FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

THE POWER OF PRAYER

I've mentioned this in prior columns. Every day before I'm out in public, I pray.

I take the time to pray through the Liturgy of the Hours, Morning Prayer. In the quiet prior to leaving the rectory for whatever, including for daily Mass, I set my focus on the Lord in prayer.

I do that within the traditional format of the Liturgy of the Hours (some refer to it as the Office Book or the Breviary). Lay people are encouraged now to pray the Liturgy of the Hours and can do so by purchasing the one-volume or the more extensive four-volume set of books. You can also access the Liturgy of the Hours online. When I'm on vacation, that's what I do instead of lugging around the books with me.

Here at home, however, I use the book version. In fact, I use the large print edition. Easier on the eyes.

The holy cards I get at funerals I put in the front cover of the current volume. I will often look through those holy cards to recall those who now sleep in death.

Another personal addition that I engage in is to pray for persons by name who have asked me to pray for them after the formal petitions in Morning Prayer. I have a list. It's a paper list that expands or contracts depending on peoples' needs. On vacation, I have a photo of the list that I refer to.

HERE FATHER, YOU MIGHT LIKE THIS

Not long after one of my columns mentioning my Morning Prayer practice of praying for individuals by name, a parishioner shared with me a prayer that someone gave her that she thought I too might like. She was right.

It's a prayer to my guardian angel.

I'd like to share this prayer text with you. Perhaps you'd like to use it in your own prayer when you are praying for a whole bunch of people by name (or perhaps dear people you hold in your heart in prayer).

The prayer goes like this:

Guardian Angel of those whose names
you can read in my heart, watch over them with every care,
make their way easy,
and their labors fruitful.
dry their tears if they weep;
sanctify their joys;
raise their courage
if they weaken;
restore their hope
if they lose heart,
their health if they be ill,
truth if they err,
repentance if they fall.

Amen.

I think it's a lovely prayer. I hope you do too. Enjoy it. Use it. Keep praying. Keep praying for family, friends, and those who have asked you to pray for them.

There's a power in prayer. It's the power of invoking God, commending oneself and others to the Lord. Can I get an "Amen" on that?

Fr. Dan Cassidy

A PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING FROM FR. DAN CASSIDY COURTESY OF U.S. CATHOLIC

For the expanding grandeur of creation, worlds known and unknown, galaxies beyond galaxies, filling us with awe and challenging our imaginations:
We give thanks this day.

For this fragile planet earth, its times and tides, its sunsets and seasons:
We give thanks this day.

For the joy of human life, its wonders and surprises, its hopes and achievements:
We give thanks this day.

For our human community, our common past and future hope, our oneness transcending all separation, our capacity to work for peace and justice in the midst of hostility and oppression:
We give thanks this day.

For high hopes and noble causes, for faith without fanaticism, for understanding of views not shared:
We give thanks this day.

For all who have labored and suffered for a fairer world, who have lived so that others might live in dignity and freedom:
We give thanks this day.

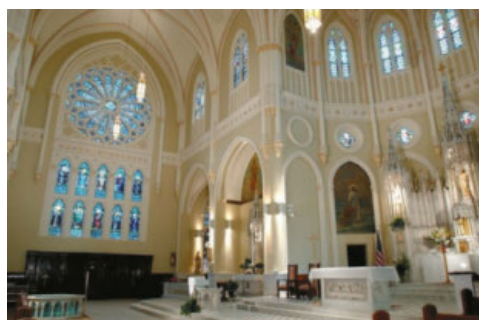

For human liberty and sacred rites; for opportunities to change and grow, to affirm and choose:
We give thanks this day.

We pray that we may live not by our fears but by our hopes, not by our words but by our deeds.
We give thanks this day.

Amen.

CHRISTMAS SHARING IS BACK! THE GREAT GIFT CARD CHALLENGE!

It's that time already! Christmas Sharing with St. Benedict the African and St. Moses the Black (formerly St. Columbanus) returns. Given the pandemic, we know the need is greater than ever.

We've worked with our sharing parishes to determine the easiest way to make their Christmas dreams come true, and that is through the ease of Gift Cards - thus the Great Gift Card Challenge!

We've created a Christmas Sharing page on our website under Outreach, where you can "sign up" for one or more gift cards that will be distributed to the parishioners of St. Benedict the African and St. Moses the Black. JUST CLICK HERE (if you're reading online) or scan the QR Code to the right.

HERE'S WHAT TO DO NEXT:

- 1) Sign-up for a gift card on our website (link above) or call the parish office at 847-881-6664 if you don't have access to a computer. **
- 2) Purchase the gift card at your favorite store (in person or online)
- 3) Place gift card(s) in an envelope marked "Christmas Sharing (fill in the name of the Sharing Parish)" (Please include verification slips.)
- 4) Drop it at Mass, or at the parish office at Sacred Heart Church, or send them via snail mail to:
Divine Mercy Parish
1077 Tower Rd.
Winnetka, IL 60093
Attn: Christmas Sharing

DEADLINES:

- We ask that all gift cards for St. Moses be delivered to Divine Mercy by Monday, December 6th so they can be delivered to them in time for their Christmas distribution.
- All gifts cards for St. Benedict the African will be accepted up until Thursday, January 6th, the feast of the Epiphany. Two deliveries to St. Benedict will take place: one before Christmas, and one after. St. Benedict prefers to distribute the gift cards through out the year to parishioners in need.

You'll notice the gifts cards are different for each Sharing Parish. The larger amounts for St. Moses replaces the multitude of gifts that have been purchased for each family in the past. The variety of stores and amounts for St. Benedict reflect their needs throughout the entire year (not just at Christmas).

So let's try to make life a bit easier for our friends at St. Benedict the African and St. Moses! We thank you for participating in the Great Gift Card Challenge! Our sharing parishes are so grateful for your generosity!!

ADORATION AT BOTH CHURCHES DURING NOVEMBER

Join us on Wednesday afternoons at Sacred Heart Church from 2-3:00 p.m. for Adoration and recitation of the Rosary. (REMINDER, there will be no Adoration this Wednesday, the day before Thanksgiving, November 24th.)

We'll also gather at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Friday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass (typically 8:30 - 9:30 a.m.) for Adoration and recitation of the Rosary as well.

Our faith community also gathers at St. Philip the Apostle on Tuesday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass to say the Rosary.

We hope you'll join us, and spend some time with Jesus. Our world and our Church need so many prayers today!

WHY YOU SHOULD CONSIDER OUR ONLINE ROSARY ON WEEKDAY MORNINGS

The Mother of God appeared at Fatima over 100 years ago and said, "Say the Rosary every day to obtain peace for the world." Pope Pius IX said, "Give me an army saying the Rosary and I will conquer the world." Another saint said, "The Holy Rosary is a powerful weapon. Use it with confidence and you'll be amazed at the results". Given these quotes, it is clear praying the Rosary is important!

My name is John Russell, and my family has been parishioners of Divine Mercy for 32 years. In that time, I have served on the Parish Council, School Board, and Finance Council, among other roles. Divine Mercy has served as the focal point for our family and the growth of our Faith.

Over a year ago, during a period of turmoil, I pledged to pray the Rosary every day. At first, I had a hard time keeping the commitment. At times I would rush through the Rosary to check the box. I confess a few times I missed the entire day. But over time, something changed. I realized it added significant value and it was something that should be a priority. It was not always perfect, distractions were present, but I realized the sheer intent of praying the Rosary was important. As more time passed, it became clear this was no longer something I wanted to do but something I must do. The formulaic process became more meditative. It was a calming time, a centering time, a reflective time, and a spiritual time.

All the while, I was praying by myself, but one day I signed into a community online and listened to others recite the Rosary. Some were on Zoom, some had their cameras off, and others had just called in on their phone. It became clear that praying in a community enhanced the experience. I felt compelled to start a group within Divine Mercy, but also open to others. We have been praying together each morning at 7:30. I have found this to be my most enjoyable service as a parishioner. Each day we have 8 to 14 people. We would love to have more people praying with us. If you have long prayed the Rosary, please join us. We welcome your experience. If you are new to the Rosary, please join us. We would be excited to have you involved. The cost is low – 20 minutes of your time. Hopefully, the benefit is immeasurable – a strengthening in your Faith, a greater peace in your life, and a knowledge that your prayers are shared with and for others.

Here's the ZOOM link (and QR code) to join us: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/2614957344?pwd=dFpWSmFzK21wcGRFNTNNGJ5ZHRRUT09>

PLEASE REMEMBER OUR PRIESTS

(1 John 3:1)

Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God; and [such] we are.

Priests have dedicated their lives to the ministry of God's children, serving our needs as Catholics without asking for anything in return. Now, it is our turn to show our love and care for their ever-faithful support. Please consider including a legacy gift for Priests' Health and Retirement to support the healthcare needs of our active priests, as well as the medical and housing needs of our retired priests.

For more information, please call Priests' Health and Retirement at 708.449.8026. If you would like to make a gift today, please visit prmaa.org.

ST. MOSES THE BLACK
(FORMERLY ST. COLUMBANUS)
FOOD PANTRY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
DAY BEFORE THANKSGIVING: NOVEMBER 24TH

Fr. Matt O'Donnell and the St. Moses the Black faith community invite you to serve their Food Pantry clients the day before Thanksgiving. Their Food Pantry serves 500 households a week, and given the holiday, your help definitely is welcome.

Volunteers are needed to pack perishables at 8:00 a.m. AND/OR distribute food at 10:00 a.m. Come for the entire morning or just for the distribution. Please note that all kids must be closely supervised. There can be no running in the courtyard.

St. Moses the Black is located at 331 E. 71st Street in Chicago, just east of the Dan Ryan. Volunteers meet AT St. Moses the Black in the courtyard. Dress for the weather as everything takes place outside. Parking is available in the lot behind the school (enter off of S. Calumet Ave.), on 71st Street or Calumet Avenue. Questions? Contact Liz McGowen at lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org or 847-446-0856.

HAVE YOU LOST A LOVED ONE IN THE LAST YEAR?

The students in our Children's Ministry program, as well as our Sacred Heart School Confirmation candidates have created special Letters of Remembrance for parishioners who may have lost a loved one in the last year. During the month of November, we invite you to stop by either St. Philip the Apostle Church or the Gathering Space at Sacred Heart Church to sign the Book of Remembrance with the name of the loved one whom you wish to remember, and take an envelope with the handmade notes inside. The students hope these notes will provide you with some peace and comfort as you grieve the loss of your loved one.

ADULT FORMATION

FAITH SHARING GROUPS FOR ADVENT

What does God want this Advent? Simple. He wants you. He wants a personal encounter with you. Our Virtual Café this Advent will help you open your heart to the peace and joy of the Advent season as you prepare for the coming of Jesus this Christmas.

A way that Divine Mercy is seeking to prepare for Jesus' birth and experience true transformation in the season of Advent is by engaging with a program from Ascension - Rejoice! Finding Your Place in the Advent Story. We will explore the places, meet the people, and experience the events that shaped the first Advent, find our place in the story, and experience this sacred season in a new way.

Intro & Session 1: Watch on your own - video provided.

Sessions 2-4: Short video, followed by conversation.

Zoom options: Thursday evenings 12/2 -12/16, 7-8 p.m. or Friday mornings 12/3 - 12/17, 9:30-10:30 a.m.

New in-person option with Judy Pyke: Wednesday mornings 12/1 - 12/15, 11am-Noon at St. Philip's John Paul II Room next to the church.

Want to join? Sign up here, use this QR code, or contact Sue Lehocky at 847-446-0856 or slehocky@divinemerlynorthshore.org. An accompanying journal is available in limited quantities. For copies, contact Sue as well.

Would you like to host a small group in person? Email or call Sue to let her know.

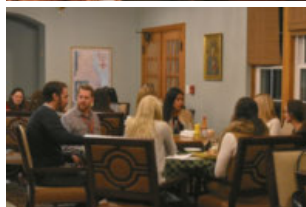

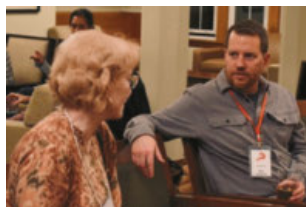

ALPHA HOLY SPIRIT WEEKEND

Many thanks to all who attended the Holy Spirit Weekend Away Retreat for Alpha. It was a wonderful opportunity to take time away with the Holy Spirit, get to know each other better and share meals and laughter with one another. Special thanks to the Alpha Team of Rita Compton, Kirsten Lee, Melanie Puljic, Aimee Garrison, Mark Buggaaff, Mona Nelson, Cathy Stegich, Bonnie-Ann Hartwig, Dona Carroll, Susan Burke, Patty Sanfilippo, Kathleen Clarke, Tony Sarch and Sue Lehocky.

Quotes from some of our attendees:

"It was a beautiful retreat weekend. I enjoyed it and so appreciate all of your many efforts to make it so special for each of us. Thank you!"

"I loved the retreat. It allowed us to connect on a different level. It was magical."

CONTEMPLATIVE AMBIENCE INTRODUCED AT THE 4:30 P.M. MASS

With our days ending in darkness much earlier, and the liturgical focus of Advent just weeks away, we have introduced a contemplative ambience to the 4:30 p.m. Mass. Elements of this contemplative ambience include dim, softer lighting with the use of candles to enhance our worship space, music that is more chant or Taizé like, and a tone that encourages us to slow down and focus our attention on the presence of the Lord around us and within us. Contemplation calms our mind and spirit. Thus, it can help us relieve worries and stress. It also leaves room for our mind to wander and then to focus again. This helps us clarify our thoughts and invites the Holy Spirit to enrich our prayer. This also is easily accomplished with the familiar text and responses of the Mass. It will provide a wonderful way to center us in our activities for the coming weeks during this busy time of year.

You'll notice a few changes to the Mass that will help create this new ambience and help us to dwell deeply in Christ's presence around and within us. We encourage you to limit conversation with other worshipers around you as soon as you enter your pew. You'll notice the Priest (and Deacon if present) will already be seated on the altar, sitting still, listening to the Lord. The assembly is invited to do the same. The Entrance Song is started, and when indicated by the Priest, we are invited to stand and begin with the familiar words "In the name of the Father ...". The other parts of the Mass remain unchanged. They simply incorporate this theme of contemplation. (You'll also see some of the pews roped off to encourage us to gather together.)

We invite you to come experience the "new" 4:30 p.m. Mass, and dwell in the quiet love of the Lord.

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL!

Our 5th graders morning assembly salute to our veterans!

We had two parent guest speakers who inspired us when they spoke about Veterans Day and what it means to them.

Father Steve's Homily connected with our root beliefs and how they can help us make good decisions in our lives.

We had a great day in second grade when we made volcanoes!

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY (RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/PREP)

Feed the Hungry

November is the month when Children's Ministry focused on the fact that as Christians and Catholics we are called to Feed the Hungry. Our turkey (below) was quickly filled with feathers cut out and colored by the children, who also donated $10 toward purchasing more than 600 turkeys for the St. Moses the Black Food Pantry. In addition, the children and families contributed specific items to the pantry — most of the staples needed for a wonderful Thanksgiving dinner. We are on our second round of collecting these items as the families gave generously.

Our Confirmation candidates made 120 lunches for Connections for the Homeless, an Evanston-based not for profit that serves lunches seven days a week out of three locations. They signed up to bring a specific food item, assembled the lunches after our session and included notes of hope!

Happy Thanksgiving!

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, please come spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you now
as if you were already there and I unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Given restrictions of nursing homes in the State of Illinois, the constraints of safety protocols of the Archdiocese, and the fact that the majority of our volunteers fall into the vulnerable category, home visits by Ministers of Care cannot be made at this time. If your loved one is seriously ill or near death, and in need of the Sacrament of the Sick / Last Rites, please contact the parish office at 847-446-0856. One of our priests will respond to your call. Please leave a message!!

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

The world needs Christians who know how to demonstrate the beauty of the Gospel by the way they live; who are weavers of dialogue, models of fraternal life; who bring the sweet fragrance of hospitality and solidarity, who protect and safeguard life.

THIS WEEK AT DIVINE MERCY

Meetings at Divine Mercy are gradually returning. Check with the parish office for the most up to date information.

SACRAMENTS

Please call the Parish Office at 847-446-0856 for information regarding Sacraments, or visit our website at www.divinemercynorthshore.org.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered at both of our worship sites. Sacred Heart Church offers the Sacrament on Saturday mornings between 9:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. and at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Wednesday afternoons with Fr. Javier Del Castillo from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. And there is no need to make a reservation!

Please know that if it has been a while since your last confession, "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 14:27). The priest will help guide you.

A suggested Act of Contrition is:

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy. (Rite of Penance, no. 45)

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That those who suffer from diseases of the mind or body may trust in God's continuing love for them and experience God's healing presence, we pray to the Lord.
