LENT + FAST + PRAY + GIVE

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

YOU ARE INVITED

Next weekend we will celebrate the First Sunday of Lent. The blessed season into which we will be immersed offers us the opportunity to cultivate our following of the Lord. The season beckons us to deepen our discipleship.

Over a year ago, I spoke about discipleship in light of the gospel passage for that Sunday (January 16, 2021, John 1:35-42). Here's what I said—

- Disciples are courageous. They step out of their comfort zones.
- Disciples are curious. They are ready to explore. They even allow the Lord to lead them where they wouldn't go on their own. Disciples don't always know the end-point. They trust in the journey itself.
- Disciples commit to quality time spent with Jesus. They give part of their day to him, dialoguing, listening, and in our case, praying. One of our most precious assets, time, is dedicated to cultivating our discipleship.
- Disciples take action. They exercise their discipleship with other disciples. They also take action to bring others into discipleship with the Lord Jesus—because if I am experiencing something or someone wonderful, I want you to be a part of that.

Are you curious and ready to explore? Can you make a commitment this Lent to spend quality time with the Lord Jesus in prayer?

The Sunday scriptures of the Lenten season are beautiful. Why not take a moment or two mid-week to look at the upcoming Sunday scriptures? You can find them online at the website for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, <https://bible.usccb.org/>.

Each week set aside a half-hour and read through the scriptural texts for the upcoming Sunday. Identify what word or phrase jumps out at you and

why. Perhaps something in the text is confusing or needs clarifying. Bring that need for clarity or the question that a confusing verse or text prompts, and bring them to Mass with you on that Sunday. Perhaps God will answer you or provide some light through the homily or another part of the liturgy that "speaks" to you. Or perhaps, the liturgy will prompt further questions. That's OK. Disciples have lots of questions for Jesus. His answers to the original disciples, in the form of parables, didn't always address the question, but led to even more questions! We allow the Lord Jesus to lead us where we would not go on our own; we trust in the journey even when we do not know the end-point.

Disciples also take action. Take the opportunity of Lent and resolve to personally invite someone in your family or among your friends to join you in coming to Sunday Mass, possibly someone who is not currently attending.

Some of the original disciples of Jesus were so excited by meeting the Lord that they brought others to meet him. This is the primary reason for a parish to exist: to invite others to encounter Jesus as we have encountered him so that they (and we) might proclaim him as Lord and Savior.

In a nutshell, that is the project of Lent: to encounter the Lord once again, and in that encounter, to be changed for the better. May your Lent be a blessed encounter of the One whom we describe as the Lord of Life, the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, our Hope, our Everything, the Master whom we disciples follow.

Making all things new...

God's promise and our responsibility

Please Make Your Gift to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal:

Making all things new ... God's promise and our responsibility

Our parish is conducting our campaign for the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The new Annual Catholic Appeal theme, "Making all things new ... God's promise and our responsibility," is an important theme as we prayerfully consider our support for the Appeal but also important for embracing the life that the Lord wants us to live.

Each pledge makes a difference! All parish communities participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our parishes, schools and ministries to deliver needed services. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

To make your gift, you can complete the mail-in giving envelope available at church or make a gift online at annualcatholicappeal.com.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION: LENT BEGINS NEXT WEEK

FAITH SHARING GROUPS FOR LENT

Lent is an important season in the Church's liturgical year - it is the time when we take stock of where we are in our faith and prepare for the death and resurrection of our Savior. Often, we lose sight of the point of this season because we get caught up in ourselves—how hard it is to fast, how bad we are at fasting—and we end up just waiting for the season to be over at Easter. Because of this, we often arrive at Easter with our lives no different than they were on Ash Wednesday.

As a parish, we seek to prepare for Jesus' death and resurrection, and experience true transformation in our lives during this powerful season, so that we arrive at Easter renewed. One way we're doing this is by engaging with Ascension's Lenten Companion, a resource that will enable us to journey together from Ash Wednesday to the Triduum (Latin for three days—Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday/the Easter Vigil). We'll use their video series hosted by Fr. Mark Toups. Each session will only last one hour. Groups will watch the video and then discuss its content.

We encourage you to consider joining one of these small faith sharing groups for Lent this year. As has been the practice in recent years, we'll offer this series both online and in-person.

In addition, if you'd like to create your own small group, that's great. Just contact Judy Pyke for more information at jpyke@divinemercynorthshore.org or 847-446-0856.

Available Groups:

Tuesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. (online) with your hosts Joe McGowan and John Henik
Meets Mar 1, 8, 15, 22, 29, Apr 5

Thursday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. (in-person) with your host Judy Pyke JP11 Room at St. Philip the Apostle Church
Meets Mar 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, Apr 7

Thursday evenings at 7:00 p.m. (online) with your hosts Patty Sanfilippo and Susan Bourke
Meets Mar 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, Apr 7

Register here, scan the QR code below, or call the office to sign up!

Think about joining a group. This is an opportunity for our parish community to come together, and to enter into the season of Lent intentionally and receive the grace God is waiting to give us during this holy season. Join us and take full advantage of this transformative experience.

Note:

Please join us Fridays (March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1 and 8) during Lent for Stations of the Cross which will be held at 6:30 p.m. at St. Philip The Apostle.

PRAY FOR OUR RCIA CATECHUMENS AND CANDIDATES

We have several individuals who plan to enter the Catholic Church at Easter this year, both those who are to be baptized (catechumens), and adults who will be received into the Church from other Christian denominations (candidates). We ask that you keep them in prayer as they continue their preparation through Lent and Holy Week. We hope you'll join us at the Easter Vigil on April 16th to witness their proclamation of faith!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

JOIN US FOR EUCHARISTIC ADORATION AT BOTH OUR CHURCHES DURING MARCH AND APRIL

Join us on Wednesday afternoons at Sacred Heart Church from 2-3:00 p.m. for Adoration and recitation of the Rosary. We'll also gather at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Friday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass (typically 8:30 - 9:30 a.m.) for Adoration and recitation of the Rosary as well. Our faith community also gathers at St. Philip the Apostle on Tuesday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass to say the Rosary.

ADORATION STORIES

Have you ever wondered if Eucharistic Adoration can make a difference in your life? Why can't I just pray at home since Jesus is everywhere? The following story is from Dan Burke at SpiritualDirection.com.

A Miracle in Adoration

A number of years ago I had an extraordinary experience in adoration. I had suffered for years with chronic and often debilitating pain. The pain caused me to isolate myself because after fighting the pain, I had so little energy to interact with or serve others. After the prompting of the Holy Spirit and a period of reflection and prayer, I decided that I would try to fight through the pain to serve others anyway. I had no idea how I could accomplish this goal, but I purposed to do so.

An opportunity came shortly thereafter when my wife was attending a retreat at a nearby parish. I made the decision to try to go and spend an hour praying for them for the Spirit of God to meet each of these women in a special way. After a long sleepless night, it took everything I had to get out of my home and into the car. I arrived at the Church and slowly crawled out of the car and then walked slowly into the sanctuary.

Every movement was resisted by the inflamed nerves in my body as I slouched onto the hard cold chair. Doubled over before the Blessed Sacrament I was barely able to sit let alone pray. If the Church wasn't so cold I would have been tempted to slide off the chair onto the floor. Even so, I began to beseech our Lord on their behalf.

The first victory was simply the ability to pray at all. My mind wandered to my senses in complaint and then to prayer and back. I didn't think I could make it another few minutes let alone an hour. I stayed engaged anyway.

Unexpectedly, after about ten minutes I slowly gained the ability to straighten up in the chair. This ability wasn't rooted in my effort. Then I found myself able to focus beyond the pain. As the tension of anguished muscles began to lift, my body relaxed so that I could sit up and pray in comfort. With the physical torment fading, I slipped into a prayer of painless peace. Not only was I able to sit up but I felt strong and rested. I prayed for the remainder of the hour and beyond almost effortlessly.

No doubt a miracle. I have never forgotten that transcendent transition from the inward isolation and self-focused battle to the complete absorption, ease, and selflessness in worship and prayer.

Beyond this event, I have regularly been surprised at what happens to me in adoration. It seems that distractions fade, discomfort disappears, and hours pass.

COMMUNITY: ANGELS WANTED

- Are you someone who likes to comfort others?
- Is your first reaction to learning of a death, "What can I bake or drop off for the family?"
- Are you someone who keeps track of when to send a card of support, or when to get in touch for a significant anniversary?

If any of these things sound like you, then your fellow Divine Mercy parishioners need you!

We are looking for people who are willing to comfort families in our parish who have lost a loved one. These volunteers will help reach out to the family long after the whirlwind of the funeral is over, praying with and for them, accompanying them as needed, and supportively remaining in touch for a least a year after the funeral.

For more information, please contact Liz McGowen, Director of Pastoral Care, Outreach & Events at lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org or 847-446-0856 ext. 108.

OUTREACH

A JUST HARVEST "PANTRY RESTOCK" SUCCESS

Thank you to all those who participated in this month's Hunger Hero! Our volunteers dropped off a big carload of food at A Just Harvest in Rogers Park on Monday, February 14.

A Just Harvest, which began as a "soup kitchen ministry," has been feeding hungry people in Roger's

Park for nearly 20 years. In response to the pandemic, A Just Harvest transitioned to offering "take away" meals. In addition to meals, families in need can also receive some non-perishable items. Every few months our parish gathers donations for a "pantry restock" to help.

Divine Mercy Parish is a long-time partner of A Just Harvest, and we look forward to the reopening of their dining room so teams of parishioners can once again help prepare and serve meals there!

MEETING HELD WITH ST. BENEDICT THE AFRICAN PARISHIONERS

On Tuesday, February 15, parishioners from St. Benedict the African and Divine Mercy gathered on Zoom to begin plans to deepen our sharing parishes relationship. We had 21 participants!

Folks from both parishes took part in a positive discussion, identifying hopes for our partnership and discussing opportunities such as what each parish can learn from the other. The group decided that the next step will be to for the participants to gather in person for fellowship and to discuss the possibility of additional collaboration.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

PRAY FOR OUR ALPHA PARTICIPANTS AND TEAM MEMBERS

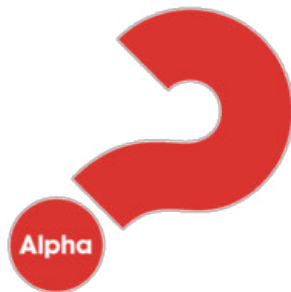

We ask that all of our parishioners say a prayer for the success of our current Alpha course.

May the Holy Spirit inspire and prompt questions in our participants and guide them as they continue to explore the big questions of life and faith. We pray that our Alpha guests invite Jesus into their hearts and what Jesus means to them in their daily lives.

We pray for strength, refreshment and a deepening relationship between our Alpha guests and our Alpha Team members.

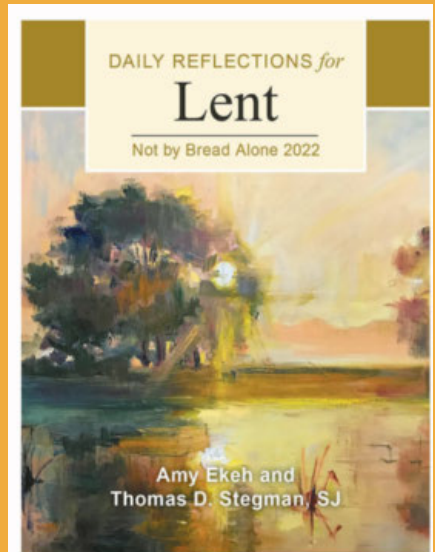

We pray that our participants find peace, comfort and joy in the Word of God, and that participants continue to grow in their walk with Jesus.

Amen!

LENTEN DAILY REFLECTION BOOKLETS

Copies of "Not by Bread Alone," a booklet of daily reflections for Lent and Holy Week, are available at the entrances of both Sacred Heart and St. Philip the Apostle. Please take one home to help enrich your journey through this penitential season.

Last week we learned about parables from the Bible. We read the story of Jesus walking on water and how Jesus calmed the storm. The students then recreated the stories through their artwork.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY (RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/PREP)

Confirmation Letters and Visiting the Imprisoned

We are heading into Lent and the special sacramental season. Our Confirmation candidates just wrote letters to Bishop Robert G. Casey expressing their desire to be confirmed. They were thoughtful and purposeful.

This weekend we continue to follow the Corporal Works of Mercy and we will "visit the imprisoned" by making handprints with messages of hope that will welcome the clients and families of Kolbe House Jail Ministry. We are blessed that Kolbe House Director MaryClare Birmingham will visit with our Outreach Committee as well as the parents in our Family Faith Connections ministry. We have so much to learn from her about her ministry and how we can live out our Catholic faith in service.

A Jam-Packed Spring!

Our families have a busy spring ahead. Please pray for them and their children as we continue to grow in love and faith.

Sunday, March 6 — Regular sessions, 1st grade church tour and Lunches for the homeless as part of our mission to "Feed the Hungry"

Saturday, March 12 — Holy Fire Retreat makeup, 9 a.m.-12 p.m., Parish Center at Sacred Heart Church

Sunday, March 13 — Regular sessions for K-6 and 8, 2nd grade church tour and Bible Blessing Prayer Service for 7th graders, 9:30 a.m., St. Philip the Apostle Church Family Faith Connections 5:15-7 p.m., Parish Center at Sacred Heart Church

Monday, March 14 — First Reconciliation, 6 p.m., St. Philip the Apostle Church for our 2nd graders as they prepare for First Holy Communion

Tuesday, March 14 — Reconciliation, 6 p.m., St. Philip the Apostle Church for our 8th graders as they prepare for Confirmation

Sunday, March 20 — Regular sessions

This Weekend!

Our Third Graders will attend the 10:00 a.m. Mass at Sacred Heart Church this weekend, February 27, 2022. Families will have an opportunity to sit up front. Children will read and bring up the gifts. Treats will be served on the way out of Mass. All are welcome.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally, please come spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you now
as if you were already there and I unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

Turning the other cheek is not the withdrawal of the loser, but the action of one who has a greater inner strength, who defeats evil with good, who opens up a breach in the heart of the enemy, unmasking the absurdity of his hatred. It is dictated not by calculation, but by love.

THIS WEEK AT DIVINE MERCY

Meetings at Divine Mercy are gradually returning. Check with the parish office for the most up to date information.

SACRAMENTS

Please call the Parish Office at 847-446-0856 for information regarding Sacraments, or visit our website at www.divinemercynorthshore.org.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered at both of our worship sites. Sacred Heart Church offers the Sacrament on Saturday mornings between 9:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. and at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Wednesday afternoons with Fr. Javier Del Castillo from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. And there is no need to make a reservation!

Please know that if it has been a while since your last confession, "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 14:27). The priest will help guide you.

A suggested Act of Contrition is: My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy. (Rite of Penance, no. 45)

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That the pro-life movement may grow in unity and strength, declaring with St. Paul that death has been swallowed up in victory, we pray to the Lord.
