Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

HEARTBREAKING

With the Pennsylvania grand jury report and the news about former Cardinal McCarrick, we are reading about terrible lapses in leadership: seventy years of cover-ups by bishops in six Pennsylvania dioceses; and years of whisperings regarding McCarrick that went ignored. It's heartbreaking.

There has been so much damage done to so many innocent lives. Individuals and families have been taken advantage of by those in whom they placed their trust. Child sexual abuse is horrible, in and of itself. It is both a sin and a crime. It's even more horrible when it is perpetrated by priests and bishops, those who are ordained to help bring us closer to God and his church.

The details contained in the Pennsylvania grand jury report are sickening. But there is one significant detail overlooked in the report. As Commonweal magazine notes, "All but two of the cases predate the reforms implemented in the United States in the aftermath of the Boston scandal in 2002." The magazine goes on to say, "There's more than cold comfort to this fact, for it shows how additional institutional reforms could be devised, carried out, and enforced."

Further reforms or other protocols definitely need to be put in place so that, at the very least, no more cover ups occur and bishops are held accountable for not acting in a timely matter when allegations come to their attention. Additionally, a national conversation needs to be underway with regard to the deeper issues which contribute to secrecy and the "old boys" network spurred on by clericalism. Also, as Commonweal magazine notes, "attitudes of power, privilege, and entitlement that characterize many of the ordained and reinforce a structure that protects them from accountability" should also be examined and rooted out.

In addition, Commonweal forcefully suggests, "This means that the laity should be allowed greater participation in many aspects of the church's life. They must be involved in investigations into clerical sexual abuse and abuse of power, in the selection of candidates for ordination, and in the training these candidates receive—including in matters of sexuality, mental health and trauma. Future priests should not be hidden away from the rest of the community in cloistered seminaries, where they pick up the bad habits of clericalism. If there is something to seize from this moment, it is the opportunity to envision—with vigor, clarity and discernment—meaningful and measurable reform."

Let us pray for victims of clerical sexual abuse. Let us pray for a lasting and widespread reform where policies and procedures concerning this issue and related issues would truly be addressed in a healthy and transparent way. Let us pray for a spirit of healing and wholeness to overtake the people of God in the face of such disheartening institutional failures.

A GLIMMER OF HOPE

At last weekend's family Mass, I tried something new. After the scriptures were proclaimed, I invited the assembly to get into small groups of three or four and share on the readings. I asked people to consider what they liked, disliked or questioned as a result of the scriptures.

After their small group sharing, I opened the discussion to the entire assembly inviting two or three comments or questions from individuals. Recall last Sunday's gospel account where Jesus asks his original twelve disciples if they want to leave him as did some other discouraged disciples. One brave soul shared her group's question in light of the Pennsylvania revelations, and like the disciples, asked should we stay or should go?

I tried at the time to answer as best I could. Since then, I've thought more about it.

I'm placing my hope in the people of God, all those individuals and families who are the church. The church is not made up of only leaders. The church is comprised mostly of the good, the strong and the resilient flock of Jesus.

Now more than ever, modern day disciples need to stick together; they need to look to each other to nurture and cultivate a deep faith in the Lord Jesus. Having said this, I personally think we have wonderful leadership here in the Archdiocese. Cardinal Cupich, and others like him, will continue to assist the people of God as they journey forward.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

This is why something like Renew My Church is so important. The Cardinal is convinced that the only way forward is if we work together creatively to achieve the vision of a revitalized church. The mission of Renew My Church—to make disciples, build communities, and inspire witness—requires us to work together in new and imaginative ways that bring about vibrant and life-giving faith communities within the Archdiocese.

As Divine Mercy parish continues with phase four of Renew My Church, we are examining all aspects of our ministry and operations to expand our focus on mission, evangelization and vitality. Our goal is to increase operational efficiency and to devote more resources to ministry activities.

To support this, we are eliminating the former Business Manager role and are creating a new role, Director of Operations. This new role, which will have responsibility for our operations, finances, facilities, project management and human resources, will report to me, with the assistance of the Director of Vicariate Operations. After conducting interviews and reflecting deeply on the needs of our new parish, I am happy to announce that we have hired Michelle Wasielewski as the Director of Operations for our parish. Michelle has worked at Sacred Heart church as the Business Manager for the past eight years and has prior professional experience as a CPA at PricewaterhouseCoopers, with knowledge across a wide variety of industries, including manufacturing, financial institutions and law firms. She has a Bachelor of Science degree in accountancy from the University of Illinois.

Through all that is happening in our wider Church, I am cautiously optimistic. I am grateful that at Divine Mercy Parish, we have a great staff. We have ministries that will continue to expand and deepen. We have dedicated, generous parishioners who are the absolute backbone of the church.

MEET THE STAFF

ANDREA STEINERT

I'm Andrea Steinert, and I am now the Bulletin Editor and Receptionist for Divine Mercy parish. Most days I can be found working at Sacred Heart Church but also take care of counting on Monday mornings at St. Philip the Apostle. Prior to the joining of our houses of worship, I was working at St. Philip the Apostle church as the Business Manager so I am familiar with church operations and business and am also excited to meet and work with the parishioners of Sacred Heart church.

I grew up in Skokie and have been in the Chicagoland area my whole life, which means I have the joy of running into familiar faces everywhere I go (my daughter is always surprised). I started my career working for telephone companies for 25 years before becoming the business manager at St. Peter Parish in Skokie. Both myself (and my siblings) and my daughter (now 30 and married) attended St. Peter School for all of our grade school education so when my daughter graduated 8th grade, I was glad to continue supporting the mission of the church as the business manager there. In the fall of 2015, I moved to Northbrook and shortly after that began working at St. Philip the Apostle.

In my free time I enjoy spending time with my family and friends especially at outdoor concerts, movies, trivia contests and barbecues.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Are you a baptized, practicing Catholic who never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Adult Confirmation classes are wonderful opportunities to learn more about your faith and be information about what it means to be fully initiated in the Catholic Church. These sessions are filled with topics based on the four pillars of the Catholic Catechism: Liturgy and Sacraments, Prayer, The Creed (what Catholics believe) and Morality.

Classes begin: September 18, 2018 from 7-8:30 p.m. They will be held at St. Benedict in Chicago (2215 W. Irving Park Road) The reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation will be on Monday, November 26th at 7:00 p.m. with Bishop Francis Kane, Retired Auxiliary Bishop.

For more information, contact Elaine Lindia at elindia@stbenedict.com. The cost is $75, but scholarships are available.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE GROUP

A scripture reflection group, facilitated by Judy Pyke, meets Monday mornings. We're moving to St. Philip for the month of September! We'll meet in the Convent after the 8am Mass beginning September 10th. NOTE: NO meeting on Labor Day.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome—it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

HOLY HOUR AT ST. PHILIP CHURCH

Join Divine Mercy parishioners for Holy Hour every Friday afternoon at 3:00p.m. at St. Philip Church.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That the Church may encourage all the labor by which the laity shape society in accordance with the Gospel, we pray to the Lord.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"Be doers of the word and not hearers only..." (JAMES 1:22)

It's easy to understand the definition of stewardship. The hard part is living it! What do you do to live God's word? Do you share your time in prayer with God? Do you use your talent to help those in need? Are you generous with your financial resources? If not, what are you waiting for?

PAPAL TWEETS

By embracing God's love,
We change the world and transform history.

ADULT FORMATION

DELVE INTO THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Join world renown scripture scholar, John J. Kilgallen, SJ as he delves into the Acts of the Apostles on Wednesdays September 12th and 19th, at 2pm in the Parish Center at Sacred Heart Church. He'll return October as well, when we'll gather again on Wednesdays October 10th and 17th at 2pm in the same meeting room. (NOTE NEW TIME & LOCATION.)

Fr. Kilgallen has been a frequent guest speaker at Sacred Heart and is a former presider at weekend Masses at St. Philip. He has specialized in the New Testament for 40 years, teaching at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and Loyola University in Chicago.

Come and learn about the first witnesses of faith within the Acts of the Apostles!

FAMILY MASS THANK YOU!

Thanks to all who came out for the Family Mass last weekend and for participating in a little faith sharing during the homily! Special thanks to all who helped make it a wonderful liturgy and helped with the reception afterwards: Audrey Lolli, Tommy Lynch, Matthew Compton, Charlie and Sam Skelly, Matthew Bradley, Patty Sanfilippo, Tom Brown, Dan Hagedorn, Dan and Deb Kubasiak, Sue Lehocky, Michelle Wasielewski, Todd Gresick, Jon Comstock and Bernadette Garza.

MICHELANGELO THROUGH THE EYES OF BISHOP BARRON AND DR. MARY QUINLAN

Join us on Tuesday, September 18th at 7pm in the Sacred Heart Parish Center (Burr & Gage Streets) for Bishop Barron's Pivotal Players video feature on Michelangelo, The Artist. We'll be joined by Mary Quinlan, Ph.D., a professor of Art History at Northern Illinois University. Dr. Quinlan is a specialist in the Italian Renaissance and received her doctorate at the University of Chicago. She'll share her own comments about Michelangelo relative to Bishop Barron's video presentation.

In reference to Michelangelo, Bishop Barron states that "The Master of sculpture and painting is not a saint but serves as the privileged representative of the creative potential engendered by the Catholic Faith. The Church professes that beauty is a route of access to God, and through humanity's creative artistry we glimpse the power and glory of the Lord." In this feature, Bishop Barron travels to Rome, Florence, and all the locations that played a significant role in the formation and vocation of Michelangelo, which in turn formed the life of the Church.

We hope you'll join us! All are welcome. Come a little early to enjoy some snacks, pizza & adult beverages before the presentation.

OUTREACH

ST. BENEDICT THE AFRICAN GIFT CARD COLLECTION

For the past several years St. Philip the Apostle has sponsored a mid-year gift card collection for our sharing parish, St. Benedict the African, in Englewood. This is in addition to our Christmas collection.

The needs of the people in Englewood continue as the neighborhood remains one of the poorest communities in the Chicago area. As always, any gift cards are welcome. Please consider that during the summer, Jewel and gas cards are especially needed. Cash donations are also accepted.

Please clearly label your donation "Gift Card Collection" on your envelope. All donations can be dropped in the Sunday collection basket or the parish offices by Sunday, September 9th. Thank you!

Can You Help Our Friends At A Just Harvest Stock Their Pantry?

Our friends at the Just Harvest Community Kitchen have served a nutritious dinner to 150+ Rogers Park neighbors every night for 30 years. (See their amazing work at www.ajustharvest.org.)

Can you contribute pantry supplies to help them fulfill their mission? They cook 5,000 dinners each month, so large "Costco-size" containers are great.

This Fall, cleaning supplies are the priority. They really need:

Dish Soap • Bleach • Pine Sol • Laundry Soap • Liquid Hand Soap Mop Buckets & Handles • Paper Towels • Heavy Duty Mop Heads
Paper Towels • Spices • Zip Lock Bags • Napkins • Heavy Duty Plastic Forks • Plastic Serving Gloves • 18-inch Aluminum Foil & Plastic Wrap • Sugar • Gift Cards (Jewel, Walgreens, Home Depot)
Dry Goods (Rice, Beans, Cold Cereal, Oatmeal) • Hair Nets • 50-Gallon Garbage Bags • Gas Cards • Paper Plates • Canned Soup

We'll collect your donations in marked boxes in the Sacred Heart Gathering Space and the St. Philip's Vestibule. Your contributions will be delivered by the Divine Mercy volunteer team, who will help serve dinner on Sunday, September 16.

JOIN US ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8th FOR THE HUNGER WALK

Join the St. Columbanus Team in this year's Hunger Walk, sponsored by the Chicago Food Depository. St. Columbanus is one of the sharing parishes of Divine Mercy, and one of its primary ministries is their Food Pantry which serves 400-500 families every Wednesday morning. St. Columbanus participates in the Hunger Walk each year, and welcomes our presence to their team. This year the walk will take place on September 8th at Jackson Park, on the shores of Lake Michigan, just south of the Museum of Science and Industry. The 2-mile Walk steps off at 8:30am. With live entertainment and activities for all ages, the Hunger Walk is a fun and impactful event for the whole family, friends and coworkers. We encourage as many Divine Mercy parishioners to participate as possible. Let's help them out!! You can register online directly for the St. Columbanus Team (or make a donation) at: <https://www.classy.org/team/176074>

RESPECT LIFE MEETING: WEDNESDAY SEPT. 5th FROM 4-5:30 PM.

Join the Respect Life Group on Wednesday, September 5th at 4pm in the Convent at St. Philip Church for our planning meeting for the coming year. Our 5 specific means are:

- 1) Prayer/spiritual works (Prayer and Adoration, knowing we depend on God);
- 2) Education (Reading encyclicals and sponsoring speakers on current religious topics);
- 3) Pastoral Care (Baby Bottle Project and Baby Shower for The Women's Center);
- 4) Collaboration (Support of other projects within our parish and other RL groups); and
- 5) Legislative Outreach (Keep current on legislative life issues and encourage response).

The group meets monthly in the SPA Convent from 4-5:30. We invite new members from the parish to join us on our meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 5th!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Growing Faith.....Engaging Hearts

The children give me JOY. They are forever curious, yet so wise and teach me more than I can teach them. They make me smile each and every week, even when they test my patience!"

"I think the greatest benefit in teaching our children is how much they teach us! I have taught 2nd, 4th and 5th grade and each grade level has been a learning experience. First, I learn more about our faith each year as I teach it and the children teach me so much on how to communicate and what is really on their minds and their main concerns."

MENS ANNUAL RETREAT OCTOBER 5-7

Our annual retreat will be led by Fr. Paul Mueller, S.J. He will help us to contemplate two interrelated themes. First the glory of God's creation, Second God's justice and mercy.

Father Mueller, ordained in 1993, earned an MS in Physics and a PhD in History & Philosophy at the University of Chicago. He served as a professor of philosophy at Loyola University of Chicago and Academic Dean for the First Studies Program at St. Joseph College Seminary from 2004-2009. Since 2010 he has been assigned to the Vatican Observatory, the astronomical research institute of the Popes, first as religious Superior of the Jesuit community and as a member of the research staff, and since 2015 he has also assumed the role as Vice Director of the Observatory.

All of the men at Divine Mercy Parish, Sacred Heart and St. Phillip the Apostle churches are warmly invited to attend what promises to be a wonderful exploration of Pope Francis' frequent emphasis on God's love and mercy. Reservations can be made on line or by phone.
