OCTOBER 6, 2019 TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The just one,

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

THE CASE FOR CHANGE

I hear a lot from people. I hear from people in the back of church after Mass (my "open office" hours, so to speak). I hear from people who invite me over to their home for supper. I hear from people whom I sit next to, for example, at wedding receptions.

I hear all sorts of stuff. Some serious, some not so serious. On the serious side, one consistent message I hear from people is that if the Church were only open to ordaining married clergy or women clergy it would help a lot. People tell me they'd be more willing to be a part of a Church that was less exclusive in its strictures for ordination.

I have also heard from people who say they won't be coming to Mass anymore because of the clergy abuse scandal. The scandal has definitely accelerated declining attendance on Sundays. But it's not the only driver of decline. Long before we were aware of the abuse problem, the October counts indicated that attendance at Mass was (and is) declining.

I've preached and written about the abuse scandal. My focus here is on our parish. At our level, at the parochial level, what's going on and what can we do about it?

Quite a lot of our own parishioners admit to me that they don't come to Mass on Sunday as often as they feel they should. They've chosen to enroll their children in sports teams, including traveling teams which play on the weekends and even Sunday mornings. Or they choose to sleep in because they are working themselves to the bone during the week. Or they forget.

This is not to put the blame on anyone. Not at all. I'm only reporting to you what people have shared with me. I don't blame them or castigate them. But as a result, I believe that the Church needs to do quite a lot in response to declining attendance on Sundays.

One thing in particular: we need to realize that we have to stop focusing on attendance. I know that sounds odd, given that the subject matter is declining attendance. But just sitting in the pews on Sunday isn't going to cut it in today's world. It's not enough. Think of any other viable or lively organization to which you belong. Is it only a matter of passively sitting there? I don't think so.

You get involved, in large or small measure. You do some things because of your affiliation with that group or organization.

This tells me we have got to shift our thinking and begin talking about and encouraging engagement over attendance.

Engagement goes to mission, that is, our reason for being. Why do we reach out to people in the first place? Why do we want people to be a part of us? Why are people important in growing this body we call Church?

Because people have the potential to become disciples of Jesus, and disciples of Jesus, once energized, engaged in the mission and ministry of the Church, can change the world, the whole world, this world, our world that is in need of change.

This is what Renew My Church is all about. It's not about changing structures and operations (that's a part of it, but only the surface). The deeper reality of Renew My Church is all about changing the hearts of those who call themselves "Church", so that members begin to see themselves not as mere members, but as disciples, disciples who are being sent by Jesus into the world to bring his Good News to all those with whom they come into contact.

The Alpha program is one tool in our current toolbox to help make disciples. Parishes around the world who are offering Alpha tell me that it takes about five years before you begin to see it affecting the parish and growing many new disciples.

It can't come too soon.

THE ARCHDIOCESE WANTS TO HEAR FROM DIVINE MERCY PARISHIONERS!

According to Archdiocesan policies, parishioners and lay leadership are to be given the opportunity to recognize Fr. Steve Lanza's gifts and to share their sentiments about his ministry. Thus, we are providing a parish-wide survey as part of his review process. The survey can be easily accessed by going to the Archdiocese's web page (<https://www.archchicago.org/>) and clicking on Offices and Ministries, located on the top panel. This will bring you to an alphabetical listing of offices. Under 'M', select Ministerial Resources for Parishes which will take you to our website. In the middle of the page, you will find "Parish-wide survey for priests". Please click on the word 'Link' next to your appropriate language to access the survey. Copies of the survey will also be available at both worship sites.

If you would like to contribute, please drop packages of diapers off in the vestibule of St. Philip the Apostle Church and they will be delivered and appreciated.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group meets every Monday morning in the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass.

NOTE: There will be no meeting on October 7th or 14th.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. We share what is in our hearts and on our minds. The Holy Spirit is always at work! No experience in scripture necessary, and everyone walks away learning something new! All are welcome—it will make your Sunday experience even more worthwhile!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

OCTOBER: THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

By Reverend Matthew R. Mauriello
University of Dayton

Current scholarship traces the development of the Rosary to the High Middle Ages period. The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is primarily due to the fact that the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful.

The feast was introduced by Pope St. Pius V (1504-1572) in the year 1571 to commemorate the miraculous victory of the Christian forces in the Battle of Lepanto on October 7, 1571. The pope attributed more to the "arms" of the Rosary than the power of cannons and the valor of the soldiers who fought there.

Legend tells us that the Rosary as a form of prayer was given to St. Dominic (1170-1221) by Mary, the Mother of Our Lord, who entrusted it to him as an aid in the conflicts with the Albigensians. The Dominican pope, St. Pius V, did much to further the spread of the Rosary and it thereafter became one of the most popular devotions in Christendom. It was the same Pope St. Pius V, who in 1569 officially approved the Rosary in its present form with the Papal Bull, Consueverunt Romani Pontifices. It had been completed by the addition of the second half of the "Hail Mary" and the "Glory be to the Father" at the conclusion of each mystery.

Middle Ages where it came into being in various medieval monasteries as a substitute for the Divine Office for the lay monks and devout lay persons who did not know how to read. Instead of the 150 psalms, they would pray 150 "Our Fathers" counting them on a ring of beads known as the crown or "corona." With the growth of popularity of Marian devotion in the twelfth century, the "Psalter of the Blessed Virgin Mary" developed now substituting 150 "Hail Marys" in place of the "Our Fathers."

The 150 "Hail Marys" were subsequently subdivided into fifteen decades by the young Dominican friar, Henry Kalkar (1328-1408), with each decade referring to an event in the life of Jesus and Mary. The Dominican, Alanus de Rupe (1428-1478) further divided the episodes in the history of salvation into the joyful, sorrowful and glorious mysteries. He also attributed the origin of the Rosary, then known as the "Psalter of the Blessed Virgin" to St. Dominic and thus spurred the Dominican Order to make the Apostolate of the Rosary their special concern. The Dominicans have, since then, promulgated the Rosary with notable results.

The practice of dedicating the entire month of October to the Holy Rosary developed toward the end of the last century. Pope Leo XIII (papacy: 1878-1903) strongly promoted the increase of devotion to the Blessed Mother by encouraging the constant use of the Rosary.

Beginning on September 1, 1883, with Supremo Apostolatus Officio, he wrote a total of eleven encyclicals on the Rosary, ending with Diuturni Temporis in 1898. We are currently celebrating the centennial of these papal encyclicals.

Many other popes have contributed to help increase devotion to the Rosary by their writings. In the recent past, Pope Paul VI (papacy: 1963-1978) devoted the last section of his Apostolic Exhortation MARIALIS CULTUS to the Angelus and the Rosary (MC 40-55). In this document, he wrote that "the Rosary retains an unaltered value and intact freshness." (MC, 41)

The Rosary is primarily a scriptural prayer. This can be summarized by the traditional phrase used by Pope Pius XII (papacy: 1939-1958) that the Rosary is "a compendium of the entire Gospel" (AAS 38 [1946] p. 419). The Rosary draws its mysteries from the New Testament and is centered on the great events of the Incarnation and Redemption.

John Paul II called the Rosary his favorite prayer, in which we meditate with Mary upon the mysteries which she as a mother meditated on in her heart (Lk. 2:19) (Osservatore Romano, 44; 30 Oct. 1979).

In this month of October, let us consider this beautiful prayer of the Rosary as a means that we too can use in order to draw closer to Jesus and Mary by meditating on the great mysteries of our salvation.

The above article appeared in the Fairfield County Catholic January 1996.

MASS FOR HOPE & HEALING

October 19, 2019 – 11 a.m.

Holy Family Church | 1080 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, IL

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just: You gave your only Son to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them. Soothe their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith. Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness. Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors. Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

CAN YOU HELP OUR FRIENDS AT A JUST HARVEST STOCK THEIR PANTRY?

Our friends at the Just Harvest Community Kitchen have served a nutritious dinner to 150+ Rogers Park neighbors every night for 30+ years. (See their amazing work at www.ajustharvest.org.)

Can you contribute pantry supplies to help them fulfill their mission? They cook 5,000 dinners each month, so large "Costco-size" containers are great.

This Fall, "Paper, Plastic & Pine-Sol" are the priority. They really need:

- Paper towels. • Paper napkins. • Paper plates
- Plastic serving gloves. • Plastic wrap (18 inch)
- Toilet paper. • Plastic silverware (heavy duty)
- Plastic gift cards (Jewel, Walgreens, Home Depot)
- Ziploc type bags. • 50-gallon plastic trash bags
- Plastic gas cards. • Pine-Sol. • Bleach

Every roll of paper towels helps, and large "Costco-size" supplies are great.

We'll collect your donations in marked boxes in the Sacred Heart Church gathering space, and at Sacred Heart School.

Your contributions will be delivered by the Divine Mercy volunteer team, who will help serve dinner on Sunday, October 20.

Divine Mercy Parishioners served dinner at A Just Harvest on September 15. Thank you to our cooks and servers: Mick, Nathan, and Jai McDonald, Cecilia Hagist and a group of Religious Ed students preparing for Confirmation, along with Rob and Michael O'Keefe, and Bruce and Terry Carmichael.

Once Upon a Bagel in Hubbard Woods and Sunset Foods in Highland Park generously donate produce, desserts, bread, and bagels every month. Thanks, Maria Anderson, for picking up and delivering the donations.

We provide and serve the meal at AJH the 3rd Sunday of every month. Please consider helping with this very rewarding ministry. Contact Patty Sanfilippo at psanfilippo1380@gmail.com.

No School - Columbus Day

Last week the JK classes learned about community helpers. They had special visitors all week that came to talk about their jobs—police, firefighters, and parents! The students learned so much about all of the people who work to keep our community safe and running smoothly. They also had the chance to dress up as their favorite community helper and share about it in front of their classmates!

Last week, Barrie, a special visitor, came into the third grade class and did a nature detective unit. The third graders became detectives and unlocked the secrets of the natural world by studying tracks and other clues that animals leave behind. They even got to hold a Madagascar Hissing Cockroach!

During our morning assembly we did a Mindfulness Monday exercise to get us focused and ready for our day.
