| • Open to faith   | • Against faith  |
| • Clear understanding of Christian imagination and language | • No understanding of Christian imagination and language |
| • Foundational moral teaching                               | • Rejected moral teaching                                |
| • Christians in majority                                    | • Christians in minority                                 |

What is the fundamental change needed for a truly renewed Church?

Making sure that everything we do is implicitly and explicitly rooted in helping people know and share Jesus Christ. This involves change, or conversion, on three levels:

- Personal: Our own, personal encounter with Christ through which we become missionary disciples.
- Parish: Sharing with each other the life we have experienced in encountering Christ. This means taking responsibility for the building up of the parish as a community of faith, starting with the need to cooperate and collaborate as your parish prepares for and eventually becomes activated in the Renew My Church process within
