LAST SUNDAY OF ADVENT SEASON

This weekend we celebrate the Fourth and final Sunday in the season of Advent. We are poised to jump into Christmas.

Advent is sometimes described as a season of anticipation in that it looks forward to and prepares us for Christmas joy. It is a season, if you will, that is oriented toward the future.

Anticipation is no doubt something we are all engaged in these days: anticipating the distribution of an effective vaccine and anticipating the end of this terrible pandemic. Those two things cannot happen too soon.

Yet we will be required to wait. We wait in hope; we wait for a time when we can rejoice together. We wait with great anticipation.

The way the liturgical calendar is constructed, there are some years when we have pretty much a full seven days after the Fourth Sunday of Advent before Christmas is celebrated. In other years, given the movable feast of Easter around which the entire liturgical year is put together, the fourth week in Advent is truncated, sometimes non-existent. (When this happens, liturgists go nuts trying to take a sanctuary decorated for Advent and transform it into an environment suitable for Christmas in the space of an afternoon, no easy feat!)

My point is that on occasion we get some days after the Fourth Sunday of Advent when we are still waiting for the Christmas season and then there are other years where we celebrate that fourth Sunday of the season and Christmas is immediately upon us. This year, the final "week" of Advent consists of three-and-a-half days and then we are at the Vigil of Christmas.

HODIE CHRISTUS NATUS EST

That's the Latin title of an ancient

Christmas hymn, "Today Christ is born." The season which we enter on December 25 celebrates an astounding message: God becomes incarnate. He takes on our human flesh in the form of a tiny infant born in time, into history, our history, at Bethlehem.

This significant event has universal meaning. But it also has personal meaning. Just as much as Christ was born into this world thousands of years ago, due to the action of the Holy Spirit, made possible by Jesus' death, resurrection and ascension, that same Christ is born within our hearts today.

That ancient hymn, "Today Christ is born" has a double meaning. Christ, the Savior, is born long ago in that backwater town of the Roman Empire. Christ, the Savior, is born in this day and age as believers accept the Holy Spirit and live according to the way of Jesus.

This blessed feast of Christmas we have much to celebrate. God's blessings are manifold, not the least of which we are gifted with the Spirit and become disciples and bearers of Christ to the world around us.

What emotion is more proper to this season of Christmas than gratitude and great joy! Alleluia!

THE GREAT GIFT CARD CHALLENGE WAS A GREAT SUCCESS!

In the midst of a pandemic our sharing parishes are facing great need. The parishioners of Divine Mercy did not disappoint!

Many thanks to all who were a part of this year's Christmas Sharing gift card collection. Over 200 gift cards were collected for our sharing parishes, St. Benedict the African and St. Columbanus, which exceeded our goal! Because of your wonderful generosity, the needs of many will be met this Christmas and all year long. God bless each of you!

While we are STILL collecting for St. Benedict the African through January 6th, you have graciously donated above and beyond our expectations for the Great Gift Card Challenge! You have succeeded in making the Christmas dreams come true for the parishioners of our sharing parishes during this pandemic year. We are truly grateful to you.

*You can still participate by visiting our Christmas Sharing page on our website under Ministries/Outreach, where you can "sign up" for one or more gift cards for St. Benedict the African, which we're still collecting until January 6th. JUST CLICK HERE, and follow the instructions.

THE SUNDAY OF JOY CHRISTMAS CONCERT

We hope you were able to join us for last Sunday's Christmas Concert. If not, you can still watch it on our website. Just visit our homepage and scroll down or click here.

We would like to thank all those who participated in the making of the video, especially Ron Vanasden, Tony Sarch, Jon Comstock, Kathleen Clarke, Bill Hague, Bob Snediker, Sofia and Anna Popovici, Kristin and Audrey Lolli, Isabel Hernandez, the Schachman Family, Faith Hamman, Nora and Riley Luzadder, Clara Manzano, Jenny Farney, Kevin Seimbor and Fr. Steve!

We are so grateful to those who took the time to visit our website to watch this wonderful concert, and even make a donation to the parish. We're truly grateful for your support! Merry Christmas to all! We couldn't do all that we do without you.

THANK YOU!!

Here is the text of Fr. Steve's Homily from the Sunday of Joy Christmas Concert & Prayer Service on December 13th

Thank you for tuning in! I hope you are enjoying these songs and singers. I hope that you allow the scripture and prayer of this video to speak to you about the true meaning of the Advent season we are in and the Christmas season we are about to celebrate.

In a word, it's all about generosity. God is extremely generous! He sends us a Savior, Jesus Christ, who saves us. He does this simply because God loves and cares for us.

I'd like to talk a little bit more about this, about generosity, but I realize that I'm speaking to two different age groups. I figure a lot of families are watching, in which case we've got kids watching and adults watching. So I'd like to say something to the kids first—and then I'd like to talk to the adults.

Kids first. At the start of this concert, we lit the Advent wreath. Three candles to show that we are now in the third week of the season.

What does a candle do? Once it's lit, it doesn't hold back, it burns brightly and provides light! Have you noticed how many households are putting up lighted decorations both inside and outside these days?

Kids know that this pandemic is causing a lot of pain and anxiety. You may, yourself, be feeling anxious about the threat it represents.

Here's what you can do about it. Be a shining light! In your words and your actions, be bright and shiny. Say words that are kind to others, to your family, and to your friends and classmates. Make life brighter for them by what you say and what you do. Act kindly!

Maybe you're already doing this. Great! Keep it up! It makes a difference—and it mirrors the generosity of God himself who saves us for no other reason than that he loves us!

Parents and other adults who are watching, that message was also for you, but I have an additional concern that I'd like to share with you, referring to the same spirit of generosity.

Before the pandemic, our parish usually found itself behind budget in Sunday giving. This year, due to the pandemic, we are much further behind—about 30% further behind, like almost every other parish in the Archdiocese.

You hear that (30%) and think, well not so bad! However, when that gets translated into real dollars we are $100,000 in the hole at this point in the fiscal year. To put that into perspective, here are four items from our budget:

1. excluding special projects backed by specified donors, and excluding the two capital campaigns, in any given year the parish spends close to $300,000 to repair and replace aging infrastructure on our two campuses, whether that's parts for boilers, roofing tiles, plumbing, and so on—all stuff you don't normally see, and, by the way, this figure is nowhere near what we will end up spending this year due to the added COVID safety measures for disinfecting our churches and our school;

2. the annual subsidy which the parish provides to Sacred Heart School is around $180,000 dollars;

3. the property and casualty insurance we owe each year to the Archdiocese (which is self-insured) comes to approximately $150,000;

4. our combined annual utility costs total about $225,000.

These four examples should be sufficient to explain why we need your help!

I know the people of this parish are generous. Generosity only happens when generous givers know there is a real need! I come to you hat-in-hand and ask for your sacrificial help—help that is definitely needed and help that will be definitely appreciated.

This is Guadate Sunday, the Sunday of Joy. I know I always feel more joyful when I give to worthy causes. If you are so moved, you can either text the word CHRISTMAS to 847-865-9295, or use the QR Code at the bottom of your screen.

Whether you are young or older, may God bless you in this special season of giving!

May God look kindly on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death—and may he guide our feet into the way of peace, love and light!

Happy Advent! And Merry Christmas! Thank you so much!

ADULT FORMATION: ALPHA

JOIN US FOR ALPHA ONLINE

We invite you to take a break from scrolling and try Alpha, a series of interactive sessions that explore the basics of the Christian faith.

What is Alpha? Alpha is an opportunity to explore the big questions of life. What is my purpose? Why is there suffering?

Who's it for? Absolutely anybody!

How does it work? Each session includes a short video followed by a chance to share thoughts and ideas on the topic, and discuss in a small group. There's no obligation to say anything, there's nothing you can't say (seriously) and there's no such thing as a silly question. It's an opportunity to hear from others and contribute your own perspective in an honest, friendly and open environment.

In normal times we'd love to invite you to meet together before each session for a meal. Sadly, we can't do that at the moment so you'll have to grab a cup of coffee or your preferred refreshment and join us online via Zoom! Don't worry about the technology – all you need is a computer (ideally with a camera), tablet or a smartphone.

We believe that Alpha is a key component of what the future holds for us as we build our new reality as Divine Mercy Parish. It's a wonderful opportunity to get to know others who are interested in exploring questions of faith.

The Real St. Nicholas

As we prepare for this blessed season, let us pause for a moment to think about the real St. Nicholas, who was also called "the giver." A few facts:

- He was born in the 4th Century, the only child of wealthy, devout parents. His parents died when he was very young and he was raised by an uncle who was a bishop. From a young age he knew he wanted to give his wealth away.
- He loved surprising people with gifts! In fact, when a poor father in town could not pay for his daughter's wedding, St. Nicholas dropped gold coins through the window. Then, he did this for the next daughter, too. The third time the poor father stayed up to see who was dropping the gold through the window. When he caught St. Nicholas, he knelt down and thanked him and asked, "Why would you give this gift and not want us to know it is from you?" St. Nicholas replied, "It is good to give and have only God know about it."
- He sometimes dropped fruit and treats through the windows (at this time there were no chimneys in this part of Greece/Turkey where St. Nicholas lived) and they fell in children's boots. To this day, children in Europe put out a boot on St. Nicholas' feast day, December 6, in hopes of getting a treat.
- He is the patron saint of children, Christmas, those hoping to marry, sailors and travelers.
- He has many miracles associated with him, including calming the seas for worried sailors, and a sweet-smelling "manna" has been found in his remains. Many believe in its healing powers.
- More than 400 churches in Europe are named after St. Nicholas, more than any other saint other than our Blessed Mother.
- And, because he is so giving and loves children so much, he is the predecessor of our modern day Santa Claus! Merry Christmas!

SACRAMENTS

Please call the Parish Office temporary number at 847-881-6664 for the most current information regarding Sacraments during this time.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered at both of our worship sites. Sacred Heart Church offers the Sacrament on Saturday mornings between 9:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. and at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Wednesday afternoons with Fr. Javier Del Castillo from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. And there is no need to make a reservation! We remind everyone to wear a mask, and that you'll be greeted by someone from our reopening team.

Please know that if it has been a while since your last confession, "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 14:27). The priest will help guide you.

A suggested Act of Contrition is:

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy. (Rite of Penance, no. 45)
