FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"You are the light of the world."
- Matthew 5

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

IMPORTANCE OF HOSPITALITY

I grew up in a small town in Ohio. My hometown, Dover, sits next to the county seat, New Philadelphia. All told, there are about 40,000 households in the area. Not so small; but not real big, either.

Our neighborhood featured tons of kids my age, a real hotbed of baby boomers. Three-quarters of the homes on our block were filled with kids.

All said, our little middle class enclave was secure and safe, a happy place to grow up. In that wonderful setting, we liked to think our house was special, one of those houses that other families from the neighborhood felt comfortable visiting. The door was always open.

It helped that my dad was a real extrovert. He loved meeting people. My dad's middle name could have been "encounter."

Our neighbors knew that the back door to our house, the door that led into the family room, was unlocked. We expected people to ring that doorbell and walk in throughout the day or in the evening. It was a given.

Mom would be ready for her cue. Dad would say, "Julia, let's get out the stuff." She'd rummage around and produce cheese and crackers, olives, salami from the Italian store, along with fresh Italian bread. Then dad would draw some homemade wine out of the barrels downstairs and we'd be good to go! The adult neighbors would be hoisting a glass of dad's red wine and munching on the Italian "stuff," while the kids would be running around playing games, getting into (mild) trouble and enjoying soda pop.

I share this image of the open door and the offerings to guests of the Italian "stuff", because here at Divine Mercy, we are in the first steps of talking about and implementing radical hospitality. Hospitality is really important. The guest among us is really important.

The business world has long known the importance of hospitality. You may want to peruse Stephen J. Cloobek's book, Checking In: Hospitality-Driven Thinking, Business, and You (Greenleaf Book Group Press, Austin, Texas, 2018).

For us believers, hospitality flows from Scripture. We are enjoined, "When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God (Leviticus 19:33-34).

Jesus builds on the Old Testament sense of hospitality as he warns the disciples about the coming of the Son of Man and judgment, "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matthew 25:35). Saint Paul continues the theme of hospitality, "Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God." (Romans 15:7). Then there is Peter, "Show hospitality to one another without grumbling" (1 Peter 4:9).

These, and other scriptural guideposts, light our way. Even if we were unaware of these scriptural injunctions, don't we all instinctively know that hospitality makes a difference?

Go on vacation to a resort. Visit family and friends. Our own personal experience speaks to the positive difference an open door and a sharing of good "stuff" brings to any human encounter, transforming it from 'ho hum' to stellar.

We can all probably point to those parishes that are currently practicing a type of radical hospitality. Folks want to be there because they are made to feel welcomed and valued. A handshake, a smile, a "right this way," or a "yes, we can" or a "yes, we will help you" brings people in. The lack thereof shuts people out. We need to do everything possible to put people and their needs first. Otherwise, what are we here for?

I'm pretty sure we're in the business, so to speak, of people—bringing people into the household of the faithful, and opening doors for them that lead into the kingdom. In a prior era of the Church, the dynamic was: believing leads to behaving, leads to belonging. In today's post-Christendom world, that dynamic has been flipped: belonging leads to believing leads to behaving.

Look at the apprenticeship dynamic that informs the catechumenate process (the second stage of the RCIA process for adults becoming Catholic). In this long stage of formation, the unbaptized learn to become disciples by being apprenticed to other disciples. They are given a network of helpers such as sponsors and others who welcome and accompany them, making them feel comfortable among this community of ours.

In other words, their belonging comes first. Then, as they follow our example, they develop or cultivate a way of behaving in life. Finally, after this period of apprenticeship they give voice to our Trinitarian belief as they approach the baptismal waters and profess faith.

They cannot get from being strangers to valued and full members of the household of the faithful without the foundation of a warm welcome and continued hospitality. Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How can anyone come to Jesus without us disciples opening doors and providing a warm welcome to the Lord?

This radical hospitality, pervading all we do and all we are, is a necessary ingredient for our continued renewal as a parish. As we move forward, look for specific steps that we will be taking over the next year to put radical hospitality in place!

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

JOIN THE SUNDAY READING CORNER!

Join fellow parishioners in the Convent on Sundays after the 9:30am Mass at St. Philip the Apostle for coffee and to read and discuss the book, "How the Church Has Changed the World" by Anthony Easolen. This book is compiled of 25 short essays which were originally published by MAGNIFICAT from December 2013-December 2015. The group will read one essay each Sunday. FYI, the group will meet every Sunday except for holiday weekends. Join us!

RESPECT LIFE

That the Church may continue to be the light of the world, bringing truth and salvation to all the nations, we pray to the Lord.

DIVINE MERCY MEN'S RETREAT: "TABLE TALK: LISTENING TO JESUS' MESSAGE AS WE SHARE MEALS WITH HIM"

FEBRUARY 21-23, 2020

This Ignatian, silent weekend retreat for Men at Bellarmine Retreat House in Barrington, will be led by Retreat Master Fr. David Shields, SJ. Using various stories from the gospel of St. Luke, we will read and consider the issues and themes that Jesus talked about when he was invited out. By accompanying Jesus at important meals, we can come to know his mind and heart more intimately, deepen our love for him and strengthen our level of discipleship as Catholic Christians.

Fr. Shields is a Jesuit priest of the USA Midwest Province who has been involved in retreat ministry for over 40 years in many formats. In addition to this ministry, Fr. Shields has spent some 20 years with the Oglala Sioux on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota and, more recently, nearly 22 years in Hispanic ministry in Milwaukee, WI. Currently he is the Director of Spiritual Programs at Casa Romero Renewal Center in Milwaukee. Casa Romero is an urban bilingual spirituality center offering bilingual retreats and formation to 1st and 2nd generation Latinx in southeast Wisconsin.

Suggested retreat contribution:
Weekend Retreat is $295 per person ($95 deposit). For more information contact Great Grodecki, 847-906-4105, or Deacon Mike McNulty, 847-446-0856x120.

ENCOUNTER THE WORD OF THE LIVING GOD

A scripture reflection group facilitated by Judy Pyke meets every Monday morning in the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. We simply share what is in our hearts and on our minds. No experience in scripture necessary and everyone speaks their minds! All are welcome! Think about joining us!

TRI-PARISH LENTEN REFLECTION WITH FR. MATT SPOTTS, SJ

St Francis Xavier Church
524 9th St. Wilmette
Monday, February 24th 7-8:00 p.m.
Tuesday, February 25th 7-8:00 p.m.
(Mardi Gras party to follow)

Fr. Matt Spotts, SJ will focus on the following themes for his reflection: be forgiven * forgive * let God speak to you * be generous * remember you are dust and to dust you shall return * 40 days * open your heart * give time to yourself to seek God.

Fr. Matt has been serving as associate pastor at Ss. Joseph-Francis Xavier Parish since the summer of 2019 as well as in the campus ministry office at Loyola Academy. His ministry with the Jesuits has included ministerial work on the Pine Ridge Reservation of South Dakota, teaching high school in Indianapolis, IN, and working in prison ministry at San Quentin State Prison in California.

RECONCILIATION SERVICE

St. Joseph Church

HEALING OURSELVES FROM A PLACE OF CENTERING PRAYER: SAVE THE DATE

Be Still and Know That I am God.
(Psalm 46:10)

This simple wisdom saying is an invitation given to you by God during this Lenten Season. It is a call to take time and set aside some of your activities to explore the rich wisdom and teachings of the Contemplative tradition through the Method of Centering Prayer, and come into intimate relationship with God, with yourself, with others, and learn how to rest in God in silence, stillness, and solitude. It is our hope that this journey will transform your relationship with yourself, others, and most importantly, with God.

This five-week course is an opening to the presence of God through contemplative dimension of the Gospel. The topics for the course include: The Spiritual Journey with Fr. Thomas Keating, (A Cistercian Trappist monk); Who is God - Attitudes Toward God; Emotional Programs for Happiness; and the Spiritual and Psychological Experience of Centering Prayer. Centering Prayer is a contemporary prayer of the heart, a prayer of simplicity, a prayer of faith, and a method as a way of reducing obstacles to the development of grace.

Sessions will be facilitated by Fr. Mike Solazzo and Sr. Leonette Kaluzny, and offered on Wednesdays at 7pm beginning March 4, 2020.

PLACE: 319 WAUKEGAN RD.
NORTHFIELD, ILLINOIS

All are welcome! There are no fees, just an offering for the handouts and other materials.

CONTACT Sr. Leonette Kaluzny at either 847-881-8424; 847-441-0126, or leonettekaluzny@aol.com.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR ALPHA PARTICIPANTS

We ask that you pray for the parishioners and visitors who are participating in Alpha. We also ask for your prayers for the Alpha Team who are hosting this group of pilgrims on the Alpha journey. Thank you!

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

Let us make room for the Word of God! Each day, let us read a verse or two of the Bible. We will discover that God is close to us, that He dispels our darkness and, with great love, leads our lives into deep waters.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP FROM OUR SCRIPTURES

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." MATTHEW 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Let your light shine! Be careful to recognize that God is working through you and don't put yourself above the people you have been called to help.

Beginning February 26

DIVINE MERCY MEN'S CLUB MEETING

All the men of the parish are invited to join us on Tuesday evening, February 11 at 7:30 PM at the Parish Office Conference Room (entrance on East side of the Church, off parking lot).

All are welcome, please spread the word and encourage attendance.

BAKE SALE TO SUPPORT THE JUNIOR TOWER PLAYERS TODAY AFTER ALL THE MASSES AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

Come support our Junior Tower Players theatrical group this weekend and purchase items from the bake sale in the Sacred Heart Gathering Space. Your purchases will help offset the expenses of our annual production. This year's production is Porridge! Thank you!

PLEASE MAKE YOUR GIFT TO THE 2020 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Come, follow me...and heal our world

Please spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal brochure that you received with your bulletin. The Annual Catholic Appeal is a pledged campaign commitment where you can make a gift payable in installments. Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services to answer Jesus' call to "Come, follow me... and heal the world." Once we reach our parish goal of $100,238 in paid pledges, any additional funds come back to our parish to help fund our needs.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you who did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY (RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/PREP)

What a special week...

We had First Eucharist Enrollment at both St. Philip's and Sacred Heart. The children processed in holding candles, sang "This Little Light of Mine," were enrolled and passed out handmade prayer cards. Everyone was smiling! We are blessed to have these children and their families in our parish — they bring joy and hope to our church.

They are enrolled and ready to prepare for the sacrament of First Communion!

Delivering the sheep prayer cards was great fun for the children!
