RENEW MY CHURCH

As our staff, the Parish Council and Senior Leadership Team continue to plan for the coming year, and further build the new reality at Divine Mercy Parish, we wanted to encourage our faith community to once again focus on the prayer to renew our parish, renew our diocese and renew our Church! Let us Pray!

RENEW MY CHURCH PRAYER

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say:
Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us

to hear you clearly to listen to each other attentively to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously

to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.

May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Amen.

SAN DAMIANO CROSS

Praying before the San Damiano cross,
St. Francis of Assisi heard Jesus call to him:
"Go repair my Church, which, as you see, is falling completely into ruin."

Similar to the call of St. Francis, we, the Catholic faithful of the Archdiocese of Chicago, are called by Jesus Christ to renew His Church.

All of us. Not just our bishops. Not just the pastors and priests. Every one of us – "he who has ears, let him hear." As a family in faith, we must respond to His call as a family.

At first, St. Francis initially took this to mean he was to repair the church buildings of San Damiano. However, he eventually discerned that Jesus was calling him to rebuild the spiritual life and vitality of the entire earthly Church.

Likewise, we must see that the future of the Catholic Church is bigger than any of our parish buildings.

This icon of Jesus helps us remain focused on three very important realities as we renew our faith lives, parishes and Archdiocese:

- 1) It portrays Jesus speaking to us even though he is dying, which serves as a reminder that we need not be afraid to take up this work even if it costs us something, for Jesus is with us always.
- 2) Jesus is surrounded by others, highlighting the fact that, as we take up the challenge of renewal, our unity should not be diminished but strengthened.
- 3) Jesus is also featured as the Risen One at the top of the cross – a sign of hope to us that in this renewal, which will require us to die to ourselves and familiar patterns, Jesus is offering us new life and vitality for the future.

Allow the image of St. Francis hearing Christ call to him from the San Damiano cross to guide your own prayers as we take up the work of renewal together.

IVC Morning of Reflection 2022

In Celebration of the Feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola

But Few Things Are Needed: From Distraction to Dedication

led by Father Joe Simmons, SJ

In this talk, Fr. Joe Simmons discusses a sketched out, but never-written, letter by Father Adolfo Nicolás, SJ, former superior general of the Society of Jesus. Fr. Simmons will trace out some of Nicolás's nuanced observations: how 'distraction in prayer' is part of a more general "distraction in life"; how even noble causes can become temptations when totalized; how ego and perfectionism distract; and how social media and marketing have stolen our attention.

C.S. LEWIS INSTITUTE OFFERINGS

The C.S. Lewis Institute recently shared a list of resources for your prayer life, entitled Praying in the Hard Times: Resources for Your Prayer Life.

"Prayer is one of the most powerful ways to find peace in your life. When you struggle to cope with the circumstances of life, turn to God for comfort. There are many reasons to pray in hard times, but one of the most important is that it will help you to stay strong in the Lord."

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

In January 2021, Pope Francis announced the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, to be celebrated each year on the fourth Sunday of July, coinciding with the feasts of the Blessed Virgin Mary's parents and Jesus' grandparents, Sts. Joachim and Anne.

The theme for this year's celebration is "In Old Age They Will Still Bear Fruit" (Ps. 92:15). The theme is meant to emphasize how grandparents are a gift both to society and the Church.

This year, Pope Francis is also extending the opportunity for a plenary indulgence "to the faithful who devote adequate time to visit, in presence or virtually, through the media, their elderly brothers and sisters in need or in difficulty" today (July 24th).

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

AN ADORATION STORY FROM A PARISH IN ARIZONA

Note: This parish has 24 hour perpetual adoration.

Bill Buerger

The peace of Christ be with you, my Brothers and Sisters.

I've been adoring in the middle of the night for almost 12 years now. About 6 or 7 years ago I was shown something compelling about being before Jesus alone, in the silence of a still chapel, with God truly present before me in His divine Eucharist. What I was shown is quite simple.

When we pray, we often are steeped in our own language, and in this we tend to do all the talking and desire that God will all the listening. I did just that my entire life. I prayed and prayed and prayed the Rosary, devotions, petitions an entire "arsenal" of Catholic prayers. It's what we do as Catholics. But then I took it all into the Eucharistic Adoration Chapel until, as I say, about 6 or 7 years ago.

What the Holy Spirit made me aware of were two notions. In one, I was given what the Venerable Fulton J. Sheen wrote in one of his books. "Every single day of my priesthood," he said, "I have sat in front of the Blessed Sacrament for one hour and listened intently, sometimes even while falling asleep." In the other notion, I was shown what Our Holy Father Pope Francis tells us about adoration, where he says, "Allow yourself to be gazed upon by God while sitting in front of Him before the Blessed Sacrament. Allow the real you to be viewed as He wants to see you. Let yourself be gazed upon while sitting quietly even in drifting off into a spiritual sleep."

Think about what these two men are telling us: "Relax with Jesus alone in the silence, even without one's usual prayer."

Each of them said, "If you need to, repeat Jesus' name over and over again until your mind's distractions fade away. The quiet will do the rest. Deep meditation will eventually happen." I personally repeat a line from the 46th Psalm over and over and over "Be still and know that I am God" until my mind vacates. I become God's vessel.

Imagine that! Just listening to our Lord. Allowing oneself to be gazed upon by God.

I've come to understand why I was given this gift. God wanted me to hear Him.

In the adoration chapel, alone at last with God, with a crumbling and very dark world outside, He taught me to listen in complete silence to what He is saying to me.

There is no clutter, no "noise" from inside me. It is just Him speaking.

And my prayer life? I pray "my arsenal" much more than ever OUTSIDE the chapel. It has made me one who prays with greater humility whenever and wherever I pray.

I offer this for those of you who may be voicing an interior fear or concern about PEA (perpetual Eucharistic adoration) and may be saying, "I don't know how to handle an entire hour alone with God in His Divine Presence. It scares me."

Our Lord quells that fear. He says, "Come and be with me. This is all I want. Just sit with me and even fall into a slumber if it happens. You are here. I know how much you love Me. You don't have to say a thing. Let Me do the talking."

Allow me to stress what the meaning of a holy hour is TO ME: To REALLY adore is to give oneself over completely to God. Adoration, at its core, is giving full attention to Jesus before us.

(Think of this...when a person is really listening to you, you see it in one's eyes, don't you? The person is not distracted. The person is with you, and you just know your words are being heard.)

Well Jesus knows you are giving full attention to Him when you adore and just listen in silence. He sees it in your eyes.

Listen! Can you hear Him calling out to you to take a seat in His special chapel, His soft, gentle whisper, rendering to you what you so long for in your life peace! Peace in Him.

PLEASE find 60 minutes in your life... Adoration...has changed my life. It may well change yours. Are you longing for more quiet with God in your life? something you cannot even find at home? A holy hour in your life fully dedicated to God is an essential way to give sacrifice to Him. Commit to an hour a week just for Him you quietly alone and listening.

You know He is waiting to have that talk with you.

OUTREACH

UNCLE PETE'S: FEEDING THE HUNGRY

On the evening of Monday, July 11, 12 children helped out with our parish's Uncle Pete's Ministry sack making event. Joined by 21 adults, in about an hour, volunteers decorated sacks, filled them with food, and loaded 200 sack dinners into a van for delivery to A Just Harvest in Rogers Park.

Our parish strives to offer community building outreach events, but our commitment to help others is much more than just fun -- it is an important part of our Catholic faith. In just the last few months, volunteers from Divine Mercy Parish have tutored children, helped in food pantries, made 1,200 sack dinners, and participated in many more outreach activities.

These activities focus on the issues Jesus speaks of in Matthew 25:35-36:

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me."

TRAINING FOR NEW MINISTERS OF CARE THIS FALL

Our Ministers of Care bring Holy Communion to those who are homebound or in nursing homes. This important ministry is in need of new volunteers, and training will begin this fall. No experience is necessary.

We welcome you to find out more about how you can become part of this beautiful ministry.

For information please contact Liz McGowen, Director of Pastoral Care, Outreach, and Events, at Lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org or 847-446-0856 ext. 108.

If you would like to play a role in helping our parish feed the hungry, we are currently raising money for our next Uncle Pete's Ministry sack dinner making event on Monday, August 8. Donations will be used to purchase the items in the sack dinners, and excess funds raised go to A Just Harvest so they can purchase items for their food pantry.

The volunteer signup for the August 8th event will be published in early August. We hope you and your family will join us!

PAWS FOR PATRICK SERVICE DOGS VISIT THE PARISH

Three therapy dogs and their handlers made a special visit to Divine Mercy Parish on Tuesday, July 12. All the dogs are part of the Paws for Patrick program, and they provide emotional support especially for youth in our community.

In addition to visiting with the dogs, participants also drew pictures for fun, asked many questions of the handlers about what they do, and enjoyed some ice cream treats.

We are grateful to the Paws for Patrick volunteers for coming to our parish! For more information, contact www.pawsforpatrick.org.

OUTREACH

THERE IS STILL TIME TO DONATE FUNDS TOWARDS EMERGENCY MEDICAL KITS FOR UKRAINE

A few words from Father Steve:
A few weeks back I preached about Aaron, a young person who got permission from his employers to take two weeks off from work in order to travel to Poland and help Ukrainian refugees. Aaron is the son of my best friend from high school, whom I've known all his life.

He has since returned from that humanitarian outreach but is currently planning on returning and continuing to help. One of the issues he discovered is the urgent need for battlefield medical kits to be used to stabilize those wounded by this war until such time as they can be sent out of the war zone for follow up treatment.

Hearing from my friend that his son has set up a GoFundMe account to raise money to purchase these kits, at my invitation Aaron is appealing to us for help. Aaron himself will travel with the kits he purchases and make sure they get to where they need to go.

This is definitely in line with one of the corporal works of mercy, healing the sick. Let's continue to pray for peace and do what we can to assist aid workers and volunteers addressing the needs of the Ukrainian people as they defend their country. The following comes directly from Aaron Espenschied.

As the news cycle moves on, the War in Ukraine is no longer at the forefront but it is still a very real tragedy which has no end in sight. During my time spent over there in May, I learned that much of the money and supplies which other countries are donating are hitting roadblocks in reaching the troops on the front lines or the civilians caught in the crossfire due to logistical issues and the Russian onslaught. I plan on returning to Ukraine in a few weeks but in the meantime, I am working to raise funds to purchase life-saving medical kits to take back with me. A description of those kits can be found on my Gofundme page.

Based on what I've learned from my interactions with those who fought on the eastern Ukrainian front, these kits are critical to keeping the wounded alive long enough to receive proper medical attention. I am currently working in conjunction with a Non-profit, to deliver the medical kits to those on the front who need it most.

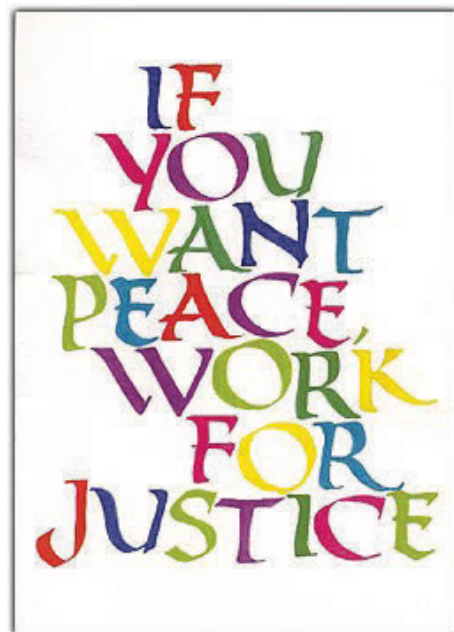

Regarding my personal relationship with Father Steve, I have known him pretty much all my life. He was my father's best friend in High School as well as the individual who baptized me. When my sister got married this past September he served as the officiant for the ceremony. I have seldom met a more caring or compassionate man. I also appreciate his sense of humor.

I truly appreciate any and all donations, my personal Gofundme page can be found at:

<https://www.gofundme.com/f/humanitarian-aid-volunteer-heading-to-ukraine>

Thank you and God bless you all!

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered at both of our worship sites. Sacred Heart Church offers the Sacrament on Saturday mornings between 9:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. and at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Wednesday afternoons with Fr. Javier Del Castillo from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. And there is no need to make a reservation!

Please know that if it has been a while since your last confession, "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 14:27). The priest will help guide you.

A suggested Act of Contrition is: My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.
