DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

We are a Welcoming Community that Inspires Disciples of Jesus to Share God's Love and Transform the World.

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

HAPPY FEAST DAY!

This weekend we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter, also known as "Divine Mercy Sunday." On this great day, we acknowledge all the good gifts God sends our way. It's in that light, I'd like to share with you some wonderful news. Even as Father Dan prepares to retire and leave Divine Mercy Parish, we have a new priest joining the community.

Father Bob Heinz is a retired priest who has chosen to be in residence here at Divine Mercy Parish. We are thrilled to have him among us and we welcome him to this faith community.

The following is a conversation I had with Father Bob as a way to introduce him to all of you. In the days ahead, you will see Father Bob as a priest presider at daily and weekend Masses.

I've known Father Bob since seminary days. He's two years older than myself, and was ordained a priest one year ahead of me. He's a great guy. Those of you who do not know him, you'll see that in the following conversation, as I "interviewed" him for this column..

Tell us about yourself. What's life like these days?

It's new. Life is new these days. I am retired as of this past February, and I am finding everything new. Now as we're going through Holy Week, it's the first time in 42 years that I don't have to be concerned about the many, many details.

I'm recognizing how blessed my life is. I'm deeply grateful to all the people who have shared their faith and life with me. I am looking forward to what is to come.

You mention being ordained as a priest for 42 years. Where have you been assigned in the Archdiocese?

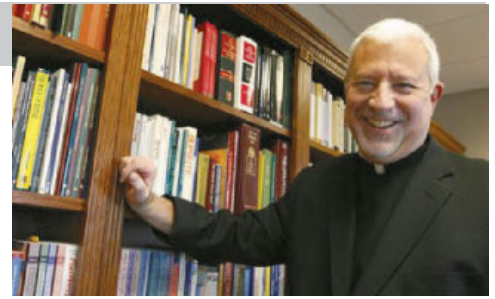

I was ordained a transitional deacon in 1979, and was assigned to Our Lady of Victory for one year. My first priesthood assignment was at St. Ailbe on the southeast side of Chicago. I was an Associate for 4 years and a co-pastor for 6 years. Then I was assigned to St. Mary Star of the Sea for 6 months before going to St. James in Arlington Heights for 3 years. I became pastor of St. Alphonsus in Prospect Heights for 13 years, and then pastor of St. Norbert in Northbrook for 12 years.

For the last 3 years I've been helping in the Archdiocese as an Administrator of various parishes. Then, in February of this year, I received a love letter on Valentine's Day from Cardinal Cupich informing me that I was officially retired from assignments in the Archdiocese. My desire now is to serve as a priest without administrative duties and responsibilities.

Being retired doesn't mean you stop being a priest, but, as you say, it means you don't have official duties. How do you envision your retirement as you settle in to live at Divine Mercy Parish?

I want to spend more time with my family. I have sisters, nieces, nephews and grandnieces and grandnephews that I would like to get to know better and be more present to them.

I want to continue celebrating the sacraments for people in a less demanding schedule. I have come to the conclusion that God is never finished with us. The occasions that we mark seasonally (Lent, Easter, Ordinary Time, and so on), we also mark culturally with birthdays and anniversaries.

Since God is never done with us, I want to be attentive to that life within me and in others, which affords a glimpse of eternity: God's presence now and forever. I desire to be attentive to that life, to share it, to listen to others who have that same life within themselves—and to be present to it all.

In your official capacities as an Associate Pastor and then Pastor, you've seen a lot. Any insights you'd like to share with us about ordained ministry?

It has challenged me to grow in ways that I never could have imagined at the outset.

So that's similar, I suppose, to what a married couple would say about marriage and that sacrament.

There have been very difficult moments, partly because of physical disabilities, partly because of my own sinfulness, but through God's grace touching me through people and through life in the Church, I've experienced the Resurrection and new life when I thought there was no life.

THE GIFT OF EASTER FLOWERS

The Easter Lilies in our sanctuaries are given to the glory of God in thanksgiving of the Risen Lord, Jesus Christ, and in loving memory of William & Caroline Balmes and parishioners of Divine Mercy Parish.

We are so grateful to the following parishioners who so graciously donated funds to Divine Mercy for the Easter flowers in our sanctuaries:

Edward & Rima Abraham (in memory of Mary Kaltan & Rose Abraham), Kathy Biederman (in memory of Helen Tobin and Pauline Rivera), Kirsten Caspersen, Mary & Maureen Claps, Peggy Fasano, Joan Gately, Suzanne Klemmer, John & Roseanne Madden, Charles & Suzanne O'Brien, Lesa Rider, Nancy Ryan, Patty Sanfilippo and Pureza Grucel (in memory of Alpiana Enriquez, Gregorio Enriquez, Robert Grucel, Rolando Enriquez and Menandro Enriquez).

Note: If your name is missing from this list, it may have been received after this bulletin went to print, but please know we are very grateful to you! A Happy Easter Season to all!

You can still donate towards our flower fund for the Easter season by clicking here or scanning the QR code below.

PRAY FOR OUR NEWLY INITIATED CATHOLICS

Please pray for our newest disciples who received the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. Let us continue to celebrate their new life in Christ! Please Welcome: Suzanne Dunne, Lisa Lesniak, Diane, Frank, Abby, Gaby, Aedan and Aoife Ryan.

JOIN US AFTER ALL THE MASSES THIS WEEKEND TO CELEBRATE OUR FEAST DAY, DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY!

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

ALPHA BEGINS May 12 or JOIN US IN THE FALL!

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a chance to ask questions and explore the Christian faith in a fun, no-pressure environment.

How does it work?

Each session includes food (in-person), a short video and a discussion at the end where you can share your thoughts.

What if I try it and don't like it?

If you decide Alpha isn't for you, no problem. And no follow-up.

Questions?

Contact Liz McGowen: call 847-446-0856 or lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org.

Our next Alpha starts May 12. Want to be notified of the start date in the Fall? Just click here or scan the QR code above. We'll send you a notice once the date is set. You decide, & there's no obligation if the time isn't right for you.

Want to learn more about Alpha before taking the plunge? Click here to visit our website. There are all kinds of short videos you can watch to learn more before you decide.

What people say: I had no idea what to expect but was pleasantly surprised. It helped me review my faith on another level and talk with others about it. I also was very surprised about the number of fellow Parishioners that attended. George K.

If you yearn for greater purpose and meaning in your every day, consider trying Alpha. After the first gathering, you will sense the potential impact on your life. For me, it was an unexpected and profound gift! Aimee G.

COMMUNITY

EASTER THANK YOUS

Many thanks to all the parishioners who graciously gave of their time and talent to make our Triduum liturgies so special and inviting. We're especially grateful to all the liturgical ministers - lectors, altar servers, acolytes, Eucharistic ministers, and those who helped with art & environment to make sure our churches were beautiful for each liturgical service.

We've received so much positive feedback on the music throughout the weekend, that we must extend special thanks to all of our music ministers led by our Director of Liturgy and Music, Ron Vanasden. Thank you!!

SHS FOOD DRIVE FOR ST. MOSES FOOD PANTRY

Our students at Sacred Heart School held a food drive during Lent to benefit the St. Moses (formerly St. Columbanus) Food Pantry. They did an outstanding job, and all food was delivered to St. Moses just before Easter! Many thanks to our students!

OUTREACH

ANGELS WANTED!

- Are you someone who likes to comfort others?
- Is your first reaction to learning of a death, "What can I bake or drop off for the family?"
- Are you someone who keeps track of when to send a card of support, or when to get in touch for a significant anniversary?

If any of these things sound like you, then your fellow Divine Mercy parishioners need you!

We are looking for people who are willing to comfort families in our parish who have lost a loved one. These volunteers will help reach out to the family long after the whirlwind of the funeral is over, praying with and for them, accompanying them as needed, and supportively remaining in touch for a least a year after the funeral.

For more information, please contact Liz McGowen at 847-446-0856 ext. 108 or lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org.

DONATE TO THE MAY UNCLE PETE'S MINISTRY SANDWICH MAKING EVENT

On April 4th, about 30 volunteers gathered to put together 300 sack dinners as part of Uncle Pete's Ministry. Each sack contained two ham sandwiches, a piece of fruit, chips, water, two hard-boiled eggs, and a cookie. Volunteers delivered the sacks to A Just Harvest in Rogers Park where they were distributed. We are happy to report the first Uncle Pete's Ministry event was a big success!

The Uncle Pete's Ministry team is currently working to raise money to purchase the items for our May sack-making event. Details and volunteer registration info will be available soon.

Please consider donating one or more bags in honor of each person in your family. The cost is around $3 per bag. Our goal is to have as many individuals and families as possible participate in this ministry, all having a direct, positive impact on feeding the hungry each month.

Contributing to this ministry in any way is part of a very important effort. It is through these donations that we will keep the ministry going and make it self-sustaining. To donate, click here to use our safe Give Central portal or scan the QR code below. Thank you!

PAPAL EASTER BLESSING 2022

Dear brothers and sisters, Happy Easter!

Jesus, the Crucified One, is risen! He stands in the midst of those who mourned him, locked behind closed doors and full of fear and anguish. He comes among them and says: "Peace be with you!" (John 20:19). He shows the wounds in his hands and feet, and the wound in his side. He is no ghost; it is truly Jesus, the same Jesus who died on the cross and was laid in the tomb. Before the incredulous eyes of the disciples, he repeats: "Peace be with you!" (v. 21). Our eyes, too, are incredulous on this Easter of war. We have seen all too much blood, all too much violence. Our hearts, too, have been filled with fear and anguish, as so many of our brothers and sisters have had to lock themselves away in order to be safe from bombing. We struggle to believe that Jesus is truly risen, that he has truly triumphed over death. Could it be an illusion? A figment of our imagination?

No, it is not an illusion! Today, more than ever, we hear echoing the Easter proclamation so dear to the Christian East: "Christ is risen! He is truly risen!" Today, more than ever, we need him, at the end of a Lent that has seemed endless. We emerged from two years of pandemic, which took a heavy toll. It was time to come out of the tunnel together, hand in hand, pooling our strengths and resources... Instead, we are showing that we do not still have within us the spirit of Jesus, we have within us the spirit of Cain, who saw Abel not as a brother, but as a rival, and thought about how to eliminate him. We need the crucified and risen Lord so that we can believe in the victory of love, and hope for reconciliation. Today, more than ever, we need him to stand in our midst and repeat to us: "Peace be with you!"

Only he can do it. Today, he alone has the right to speak to us of peace. Jesus alone, for he bears wounds... our wounds. His wounds are indeed ours, for two reasons. They are ours because we inflicted them upon him by our sins, by our hardness of heart, by our fratricidal hatred. They are also ours because he bore them for our sake; he did not cancel them from his glorified body; he chose to keep them, to bear them forever. They are the indelible seal of his love for us, a perennial act of intercession, so that the heavenly Father, in seeing them, will have mercy upon us and upon the whole world. The wounds on the body of the risen Jesus are the sign of the battle he fought and won for us, won with the weapons of love, so that we might have peace and remain in peace.

As we contemplate those glorious wounds, our incredulous eyes open wide; our hardened hearts break open and we welcome the Easter message: "Peace be with you!"

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL!

Art teacher Mrs. Klatt, was so pleased that 25 of our students entered a competition and were able to experience a juried art show. From all of the wonderful entries submitted by our students the judges selected the following for awards:

Second Grade Michael Vergamini - 1st place

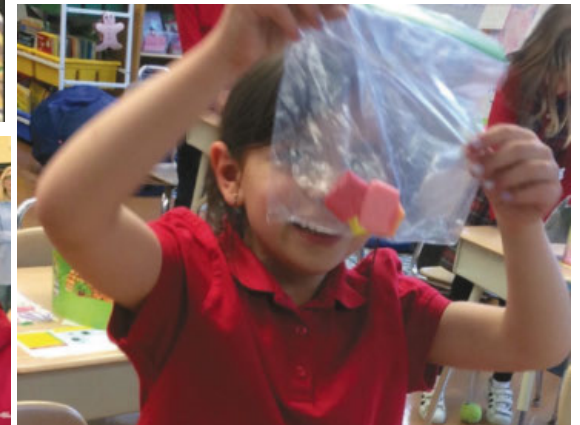

Fourth Grade Maddie Patinkin - 1st Place

Sixth Grade Quinn Meyers - 2nd Place

Second Grade Sofia Tressa-Waterhouse - 3rd Place

Sixth Grade Myles Jenkins - 3rd Place

"Congratulations to everyone who participated. I am very proud of each of our awesome artists! It was so nice to see so many of you at the show - thank you for coming and a big thank you The Glenview Art League!"

1st grade used heat and pressure to turn Starburst "rocks" into metamorphic rock.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY (RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/PREP)

Family Faith Parents Learn and Grow in Faith

Our Family Faith Connections parents enjoyed special guest speakers last month when parishioners John and son Francis Fay shared stories and suggestions on building faith foundations at home. John reviewed tips for active listening to our children, ranging from watch for non-verbal cues from your children; avoid interruptions and distractions; withhold judgment; ask deeper questions and slow down, allowing for silence. An experienced dad of five, he also talked about how actively practicing faith will indeed influence your children and their choices. "All five of my grown children called to say they'd received ashes," he exclaimed. Francis Fay, a recent Denison University graduate and varsity football player, noted that practicing faith at home helps teens navigate tough times. Amen!

May Crowning / Fifth-Sixth Grade Attend 10am Mass Next Weekend

Please be sure to join us next weekend at the 10 a.m. Mass at Sacred Heart immediately following our final Children's Ministry regular session for a Mass in which our 5th-6th graders will participate in the liturgy and crown our Blessed Mother Mary. The Church dedicates the month of May to the Blessed Virgin Mary for she is the Mother of God and the mother of the Church. She is our Blessed Mother. Treats will be served!

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, please come spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you now
as if you were already there and I unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Our Ministers of Care have begun to visit those who are homebound, in nursing homes, and in hospitals. We are still waiting for some facilities to reopen, and there are some people who are not yet comfortable with visiting/receiving visitors, but we are visiting as we are able. If your or your loved one is in need of our Minister of Care or is seriously ill or near death, and in need of the Sacrament of the Sick / Last Rites, please contact the parish office at 847-446-0856. If you reach the answering machine after office hours, please leave a message, as someone will respond to your call. If you are interested in being trained as a Minister of Care, please contact Liz McGowen at lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org or 847-446-0856.

THIS WEEK AT DIVINE MERCY

Meetings at Divine Mercy are gradually returning. Check with the parish office for the most up to date information.

SACRAMENTS

Please call the Parish Office at 847-446-0856 for information regarding Sacraments, or visit our website at www.divinemercynorthshore.org.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered at both of our worship sites. Sacred Heart Church offers the Sacrament on Saturday mornings between 9:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. and at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Wednesday afternoons with Fr. Javier Del Castillo from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. And there is no need to make a reservation!

Please know that if it has been a while since your last confession, "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 14:27). The priest will help guide you.

A suggested Act of Contrition is:

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy. (Rite of Penance, no. 45)

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That the Risen Christ may heal the sick and comfort all who are afflicted in any way, particularly in our own families and parish, we pray to the Lord.
