

DIVINE MERCY PARISH

SACRED HEART & ST. PHILIP THE APOSTLE CHURCHES

DECEMBER 17, 2023

Pray for the Repose of the Soul of the Most Reverend, Bishop Raymond Goedert

Welcome to Divine Mercy Parish

We are a Welcoming Community that Inspires
Disciples of Jesus to Share God's Love and Transform the World.

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Today is traditionally called Gaudete Sunday, from the Latin of the entrance antiphon, Gaudete in Domino semper, Rejoice in the Lord always (Philippians 4:4). The antiphon captures the mood of the entire liturgy as we move into the second part of Advent: there is a sense of joyful expectation, an awareness that the fulfillment of God's great plan for us is near.

PASTOR'S "TO THE POINT"

On this Third Sunday of Advent, I have another tidbit from Pope Francis' encyclical, Fratelli Tutti (On Fraternity and Social Friendship). He writes: "... authentic and mature love and true friendship can only take root in hearts open to growth through relationships with others. As couples and friends, we find that our hearts expand as we step out of ourselves and embrace others. Closed groups and self-absorbed couples that define themselves in opposition to others tend to be expressions of selfishness and mere self-preservation (n. 89)."

What can we do as a couple, or as friends, to "step out of ourselves?" How might we express appreciation and concern for others just as they are, versus trying to remake others in our own image?

Perhaps there are no concrete answers to those questions when posed in the abstract. Think on those questions. Pray over the insight of Pope Francis. And allow Advent to open a way forward for us all to grow, that is, grow together.

NEW PASTOR

SELECTION PROCESS AND QUESTIONNAIRE

Our pastor, Fr. Steve Lanza, will be retiring in June of 2024. The Archdiocesan Priest Placement Board is beginning the search process for a new pastor of Divine Mercy Parish beginning July 2024. Representatives of the Priest Placement Board met with our Parish Staff, as well as members of the Senior Leadership Team, the Parish Council, the Finance Council and the Chairs of all of our Boards (including Sacred Heart School) on December 4th to gather input on what Divine Mercy needs in a pastor for our future.

The Priest Placement Board seeks input from our parishioners as well through a questionnaire they have created. You can find copies of that questionnaire in the Gathering Space at Sacred Heart and the vestibule of St. Philip. Once you complete the questionnaire, you can place them in the receptacle box located in the same location. All questionnaires will be forwarded to the Priest Placement Board.

QUESTIONNAIRES ARE DUE AT THE PARISH BY DECEMBER 28th.

Next steps? The Priest Placement Board will review all the information gathered from and about Divine Mercy (as well as other parishes in need of a pastor) over the next 2-3 months, while simultaneously speaking with priests who are considering new assignments. Please keep the Priest Placement Board in your prayers during this process as they discern the best pastor for Divine Mercy.

Thank you for your participation in this important process. The future of Divine Mercy depends on all of us!

Come Holy Spirit, Come!

CHRISTMAS MASS AT HOME KITS

Are you or do you have a loved one who is homebound for Christmas? We are livestreaming our Christmas Eve 3pm Mass at Sacred Heart Church and our 9am Mass on Christmas Day at St. Philip the Apostle Church, and are providing "Mass Kits" for those who will be joining us via livestream. The Mass kits will include a Worship Aid/Bulletin, as well as a few wonderful surprises. We want to be sure that all of our parishioners feel connected to the parish whether they are at home or joining us in person.

All those who are visited by one of our Ministers of Care will automatically receive one of these kits. If you, or a loved one, is not currently visited by one of our Ministers of Care but would like to receive one of these Christmas Mass Kits, please contact Liz McGowen at 847-446-0856, extension 108 or lmcgowen@divinemercynorthshore.org.

Thank you!
