FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

TODD GRESICK

The former Sacred Heart Parish and its successor, Divine Mercy Parish, both have been very fortunate to have had Todd Gresick as their full-time Music Director. All total, Todd has served on the staff here for fifteen years.

He came to us with a good deal of experience, having previously served in a Catholic parish in Florida. He came to us with tons of skillfulness. He knew (and knows) Church music through and through. There are very few musicians in the Archdiocese who know their way around a pipe organ as well as Todd. He's also very handy (no pun intended) on the piano.

That's saying something. Those who know music understand that it's not necessarily a given that an organist would also be a fine pianist. Although both have keyboards, they are different instruments and in terms of accompanying a worshipping assembly, they require different ways of playing them. Over the years, this community knows and has experienced that Todd is more than able to play either instrument as a consummate professional.

We will miss him. Tremendously.

At the same time, we wish Todd all the best as he now begins to enjoy his retirement. He'll actually have weekends to himself to spend as he wishes, versus coming every Saturday and every Sunday to play for Masses, and for weddings and funerals. He has told me that he will be available from time to time if Ron, his successor, needs coverage. But we won't rely on that promise right away! Rather, we want to give Todd the time he deserves to pursue his own interests, hobbies, naps, bocci ball - just saying - or Margaritaville. Whatever! (Hey, Todd, do send us a postcard from wherever it is you are relaxing and living the life of Riley.)

It's been a pleasure working with Todd on our staff. He has been a fantastically talented and very pastoral Music Director. We send him forth with our prayers, blessings, and gratitude for fifteen beautiful years of service here.

Join me at the 10:30 Mass this weekend as he directs the choir one last time and makes the organ sing in praise of God. And right after that Mass, plan on coming over to the Parish Center for a special reception in honor of Todd where you can personally wish him all the best.

IN TODD'S OWN WORDS

The following is an article Todd wrote for the American Guild of Organists about how he came to be hooked on the organ, and ultimately how he came to minister to us at Divine Mercy at Sacred Heart Church.

The Swell Shades and the Open Wood

As a 9-year-old choirboy, my curiosity was peaked by the movement of the Swell shutters behind the façade pipes of the 1925 Austin organ in the loft at St. Peter Catholic Church in Steubenville, Ohio. How was Mrs. Gilligan controlling that from the console, which looked to me like the cockpit of a jet plane? And what was the deep, ominous sound that caused the floor under my wooden chair to vibrate?

Later when I actually had the chance to see all of the pipes and wind chests hidden behind those dummy pipes, I learned that it was low C of the wooden 16' Open Diapason. That was it – I was hooked! I had to learn more about the instrument and the wonderful music that floated through the reverberant acoustics of the church.

When Sister John Berchmans, our choir director, found out that I was taking piano lessons, I was asked to audition for her, and was assigned to play a hymn at the school Mass the following week. The thrill for me was like nothing I had ever experienced, and I soon began taking "real" organ lessons, eventually driving to Pittsburgh each Saturday to study with Stanley Tagg during my senior year in high school. Mr. Tagg and extend our best wishes for a happy and healthy retirement filled with new adventures.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

encouraged me to pursue my organ studies in college, and he had recently returned from an organ conference at the University of Michigan, where he heard a recital by Robert Glasgow. He convinced me to audition for Dr. Glasgow, and I was required to prepare my repertoire from memory, something that was new to me.

I was accepted in Dr. Glasgow's studio and completed the Bachelor and Master of Music degrees with him as my mentor. Not only did his teaching address the most fundamental technical skills of organ playing, but his students were challenged to think about music making by non-organists – singers, conductors, pianists, string and wind players, and so on. His approach to organ playing always had a relationship to physical breathing, or perhaps how a string player might employ bowings in order to articulate a musical passage. He introduced his students to recordings of the finest musical "poets" of his generation – Elisabeth Schwarzkopf, Sviatoslav Richter, Alicia de Larrocha, David Oistrakh, Régine Crespin, Walter Gieseking, and many others. In my years as a church musician, I have tried to apply those listening experiences in my work with singers and instrumentalists, and in playing solo organ repertoire. It has been gratifying as a church musician knowing that the gifts God has given me can touch people in ways words alone cannot express.

Thank you Todd for your gift of music and ministry to our Parish. We will never forget you!

SAVE THE DATE! TRI-PARISH LENTEN RECONCILIATION SERVICE

Join fellow parishioners at St. Joseph Church
1700 Lake Ave.
Wilmette

Tuesday, March 24 7:00 p.m.

This joint Lenten Reconciliation Service is brought to you by Sts. Faith Hope and Charity, Divine Mercy and Sts. Joseph and Francis Xavier parishes. Please join us for this evening of renewal, reflection and reconciliation.

RESPECT LIFE

That those who have hurt us, and those who consider themselves our enemies, may be drawn into the grace of God and protected from all evil, we pray to the Lord.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP FROM OUR SCRIPTURES

"But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." MATTHEW 5:44

Love your enemies, easier said than done, no doubt. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It allows us to have a little more empathy for "our enemy". When we pray for others, even "our enemies", maybe it softens their hearts as well.

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

Often we forget the Lord and deal with other gods: money, vanity, pride. Let us ask for the grace to understand when our heart begins to slide into worldliness. God's grace and love will stop us if we ask in prayer.

HEALING OURSELVES FROM A PLACE OF CENTERING PRAYER: SAVE THE DATE

Be Still and Know That I am God.

(Psalm 46:10)

This simple wisdom saying is an invitation given to you by God during this Lenten Season. It is a call to take time and set aside some of your activities to explore the rich wisdom and teachings of the Contemplative tradition through the Method of Centering Prayer, and come into intimate relationship with God, with yourself, with others, and learn how to rest in God in silence, stillness, and solitude. It is our hope that this journey will transform your relationship with yourself, others, and most importantly, with God.

This five-week course is an opening to the presence of God through contemplative dimension of the Gospel. The topics for the course include: The Spiritual Journey with Fr. Thomas Keating, (A Cistercian Trappist monk); Who is God - Attitudes Toward God; Emotional Programs for Happiness; and the Spiritual and Psychological Experience of Centering Prayer. Centering Prayer is a contemporary prayer of the heart, a prayer of simplicity, a prayer of faith, and a method as a way of reducing obstacles to the development of grace.

Sessions will be facilitated by Fr. Mike Solazzo and Sr. Leonette Kaluzny, and offered on Wednesdays at 7pm beginning March 4, 2020.

PLACE: 319 WAUKEGAN RD.
NORTHFIELD, ILLINOIS

All are welcome! There are no fees, just an offering for the handouts and other materials.

CONTACT Sr. Leonette Kaluzny at either 847-881-8424; 847-441-0126, or leonettekaluzny@aol.com.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

ENCOUNTER THE WORD OF THE LIVING GOD

A scripture reflection group facilitated by Judy Pyke meets every Monday morning in the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. We simply share what is in our hearts and on our minds. No experience in scripture necessary and everyone speaks their minds! All are welcome! Think about joining us!

JOIN THE SUNDAY READING CORNER!

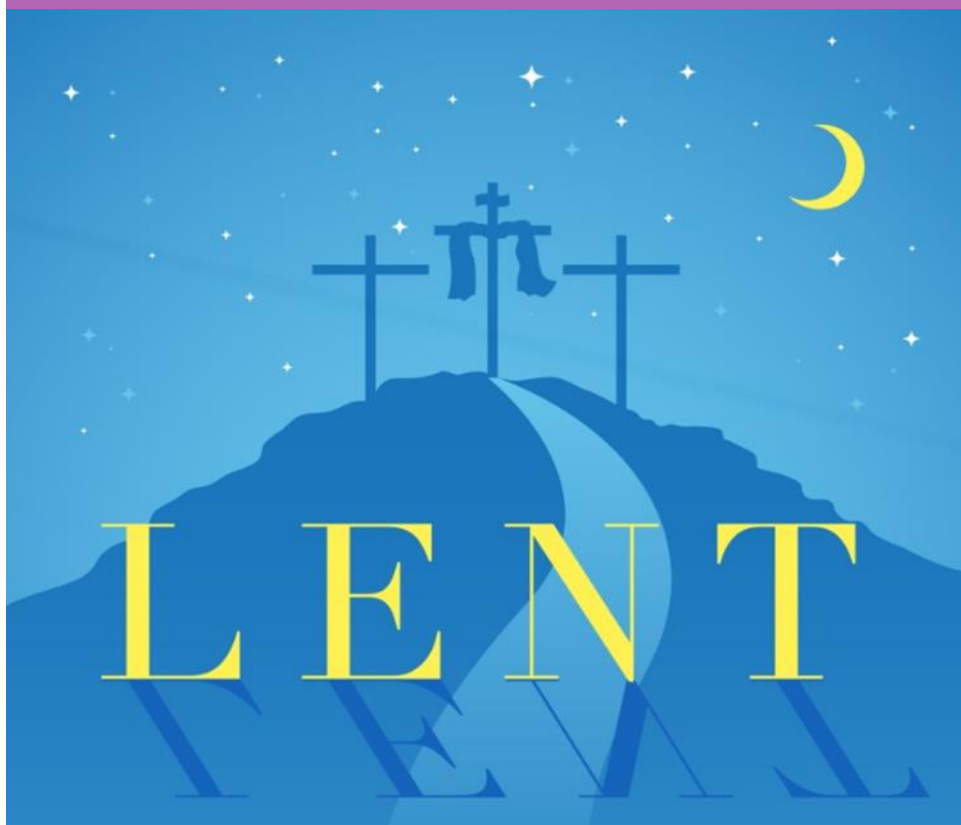

Join fellow parishioners in the Convent on Sundays after the 9:30am Mass at St. Philip the Apostle for coffee and to read and discuss the book, "How the Church Has Changed the World" by Anthony Easolen. This book is compiled of 25 short essays which were originally published by MAGNIFICAT from December 2013-December 2015. The group will read one essay each Sunday. FYI, the group will meet every Sunday except for holiday weekends. Join us!

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR ALPHA PARTICIPANTS DURING THEIR RETREAT NEXT WEEKEND

We ask that you pray for the parishioners and visitors who are participating in Alpha, and especially those who'll participate in next weekend's retreat. We also ask for your prayers for the Alpha Team who are hosting this group of pilgrims on the Alpha journey. Thank you!

Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier Church
SFX Parish Office 524 9th St. 847-256-4250

Catholics are all over the place on this sacrament. Some frequent Confession regularly and others, well, almost never. Some find overwhelming grace in the experience, others have bad memories, forget how it works, feel that God forgives them in other ways. Most acknowledge we need forgiveness in our lives but somehow the Sacrament of Penance just doesn't jive with our cultural style. We've drifted...for so many reasons. Is the sacrament important to the modern Catholic? What do you think about it? What would you like to say about it? Do you have questions? Let's talk. We are offering a listening session for folks to air their thoughts and share their feelings and beliefs about this sacrament. All are welcome! klyons@ssjfx.org

BOOK OF SPECIAL INTENTIONS

Did you know that both of Divine Mercy's worship sites have a Book of Special Intentions in which you can enter your personal prayer intentions? The St. Philip Book is located in the Sacred Heart Chapel on the east side of the church, and the Sacred Heart Book is located in the rear of the church next to the processional cross. As we begin this season of Lent, be sure to stop by the Book of Special Intentions and offer your prayers up to the Lord. It's a wonderful way to renew, restore, and reflect as we accompany Jesus on his journey towards the cross.

THE HOLY SPIRIT GIVES US THE WORDS TO SAY

Who is the real driving force of evangelization in our lives and in the Church? Paul VI wrote clearly: "It is the Holy Spirit who today, just as at the beginning of the Church, acts in every evangelizer who allows themselves to be possessed and led by him. The Holy Spirit places on their lips the words which they could not find themselves, and at the same time, the Holy Spirit predisposes the soul of the hearer to be open and receptive to the Good News and to the kingdom being proclaimed" (Evangelii Nuntiandi, paragraph 75). To evangelize, therefore, it is necessary to open ourselves once again to the horizon of God's Spirit, without being afraid of what he asks us or of where he leads us. Let us entrust ourselves to him! He will enable us to live out and bear witness to our faith, and will illuminate the heart of those we meet.

~ Pope Francis, General Audience, St. Peter's Square, May 22, 2013.
