Farewell Father Dan!

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

FATHER DAN FAREWELL TODAY

Today we bid a fond farewell to Father Dan Cassidy at the 10:00 Mass. This will be Father's final Mass in the parish.

He begins his retirement immediately afterwards. He'll be living on his own but he'll, of course, continue to be a priest. He'll be helping out in Morton Grove and Niles, which is closer to where he will be living.

Father Dan has been a big help here. He came to us with the status of a "resident priest," meaning, he was not assigned to the parish as an Associate Pastor. Nevertheless, he functioned much like an Associate, getting involved in more than just presiding and preaching at daily and weekend Masses.

Father Dan helped in both Sacred Heart School and Children's Ministry formation. He met with parishioners to offer spiritual direction and counseling. He attended parish social events. He presided and preached at weddings, Baptisms and funerals.

He got to know you and you got to know him.

We will miss his kindly and thoughtful presence, his beautiful homiletic reflections, and his Irish wit.

Inside the rectory, we'll miss his friendliness, his dinner conversation, and his expert cleaning up after dinner (division of labor, you know). Father Dan has been a tremendous asset to this parish.

All the best to you, Father Dan, as you head off into the sunset, so to speak.

*May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hand.*

Fr. Dan

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

THANK YOU FATHER DAN CASSIDY!

As we celebrate the priestly ministry of Father Dan Cassidy at his Farewell Mass at the 10:00a.m. Mass at Sacred Heart Church today, we thank him for his 44 years of service to the Archdiocese of Chicago, and particularly his service to Divine Mercy Parish. (In addition, please welcome a priest friend of Father Dan's, Fr. Dan Costello, as he concelebrates the Mass with Fr. Dan, Fr. Steve and Fr. Bob!)

Father Dan is beloved among our parishioners, and particularly among our children. Although he was only a resident at Divine Mercy, Father Dan constantly gave of his time and pastoral care to our parish. He always shared ideas and graciously offered to help wherever he could. He had a special fondness for our Children's Ministry program, and our students and families were blessed because of his presence. We are so grateful for you, Father Dan, and wish you all God's blessings in your retirement!

How to Contact Fr. Dan in the Future & What Will He Be Doing?

You can email Fr. Dan at dcassidy@archchicago.org. Starting at some point in July, Father Dan will be helping out with weekend Masses at the newly consolidated ALL SAINTS PARISH, which is made up of the former parishes of St. Martha's in Morton Grove and St. Isaac Jogues in Niles.

THANK YOU FATHER DAN!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

JOIN US FOR ADORATION

We gather on Wednesdays from 2-3:00 p.m. at Sacred Heart Church and on Fridays from 8:30-9:30 a.m. at St. Philip the Apostle Church. We hope you'll join us and spend some time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament! It's good for the soul!

Here is another Adoration story from Focus ministries, which can be found online at:

<https://focusequip.org/stories-to-bring-to-adoration/>

"This last (story) isn't from the treasury vaults of Catholica. It's a personal story, but my friends seem to like it, so I thought I'd share.

I went to meet one of my roommates for a coffee date after Mass a few weeks ago. I walked into the cafe completely distracted by a million different VERY IMPORTANT things. I started to greet my roommate, until I saw that she wasn't alone. One of my students, Julie, was sitting at the table with her.

You have to understand that I work for the Digital Campus. This means that I work with students all over the country via Skype, helping them to set up Bible studies and discipleship at their campuses. I love each of these brave, funny, holy women so much. However, I have only met a few of them in person.

So when I saw Julie, it was like my heart forgot its job and sent a burst of ice water through my veins. There were so many intense emotions crashing through me—joy, gratitude, wonder, confusion—and all I could do was shout her name and run into a hug. Even the people around us were smiling at how happy we were. I was just lost in joy. I couldn't believe I was in her presence. Her corporeal, unpixelated, real presence.

This was one of those moments that refused to fade into a memory on a normal schedule. It came up especially often during prayer, until I realized God was trying to tell me something with it. Then it finally hit me: I never would have felt that joy in seeing her if I hadn't first felt the pain of wanting to see her.

The same is so true with the Eucharist. There are times I go to Adoration and get nothing. Sometimes I'm really hurting, and I can't tell where He is. It feels like He's silent, and I can go to a dark place where I think He's ignoring me. But that's not my Jesus. He's always there, and I'm starting to understand that He's speaking to me even in these dark spells. He wants me to understand what my heart already knows: I want Him more than anything. It's not pious to tell myself to just "offer it up" and move on, or that He'll eventually show up. I need to admit how homesick I am for Heaven to appreciate the glimpses of it I see here on Earth.

This doesn't mean we need to wallow—it just means that when we come to Adoration and feel nothing, we can recognize that something is happening.

"Never walk away from the chapel feeling discouraged. If you feel you've accomplished nothing, give God that nothing." — Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

We can thank Him for remaining a mystery, because this means we can never really be bored with Him. Seeing Julie wouldn't have brought me nearly as much joy if I thought I understood her. Do you remember how happy you were last time you reconnected in prayer? Wasn't it worth the wait?

I know it's hard when Adoration feels dry. It feels like you're doing something wrong when you're bored in front of Him. But just know that maybe He's showing you that you still have so much to be captivated by. You just need to be patient and keep showing up. It won't be long before your knees hit the ground and you're looking at Him while both crying and smiling again.

But in the meantime, find someone to talk to about this. Go to a priest or a trained spiritual director, and tell them about your struggles. Ask your friends to pray for you, and have them tell you their Eucharist stories. Just try to remember that you don't have to do this alone. You just have to do it."

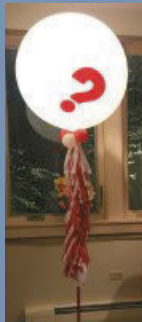

MELISSA KEATING

Melissa is a missionary with the Digital Campus. She was born and raised in St. Louis (aka the best city on Earth), but went to school at Benedictine College in Atchison, KS (aka a city on Earth). She graduated in 2012 with degrees in Mass Communications and Foreign Languages, and minors in International Studies and Theology. Yes, she was that girl. She currently lives in Denver. Like most twenty somethings, she enjoys reading, writing, hanging with friends, linguistic hagiography, and follicular Church history. RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

That the union of life in the Trinity may bring us into deeper union with those society tends to reject or ignore, we pray to the Lord, we pray to the Lord.

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is an immense mystery, which exceeds the capacities of our minds, but that speaks to our heart, because we find it encompassed in that expression of Saint John which summarizes all of Revelation: "God is love".

Javier Del Castillo from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. And there is no need to make a reservation!

Please know that if it has been a while since your last confession, "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 14:27). The priest will help guide you.

A suggested Act of Contrition is: My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.
