SACRED HEART CHURCH · ST. PHILIP THE APOSTLE CHURCH

September 9, 2018

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thus says the Lord:
Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not!
Here is your God,
He comes in vindication;
with divine recompense
He comes to save you.

Isaiah 35:4

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

HOMILY REPRINT

A number of people have asked for a reprint of the homily I gave this past weekend at the Saturday evening Mass and again at the 7:30 am and 4:30 pm Sunday Masses all at Sacred Heart church. Sharing in print what was spoken aloud always carries with it the risk that people will read into the lines a tonality or emotion that wasn't there.

I tried to deliver this with a kind of unemotional tenor (i.e., without anger coloring it). Regardless, here it is with a few footnotes included.

A week ago last Saturday we experienced a strong storm in Winnetka. During that storm, at about 3:00 a.m., lightning struck the bell tower. One of the decorative finials at the top was partly exploded, ending up on the ground below. The lightning strike also damaged the sound system, frying the speakers here in the church. It also took out the middle row of keys on the organ and it fried the camera in the choir loft that sends video to the TV in the gathering space.

A lot of damage was done. You can imagine the number of vendors involved this past week and in the weeks to come to make the necessary repairs: sound system people, organ people, video people, construction people, artisan people, and insurance people.

In addition to all those companies that are working on repairs, we are also exploring with other companies how to add specially designed lightning arrestors (formerly called lightning rods) to the tower and the roof so that future storms and strikes will hopefully cause less damage.

Another kind of storm has engulfed the universal church. But this storm and the damage caused comes from within, from a leadership that fumbled in its response to clergy sex abuse of minors and with the cover-up in Pennsylvania in which too many were involved.

The initial heartbreaking damage was perpetrated by trusted adults against innocent children. It should not have ever happened—but it did, many times and in many dioceses. Further damage was caused because abuse cases should have been dealt with appropriately, quickly, and transparently—but they were not, that is, not until the Dallas Accords that were enacted by the bishops in 2002. Protocols and procedures are now in place, which we can attest to in this Archdiocese.

But it is going to take a whole lot more than protocols and procedures to repair the damage done and to arrive at a healthy, holy church. Clericalism and the "old boys" culture has to go.

I believe that Archbishop Viganó represents that "old boys" culture. I suspect that he, along with some other prelates, oppose Pope Francis and the compassion that the pope brings to his position of supreme pontiff. So, in my opinion, the pope is being smeared because there are some in leadership who will do anything to maintain a clerical position of power, control and privilege.

Changing that culture won't be easy to do because culture is the hardest thing to change.

In his ministry, Jesus sought change—not only in the religious practice of his day but in the very way people would relate to God and to one another. That's why the controversy erupted between Jesus and the Pharisees and scribes back then.

He calls them hypocrites (see Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23). Jesus holds up a mirror to them, challenging them to go deep and look inside themselves. Faith and religious practice do not consist merely of external, ritual behaviors. Faith and religious practice begin in the human heart—hearts open to God, to the gospel, to the sacraments.

Change in one's personal life most often comes with a cost. So too, does institutional change.

Lightning eradicators, if you will, need to be installed in the universal church, such as

- greater lay leadership at all levels of governance—in parishes, dioceses, and within the Vatican;
- women appointed to leadership positions—even at the highest (curial) levels;
- bishops themselves being held accountable to the Dallas Accords as are their priests;
- clerics unlearning the tendency of the past to believe that they are special or better than laity due to ordination alone; and
- replacing every other clerical instinct and inclination with the bedrock understanding that humble service is the only thing that grounds authority and teaches us how to use power.

Jesus says evil comes from within. That is what defiles.

We've got to go really deep and uproot that which allows evil to flourish in the church, or else all the bell towers in Christendom won't be enough to withstand this storm.

We've got trust where the Holy Spirit is leading us, which is more openness,

greater humility, and compassion for the least among us, and the most vulnerable.

That's the mission of Christ, and the whole reason for the Church's existence.

MORE LIGHT ON THE MATTER

In the homily I didn't say much to back up the claim that Archbishop Viganó's so-called "testimony" which he released to the media through a right wing Catholic outlet is suspect in all of its aspects. You may want to check out the following article carried by the Catholic News Service that sheds light on the issue. The link to this article is: <https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/amp/news/benedict-vigan-francis-and-mccarrick-where-things-stand-on-nuncios-allegations-42199>

We will probably be hearing more about all of this in the days and weeks ahead. Meanwhile, let us stay as focused as we can on the ordinary ministry of the parish and on the work of Renew My Church.

The media will, no doubt, continue reporting. The bishops' conference will continue to address what needs to be addressed, especially in its upcoming November annual meeting. We will continue pursuing the mission of Christ here in Winnetka, Glencoe and Northfield.

DIVINE MERCY CHOIR

Divine Mercy Parish at Sacred Heart Church is blessed with two different musical ensembles for all age levels that minister each week at the various Masses. Perhaps we have some interested parishioners who are considering a way to offer their time and talent by singing or playing an instrument and worshipping God through the gift of music. New members are always welcome!

The Adult Choir rehearsals are held on Thursday evenings in the lower level music studio of the Sacred Heart Parish Center. The choir is open to high school age and adult singers. The first rehearsal of the season will be held on Thursday, SEPTEMBER 13th at 7:30 p.m. and the choir will resume singing at Sunday Mass on September 16th at 10:30 a.m.

The Saturday Contemporary Choir, open to anyone high school age and above, sings at the 5:00 p.m. Mass each week, and rehearses before Mass at 4:15 in the church. The Saturday Choir will return on SEPTEMBER 22nd.

There are also opportunities for our youth to sing at the Sunday 4:30 Family Masses which will be held on five occasions in the next several months. Instrumentalists and singers are encouraged to join us for these celebrations on October 21, November 18, February 3, April 7 and May 19.

For more information, please contact: Todd Gresick, Music Director, at (847) 446-0856 ext. 107, tgresick@divinmercynorthshore.org

MEET THE STAFF

CAROL BROWN

Hi everyone! I'm the Secretary/ Receptionist at St. Philip the Apostle, a position I've had for the past 11 great years. That's my dearest nephew Matthew, whom I've very fond of and like to show him off!

I'm grateful for my job and all the wonderful parishioners and experiences we have shared together. I'm a convert to the Catholic faith and received all the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil in 1993 at my parish, Queen of All Saints Basilica.

For the past 23 years, I have been a Field Delegate for the Archdiocese Metropolitan Tribunal, interviewing Petitioners going through the Annulment process. So very many have returned to the Sacraments. I also support all in the Religious life, as they have been mentors on my journey.

I attended the University of Arizona majoring in foreign languages. I'm an interpreter-translator in Spanish, love all things Mexican, enjoy good food and wine, music, and dinners with friends. I travel each year to Las Vegas and Palm Beach to see my immediate family. Mexico, Germany and Australia are favorite spots as I have loved ones there, too!

Divine Mercy Parish is a great place for all of us to be in 2018. The Lord has called us to be one with Him and with each other, united in our Catholic faith. Fr. Steve Lanza and all the staff at Sacred Heart have been most welcoming. I look forward to meeting you at our future gatherings. God bless you!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group, facilitated by Judy Pyke, meets Monday mornings. We're moving to St. Philip for the month of September! We'll meet in the Convent after the 8am Mass starting tomorrow!

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome—it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

HOLY HOUR AT ST. PHILIP CHURCH

Join Divine Mercy parishioners for Holy Hour every Friday afternoon at 3:00p.m. at St. Philip Church.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

For our brothers and sisters in hospitals or nursing homes; for those in recovery; for the imprisoned; for their families and care-givers, we pray to the Lord.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" (JAMES 2:5)

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society teaches us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first in all things and realize that material things really don't matter and that it's more important to share with those who have less.

PAPAL TWEETS

If the Lord has gifted you with riches, it is in order to do good things for others in His name.

ADULT FORMATION

DELVE INTO THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES THIS WEEK!

Join world renown scripture scholar, John J. Kilgallen, SJ as he delves into the Acts of the Apostles on Wednesdays September 12th and 19th, at 2pm in the Parish Center at Sacred Heart Church. He'll return October as well, when we'll gather again on Wednesdays October 10th and 17th at 2pm in the same meeting room. (NOTE NEW TIME & LOCATION.)

Fr. Kilgallen has been a frequent guest speaker at Sacred Heart and is a former presider at weekend Masses at St. Philip. He has specialized in the New Testament for 40 years, teaching at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and Loyola University in Chicago.

Come and learn about the first witnesses of faith within the Acts of the Apostles!

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Are you a baptized, practicing Catholic who never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Adult Confirmation classes are wonderful opportunities to learn more about your faith and be information about what it means to be fully initiated in the Catholic Church. These sessions are filled with topics based on the four pillars of the Catholic Catechism: Liturgy and Sacraments, Prayer, The Creed (what Catholics believe) and Morality.

Classes begin: September 18, 2018 from 7-8:30 p.m. They will be held at St. Benedict in Chicago (2215 W. Irving Park Road) The reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation will be on Monday, November 26th at 7:00 p.m. with Bishop Francis Kane, Retired Auxiliary Bishop. For more information, contact Elaine Lindia at elindia@stbenedict.com. The cost is $75, but scholarships are available.

MICHELANGELO THROUGH THE EYES OF BISHOP BARRON AND DR. MARY QUINLAN

Join us on Tuesday, September 18th at 7pm in the Sacred Heart Parish Center (Burr & Gage Streets) for Bishop Barron's Pivotal Players video feature on Michelangelo, The Artist. We'll be joined by Mary Quinlan, Ph.D., a professor of Art History at Northern Illinois University. Dr. Quinlan is a specialist in the Italian Renaissance and received her doctorate at the University of Chicago. She'll share her own comments about Michelangelo relative to Bishop Barron's video presentation.

In reference to Michelangelo, Bishop Barron states that "The Master of sculpture and painting is not a saint but serves as the privileged representative of the creative potential engendered by the Catholic Faith. The Church professes that beauty is a route of access to God, and through humanity's creative artistry we glimpse the power and glory of the Lord." In this feature, Bishop Barron travels to Rome, Florence, and all the locations that played a significant role in the formation and vocation of Michelangelo, which in turn formed the life of the Church.

We hope you'll join us! All are welcome. Come a little early to enjoy some snacks, pizza & adult beverages before the presentation.

OUTREACH

ST. BENEDICT THE AFRICAN GIFT CARD COLLECTION

For the past several years St. Philip the Apostle has sponsored a mid-year gift card collection for our sharing parish, St. Benedict the African, in Englewood. This is in addition to our Christmas collection.

The needs of the people in Englewood continue as the neighborhood remains one of the poorest communities in the Chicago area. As always, any gift cards are welcome. Please consider that during the summer, Jewel and gas cards are especially needed. Cash donations are also accepted.

Please clearly label your donation "Gift Card Collection" on your envelope. All donations can be dropped in the Sunday collection basket or the parish offices by Sunday, September 9th. Thank you!

A JUST HARVEST

Divine Mercy parishioners helped make dinner special for 106 guests at A Just Harvest in Rogers Park on Sunday, August 19. Thanks to all of our volunteers:

- Maria Anderson picked up and delivered produce and bakery items from Sunset Foods in Highland Park.
- Amanda and Nathan McDonald, Cathy Stegich, and Terry Carmichael prepared chicken casseroles.
- Mick, Nathan, and Jai McDonald served, along with 8th grade Religious Ed students, Sophie and Susannah Meyer, Grant Gaechler and Grant's family, Phil and Carolyn, Nelson and Lilly.

Once Upon a Bagel in Hubbard Woods and Sunset Foods in Highland Park generously donate produce, desserts, bread, and bagels every month. Please support them and thank them the next time you're there.

We provide and serve the meal at AJH the third Sunday of every month. The next day to serve is September 16. Please consider helping with this very rewarding ministry. Children ages 13 and older are welcome with an adult. Contact Patty Sanfilippo at psanfilippo1380@gmail.com.

Can You Help Our Friends At A Just Harvest Stock Their Pantry?

Our friends at the Just Harvest Community Kitchen have served a nutritious dinner to 150+ Rogers Park neighbors every night for 30 years. (See their amazing work at www.ajustharvest.org.)

Can you contribute pantry supplies to help them fulfill their mission? They cook 5,000 dinners each month, so large "Costco-size" containers are great.

This Fall, cleaning supplies are the priority. They really need:

Dish Soap • Bleach • Pine Sol • Laundry Soap • Liquid Hand Soap Mop Buckets & Handles • Paper Towels • Heavy Duty Mop Heads Paper Towels • Spices • Zip Lock Bags • Napkins • Heavy Duty Plastic Forks • Plastic Serving Gloves • 18-inch Aluminum Foil & Plastic Wrap • Sugar • Gift Cards (Jewel, Walgreens, Home Depot) Dry Goods (Rice, Beans, Cold Cereal, Oatmeal) • Hair Nets • 50-Gallon Garbage Bags • Gas Cards • Paper Plates • Canned Soup

We'll collect your donations in marked boxes in the Sacred Heart Gathering Space and the St. Philip's Vestibule. Your contributions will be delivered by the Divine Mercy volunteer team, who will help serve dinner on Sunday, September 16.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Sacred Heart Campus

Growing Faith.....Engaging Hearts

"The children give me JOY. They are forever curious, yet so wise and teach me more than I can teach them. They make me smile each and every week, even when they test my patience!"

"I think the greatest benefit in teaching our children is how much they teach us! I have taught 2nd, 4th and 5th grade and each grade level has been a learning experience. First, I learn more about our faith each year as I teach it and the children teach me so much on how to communicate and what is really on their minds and their main concerns."
