FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

OUR PLAN FOR THE FUTURE Part Two

Last weekend I wrote a column focused on our Parish Council and how we've spent nearly two years crafting a strategic plan for Divine Mercy Parish. I promised you it would be the first column in a whole series.

Here we go. Part Two of the series.

The Parish Council read Father James Mallon's book, Divine Renovation. One of the main points in that book is that the Catholic Church in North America is leaking parishioners.

This trend has been going on now since the late 1990's. It's happening due to a variety of reasons, the biggest reason being the increasingly secular and indifferent world. People, especially young people, see zero relevance to organized religion. This downward trend characterizes every Christian religious grouping, Catholics and Protestants. It also characterizes synagogues around the country.

Mallon's point is that many of the things we used to do, and put energy into as Catholic parishes, isn't working today because we're living in this post-Christendom world. It's not enough, he says, to simply hold community events or establish children's choirs. Those things worked in the past because society in general supported participation in organized religion.

What's needed today is a much more direct approach in offering real formation to adults that help them cultivate a personal, intentional relationship with the living Lord Jesus. This is not the only thing needed, but the main thing.

This is also why our parish Vision Statement reads as it does. It's a simple, one-sentence statement. And it conveys a lot! Divine Mercy Parish is a welcoming community that inspires disciples of Jesus to share God's love and transform the world.

We want to be a welcoming community that inspires people to reach out and make the world a better place, all because of our relationship with the Lord Jesus as his disciples: this is our aspiration. It aims us in a certain direction as a parish.

In the Father James Mallon's workbook which the Parish Council used in crafting the plan, he writes about a George Harrison song, "Any Road." The lyric he cites is, "If you don't know where you are going, any road will get you there."

Mallon's point is that an organization can be aimless and flailing about, or it can have a specific destination in mind. If the destination is specific, then there will be certain ways conducive to the direction in which the organization will go.

The destination our parish desires is the one where parishioners of all ages have a spirited, lively and truly intentional relationship with the living, Risen Lord Jesus; a relationship that informs all they do in life. The strategic plan crafted by the Parish Council seeks to get us to be that kind of parish.

Pope Francis writes, "The primary reason for evangelizing [sharing the good news of the Gospel] is the love of Jesus which we have received, the experience of salvation which urges us to ever greater love of him. What kind of love would not feel the need to speak of the beloved, to point him out, to make him known?"

God's love for us in Christ makes us who we are, as individual believers, as members of the household of the faithful, the Church, as a parish community whose aim is sharing God's goodness with the world around us.

Our strategic plan seeks to put us on this path, the path of being and sharing good news.

TRAINING FOR NEW MINISTERS OF CARE THIS FALL & AN UPDATE ON OUR MINISTERS OF CARE

Our Ministers of Care bring Holy Communion to those who are homebound or in nursing homes. This important ministry is in need of new volunteers, and training will begin this fall. No experience is necessary. We welcome you to find out more about how you can become part of this beautiful ministry.

For your information, our Ministers of Care recently connected with Northshore Nursing Home and began visiting this week. Staff estimated that about 20 residents want to receive Holy Communion. So, we have now been blessed with about 55-60 residents who receive weekly in the three nursing homes we visit. This is in addition to the individuals our team visits, and including five new individuals just added in the last few weeks.

For information please contact Liz McGowen, Director of Pastoral Care, Outreach, and Events, at Lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org or 847-446-0856 ext. 108.

COMMUNITY

FELLOWSHIP & FRIENDSHIP WITH THE CRAFTY LADIES

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew, 18:20)

The Crafty Ladies of Divine Mercy Parish gather on Tuesday mornings to support and foster fellowship.

"All are welcome, even if you don't sew, knit, or whatever. Crafty Ladies is about companionship and community building," says long-time parishioner Bobbie Weiss. She also notes that although the group's name is the Crafty Ladies, men of the parish have had a hand in the group's activities, too.

A typical gathering consists of friendly conversation over coffee and treats.

Historically, the Crafty Ladies were part of the Women's Guild of St. Philip the Apostle. The group played a significant role in parish events.

In recent years, the Crafty Ladies has helped host monthly hospitality for the weekend Masses at St. Philip the Apostle Church, and has provided meals to parishioners. The group also has been involved in parish mission projects such as knitting prayer shawls, decorating the church with floral pieces for Christmas and Easter, creating quilts, and holding a Garage Sale of hand-crafted items, the proceeds being donated to various local charities.

The Crafty Ladies group meets on Tuesdays from 9:30-11:00 a.m. in the John Paul II room at St. Philip the Apostle Church (the room to the left of the main entrance to the church). All are warmly welcome to join the Crafty Ladies on any Tuesday. Formal membership is not required.

Drop in to see if it is something you would enjoy, have a cup of coffee, and relax in a supportive group.

For information contact Bobbie Weiss at bobbie\_weiss@yahoo.com or 312-590-0191.

SERVE THE HUNGRY WITH UNCLE PETE'S ON AUGUST 8

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." (Matthew 25:35-36)

If you would like to help our parish feed the hungry, join us for the next Uncle Pete's Ministry sack dinner making event on Monday, August 8, at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center. We will make 200 sack dinners that will be delivered to A Just Harvest in Rogers Park.

HAPPY SUMMER

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Children's Ministry — What First Semester Will Look Like

Below are highlights* of our first semester calendar. There are a few things to note: Because there are many fall holidays and different school calendars, we decided to kick off with our Opening Family Mass on Sunday, October 2 at 10 a.m. at Sacred Heart Church. Then we start sessions on October 23 and have four sessions in a row followed by Thanksgiving Break. There will be two sessions in December followed by Christmas Break. Once we come back in January, we will again have several sessions in a row. The catechists prefer it this way — it helps them get to know your children better, get into a rhythm, and overall teach more of our beautiful Catholic faith. So while it may seem like we are starting late, our goal is to let families settle in to the new year and have continuity. We will still end up with the same number of sessions overall! Register today before it is too late!

*For calendars specific to each grade, please go to the Divine Mercy website-faith formation.
