

DIVINE MERCY PARISH

SACRED HEART CHURCH · ST. PHILIP THE APOSTLE CHURCH

September 16, 2018 Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Whoever wishes to come after me
must deny himself,
take up his cross, and follow me.

Mark 8

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

GOD'S WORD

It seemed, once again, that the word of God found in Sacred Scripture helped to deal with the present news cycle regarding the Church. Here's how I interpreted last Sunday's scripture.

Homily
9-9-18

The Catholic Church has been in the news a lot—and not in a good way.

This summer, after years of rumors about Cardinal McCarrick acting inappropriately with adult seminarians, the Archdiocese of Newark received an accusation of his abuse of a minor and deemed it credible. An investigation was initiated.

A few weeks ago the Pennsylvania grand jury report was released to the public. The bishops in those dioceses apparently fought to keep the information it contained under wraps.

Soon after, Archbishop Viganó, former apostolic nuncio to the U.S., published his so-called testimony, accusing Pope Francis of ignoring or possibly rescinding sanctions which he said were imposed against McCarrick by Benedict XVI when he was pope. As a result, Viganó called on Pope Francis to resign.

Pope Francis, when asked by a reporter about this, said that the Viganó letter spoke for itself so he wouldn't say anything about it right then, maybe later. At the same time, the pope invited journalists to investigate. Most news outlets took the pope's silence as damaging.

It seems to go from bad to worse, to confusing, to upsetting, to overwhelming, to what—what next?

In this situation, steps the prophet Isaiah (first reading)—Say to those whose hearts are frightened: be strong, fear not! Here comes your God with vindication. The eyes of the blind will be opened. The ears of the deaf will be cleared. The lame will leap! Mute tongues will sing!

We may not be leaping and singing, but, OK, Isaiah, we get the message—Stay steady, God accompanies us! So let us let God do God's thing among us to bring wholeness, life and rightness.

How do we let God do God's thing?

First we take a breath. We can follow the lead of Pope Francis. He chose not to say anything immediately. He chose prayer and reflective silence and encouraged others to investigate, check the facts, and set the record straight.

As a result of their investigating, Archbishop Viganó has already walked back his story. Now he's saying it wasn't a sanction that was imposed by Pope Benedict on McCarrick. A sanction is a technical, authoritative act under Canon Law that imposes a punishment or restriction on someone.

Viganó now says that he believes Benedict conveyed a private wish or recommendation to McCarrick that he refrain from public activity and ministry—which McCarrick ignored and which Viganó also apparently ignored because in that time frame Viganó attended a banquet in McCarrick's honor and concelebrated a Mass with him. If, indeed, Benedict privately spoke to McCarrick, Pope Francis wouldn't have known anything about it.

What is known is that when an accusation finally publicly surfaced this summer, action was taken immediately by Pope Francis. McCarrick is no longer a Cardinal. He cannot exercise public ministry, pending a full canonical trial.

Pope Francis wisely did exactly as he should have by not immediately responding to Viganó. Why do I say that?

Viganó's agenda is clearly a conservative one. He wants to return to a has-been Church, a pre-Vatican II

Church, a Church characterized by clericalism—which is the very thing that got us into this mess in the first place!

The apostle James warns us (second reading)—Show no partiality! Have you not made distinctions among yourselves?

Partiality: that's what clericalism does. It shows undue partiality to those who are ordained. Distinctions: Isn't that the result of conservatives and liberals each saying, "We know best and nobody else does!" Ultimately, God alone knows best!

So the first step in letting God do God's thing is for us, like the pope, to step back, take a breath, pray, ponder and discern quietly how that best-ness of God might inform us.

Pope Francis will not allow himself to get pulled into the sick dysfunction which pits conservative voices against liberal voices and creates divisiveness within the Church.

In a dysfunctional family where a number of the members are sick, if there's one healthy member it's best if that healthy family member doesn't allow himself or herself to get caught up in the others' dysfunctionality.

Consistently throughout his pontificate, the agenda of Pope Francis has been to promote a widely embracing pastoral Church concerned with serving the needs of the poor, the marginalized, and the excluded, a pastoral Church which is neither liberal nor conservative, a Church which simply goes to every level of society and spreads the joy of the gospel.

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN (CONTINUED)

This is a vision of the Church firmly based on the teachings of the Second Vatican Council. It's a vision not yet fully implemented and which we need now more than ever.

One way to look at this whole thing is to realize that a new Church is truly being born, even if it's being born in fits and starts and with a lot of pain.

We are moving from a top-down, hierarchical pray, pay and obey clerical Church to a Church where laity get much more involved in the mission of Christ, grabbing onto that mission and moving it forward.

Healing will take place in this Church of ours. Healing of victims and healing of all those hurt by this crisis. It will take a lot of time and effort. It will take a lot of prayer. It will take a lot of self-examination on the part of bishops. It will take a lot more of truth-telling combined with the medicine of penance.

Healing will take place when we invoke and act upon the prayer of Jesus—Ephphatha! Be opened!

Be open, Jesus says, to the Spirit—and where that Holy Spirit is guiding us: to a serious reflective silence, a silence that allows light to penetrate darkness so that we might all continue to learn from grave mistakes and then take appropriate action.

Be open, Jesus says, to one another—for it is only in that togetherness that we will flourish and find the way to the kingdom which Jesus promises all his disciples.

Come, Pray for Victims and the Church

New Monthly Common Prayer at St. Nicholas Church

Are you looking for a way to respond to recent reports of the sexual abuse of children by clergy and the bishops' actions? Come and pray, on the third Monday of each month, beginning in September. Together we will remember and seek to follow the example of our patron, the holy bishop Nicholas, the protector of children and a model for bishops for 17 centuries.

When we gather in church on Monday, September 17, at 7:30 pm, we will pray for the victims of abuse and pray for healing for the church as we commemorate the feast of St. Hildegard of Bingen, doctor of the church, the 12th century abbess, mystic, musician, and healer, who traveled throughout Germany preaching against clerical corruption and calling for reform.

Upcoming Dates

Evening Prayer begins at 7:30 pm. Come whenever you are able.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

HOLY HOUR AT ST. PHILIP CHURCH

Join Divine Mercy parishioners for Holy Hour every Friday afternoon at 3:00p.m. at St. Philip Church.

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

For the strength to deny ourselves and put others first, to welcome strangers, to visit prisoners, and to protect unborn children, we pray to the Lord.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." (MARK 8:34)

When we truly believe that all we have is a gift from God, then we must be willing to give up some things so that we can share our blessings as God intended. Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for our own life, but the lives of others as well.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group, facilitated by Judy Pyke, meets Monday mornings. We're meeting at St. Philip for the month of September! We'll meet in the Convent after the 8am Mass.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome—it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

PAPAL TWEETS

Let us involve ourselves in our relationship of love with Jesus and we will be able to perform good works that have the fragrance of the Gospel.

ADULT FORMATION

DELVE INTO THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES THIS WEEK!

Join world renown scripture scholar, John J. Kilgallen, SJ as he delves into the Acts of the Apostles on Wednesdays September 19th, at 2pm in the Parish Center at Sacred Heart Church. He'll return in October as well, on Wednesdays, October 10th and 17th at 2pm in the same meeting room. (NOTE TIME & LOCATION.)

Fr. Kilgallen has been a frequent guest speaker at Sacred Heart and is a former presider at weekend Masses at St. Philip. He has specialized in the New Testament for 40 years, teaching at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and Loyola University in Chicago.

Come and learn about the first witnesses of faith within the Acts of the Apostles!

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Are you a baptized, practicing Catholic who never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Adult Confirmation classes are wonderful opportunities to learn more about your faith and be information about what it means to be fully initiated in the Catholic Church. These sessions are filled with topics based on the four pillars of the Catholic Catechism: Liturgy and Sacraments, Prayer, The Creed (what Catholics believe) and Morality.

Classes begin: September 18, 2018 from 7-8:30 p.m. They will be held at St. Benedict in Chicago (2215 W. Irving Park Road) The reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation will be on Monday, November 26th at 7:00 p.m. with Bishop Francis Kane, Retired Auxiliary Bishop. For more information, contact Elaine Lindia at elindia@stbenedict.com. The cost is $75, but scholarships are available.

MICHELANGELO THROUGH THE EYES OF BISHOP BARRON & DR. MARY QUINLAN - TUESDAY!

Join us this Tuesday, September 18th at 7pm in the Sacred Heart Parish Center (Burr & Gage Streets) for Bishop Barron's Pivotal Players video feature on Michelangelo, The Artist. We'll be joined by Mary Quinlan, Ph.D., a professor of Art History at Northern Illinois University. Dr. Quinlan is a specialist in the Italian Renaissance and received her doctorate at the University of Chicago. She'll share her own comments about Michelangelo relative to Bishop Barron's video presentation.

In reference to Michelangelo, Bishop Barron states that "The Master of sculpture and painting is not a saint but serves as the privileged representative of the creative potential engendered by the Catholic Faith. The Church professes that beauty is a route of access to God, and through humanity's creative artistry we glimpse the power and glory of the Lord." In this feature, Bishop Barron travels to Rome, Florence, and all the locations that played a significant role in the formation and vocation of Michelangelo, which in turn formed the life of the Church.

We hope you'll join us! All are welcome. Come a little early to enjoy some snacks, pizza & adult beverages before the presentation.

MEET THE STAFF

KRISTEN FINK

Hi, I'm Kristen Fink and I am in my fourth year as the principal of Sacred Heart School. I grew up in Wisconsin (and yes that makes me a Packers fan!) and am the youngest of four girls. I enjoy watching or playing just about every sport and was even able to play basketball and soccer in college. After college I also coached both sports for about 11 years for athletes in fourth grade all the way up through college.

Prior to my arrival at Sacred Heart I worked at the School of St. Mary in Lake Forest for eight years; five years teaching second grade followed by three years as assistant principal for 4th-8th grade students. I received my Bachelors in Psychology and Elementary Education from Lake Forest College and my Masters in Educational Administration from Dominican University.

I am fortunate enough to be one of nine principals in the Archdiocese of Chicago who were chosen this year to participate in a two-year program through the University of Notre Dame

DANA VANCE

Greetings! I am Dana Vance, the Assistant Principal and Junior High English and Religion Teacher at Sacred Heart School. I have been a teacher for 17 years. For the past seven years I have been blessed to be here at Sacred Heart. I teach 6th grade language arts and 8th grade reading and Confirmation class. While I love all aspects of teaching English, my most favorite is putting the right book in the hands of a student-the book that sparks an interest in reading, the book that makes them into a reader.

I have lived in Evanston for the past nine years with my husband and my two sons, Camron age 19 and Patrick age 17. Before moving to Evanston, we lived in downtown Chicago. I love the city and harbor a secret dream to move back downtown in the future! I grew up in Skokie, received a Bachelor's Degree from DePaul University and a Master's called the Center for Transformational Educational Leadership (CTEL). The Center for Transformational Educational Leadership is designed to deepen and enrich the capacity of Catholic school principals and leaders, strengthening current principals to become the most remarkable Catholic school leaders in the nation, equally focused and prepared to provide strong instructional leadership, effective managerial and operational leadership, and inspiring spiritual leadership. I am so excited for what this program will do to help our school continuously improve.

Kristen Fink & Dana Vance

Degree from the University of Chicago. When I am not teaching, I enjoy opera and theater-Lyric and Steppenwolf are two of my favorite places in the city. I am a big fan of green tea and all things chocolate. I also love reading and going to the beach in Evanston. If I can be reading ON the beach drinking iced tea, well-it doesn't get any better than that!

It is a privilege to work for Sacred Heart's principal, Kristen Fink, and I am so excited for another great school year!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

AN INVITATION TO JOIN THE DIVINE MERCY MUSIC MINISTRY

Divine Mercy Parish at Sacred Heart Church is blessed with two different musical ensembles for all age levels that minister each week at the various Masses. Perhaps we have some interested parishioners who are considering a way to offer their time and talent by singing or playing an instrument and worshipping God through the gift of music. New members are always welcome!

The Adult Choir rehearsals are held on Thursday evenings in the lower level music studio of the Sacred Heart Parish Center. The choir is open to high school age and adult singers. Rehearsals are held on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. and the choir sings at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass.

The Saturday Contemporary Choir, open to anyone high school age and above, sings at the 5:00 p.m. Mass each week, and rehearses before Mass at 4:15 in the church. The Saturday Choir will return on SEPTEMBER 22nd.

There are also opportunities for our youth to sing at the Sunday 4:30 Family Masses which will be held on five occasions in the next several months. Instrumentalists and singers are encouraged to join us for these celebrations on October 21, November 18, February 3, April 7 and May 19.

For more information, please contact: Todd Gresick, Music Director, at (847) 446-0856 ext. 107,

UPCOMING EVENTS

There is a First Reconciliation Parent meeting today, Sunday, September 16th in the Sacred Heart School gym at 9:15am.

BOOSTERTHON IS COMING! Get ready for some real excitement as Boosterthon 2018 gets started with a Pep Rally on Tuesday, September 18th! Throughout the #Boosterthon program, students will solve mysteries and develop 5 key character traits through #MINDSPARK MYSTERY LAB, a STEAM-inspired mystery theme! Check out the funrun.com website to support your favorite Sacred Heart student or go to boosterthon.com to learn more about the program.

PICTURE DAY! Say CHEESE! Sacred Heart picture day for PS through 7th grade will be on Thursday, September 20th. This is an out of uniform day so please have your student dressed in appropriate clothes and have their SMILES camera ready! Order forms went home last week so if you haven't already seen it...check the backpack!

PRAYER FAMILIES! This past Thursday was our first meeting of Prayer Families. We have twelve Prayer Families, each led by 8th graders and made up of students from each grade level. Each month, the 8th grade leader(s) will prepare a lesson and activity to share with their group. This year, we will focus on the Corporal Works of Mercy, working through one each month that we meet. The 8th graders will lead discussion and facilitate an activity with their group. This week the 8th graders created videos to introduce the Corporal Works of Mercy. We are so excited to begin Prayer Families and share our faith across grade levels while giving our 8th grade Confirmation candidates a chance to lead and teach younger students. The students love working with children from other grade levels and building community.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

OUTREACH

Can You Help Our Friends At A Just Harvest Stock Their Pantry?

Our friends at the Just Harvest Community Kitchen have served a nutritious dinner to 150+ Rogers Park neighbors every night for 30 years. (See their amazing work at www.ajustharvest.org.)

Can you contribute pantry supplies to help them fulfill their mission? They cook 5,000 dinners each month, so large "Costco-size" containers are great. This Fall, cleaning supplies are the priority.

They really need:

Dish Soap • Bleach • Pine Sol • Laundry Soap • Liquid Hand Soap Mop Buckets & Handles • Paper Towels • Heavy Duty Mop Heads • Paper Towels • Spices • Zip Lock Bags • Napkins • Heavy Duty Plastic Forks • Plastic Serving Gloves • 18-inch Aluminum Foil & Plastic Wrap • Sugar • Gift Cards (Jewel, Walgreens, Home Depot) • Dry Goods (Rice, Beans, Cold Cereal, Oatmeal) • Hair Nets • 50-Gallon Garbage Bags • Gas Cards • Paper Plates • Canned Soup

We'll collect your donations in marked boxes in the Sacred Heart Gathering Space and the St. Philip's Vestibule. Your contributions will be delivered by the Divine Mercy volunteer team, who will help serve dinner tonight, Sunday, September 16th.
