Divine

Happy
Feast
Day!

Divine Mercy is a Welcoming Community that Inspires Disciples of Jesus to Share God's Love and Transform the World.

PASTOR'S "TO THE POINT"

Today, on the Second Sunday of Easter, which is also designated as Divine Mercy Sunday, we celebrate our titular feast. Our parish is named after this great mystery.

No matter how bad we are, God loves us and extends to us his mercy. We are loved into new being and new, fruitful ways of life.

The designation of this Sunday as Divine Mercy Sunday came in April 30, 2000 when Saint Pope John Paul II canonized Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who promoted devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the mercy which flows from that lovely heart.

At the conclusion of his homily for the canonization, the pope offered this prayer: "God, merciful Father, in your Son, Jesus Christ, you have revealed your love and poured it out upon us in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. We entrust to you today the destiny of the world and of every man and woman. Bend down to us sinners, heal our weakness, conquer all evil, and grant that all the peoples of the earth may experience your mercy. In you, Triune God, may they ever find the source of hope. Eternal Father, by the passion and resurrection of your Son, have mercy on us and upon the whole world!"

May our parish, in all we do, be a reflection of the great, abundant mercy of God!

Happy Easter!

Our sincere thanks to everyone who has already donated to our Easter collection. We encourage you to send in your contribution if you have not already done so or to drop it in the basket at Mass this weekend as we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday.

Still basking in the glory of Easter, today on our parish feast day we celebrate God's unparalleled mercy. Out of mercy for all of us, Jesus died on the Cross, atoning for our sins, past, present, and future. Out of mercy for those whose faith is weak or doubt is strong, Jesus comes to reassure us of his eternal presence. Out of mercy for those who cannot see him, Jesus blesses them in their faith. This Easter season, let us rejoice, for the risen Lord is in our midst, forever bestowing God's divine mercy upon us.

Today's passage from near the end of this brief letter treats the fundamentals of Christian life: faith, love, and the commandments.

TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING

Acts 4:32-35

Luke wrote a two-volume work: Volume One was his Gospel; Volume Two was the Acts of the Apostles which describes the life of the Church after the Resurrection of Jesus. Every year, during the seven weeks of the Easter Season, the first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles. In today's passage, Luke gives an idealized description of early Christian community life.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

We complete the Easter octave with the same psalmody that started it, repeating this week the psalm of Easter Sunday. There is a unity to our rejoicing as it extends beyond the one day, and we join in heaven's never-ending song of praise that is the response to God's enduring love.

SECOND READING

1 John 5:1-6

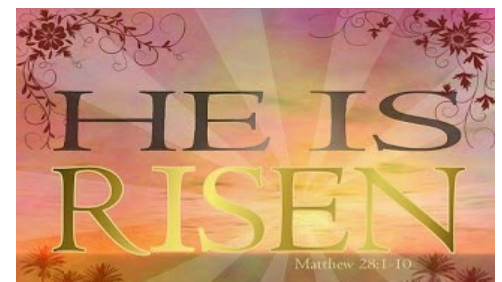

Today and for the remaining Sundays of Easter Time, our second reading is from the first letter of John. It was written about 100 A.D. and is one of the last New Testament books to be composed. This letter was written in the tradition of the apostle John and thus bears his name.

The reading from the First Letter of John, like our responsorial psalm, invites us to reflect on the incomprehensible love of God. God's commandments are not intended to be a burden for us; rather, they have been given to us as guides for living faith-filled lives;

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION

John 20:19-31

While locked behind closed doors, Jesus appears to the disciples and offers them peace. Upon recognizing Jesus, the disciples rejoice. Jesus extends peace to them a second time, then bestows the Holy Spirit on them. In yet another encounter behind locked doors, Jesus appears again. This time, after extending peace to the disciples, Jesus invites Thomas to touch him and to believe in him. This scene concludes with reference to other signs that Jesus performed so that we might have life in Jesus' name.

Sunday of Divine Mercy

When a church is named in honor of some mystery or mark of divine love or divine object, the people are supposed to have great veneration and love for the mystery, mark, or object commemorated by the church's name: and the name of the mystery, mark, or object is called the title of the church, and when the anniversary of the feast comes around, it is called the titular feast.

ALL TEENS WELCOME TO JOIN TODAY!

Our April topic is the environment. We will begin with a brief look at Laudato Si, Pope Francis' encyclical on the environment, and why it's important to the Church. We'll then have a discussion with Liz Kunkle of Go Green Winnetka about what we can do locally to help. We will put all we learn into practice in a few weeks by helping with the Winnetka Park District Beach Cleanup on Saturday May 4th.

Note: Our meeting runs from 5:15-6:45 p.m. in the Parish Center lower level Teen Room.

KNITTING HEARTS TOGETHER FOR GOOD: AN INTERFAITH KNITTING GROUP

We are excited to invite you to join a new interfaith knitting group called "Knitting Hearts Together for Good." Everyone is welcome to join us regardless of knitting experience.

The purpose is to bring together a diverse group of interfaith knitters to foster friendship and work together making hand-crafted items for those in need. It will be a positive and welcoming space. Our first project will be knitting warm hats for local immigrants.

Glencoe Union Church, Divine Mercy and North Shore United Methodist Church are committed to launching this group. North Shore Congregation Israel is also interested. We have invited all Jewish and Christian congregations in the Glencoe Clergy Association to join us.

The group will meet twice a month and we need your help in deciding the best day and time to schedule our meetings. Laurie Jaffe (Lauriejaf@gmail.com) from Glencoe Union Church is our organizer. Please email her directly to indicate your interest and the days and times when you are available to meet. We are thinking late afternoon 4–6pm during the week, but are open to other times if that works better for most.

We will share more information as plans develop.

Finally, if you have yarn or needles you'd like to donate to this venture, drop them off at the parish office.
