FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

A LITTLE BIT OF LIGHT

Through the generosity of a parishioner we are changing out most of the lighting fixtures in the parish offices, which long ago used to be the convent building. The building has held up over the years but the lighting really wasn't the best given that it's no longer a convent but a place where people work.

Footnote: I'm in the office most days. There are a few others. Most of the staff works from home. Meetings are done via Zoom. So we don't congregate together and when the few of us who are on the premises speak to each other we're six feet apart and masked.

Improvements in lighting, like LED blubs, and cost effective fixtures have helped this particular project, I would think. I am deeply grateful to this parishioner for the change in lighting.

The difference was immediately noticeable. My goodness! We weren't really aware of how dreary the office environs were until the new fixtures were installed.

A little bit of light goes a long way! We're no longer mushrooms growing in a dark cave.

We have never been cats (who can see in the dark). We humans need light, and the light we now have in our offices. I am reminded that the first word out of God's mouth in the creation narrative of the Hebrew scriptures—the first command of God recorded in the Bible—is "Let there be light!" (Genesis 1:3)

The third stage of the adult initiation process is called the Period of Purification and Enlightenment" and that third stage is synonymous with the liturgical season of Lent. This third stage leads directly to the Easter font in which adults are baptized.

Enlightenment leads to new life, Risen life with Christ. We believe it.

LET THERE BE LIGHT!

Those of us gifted with Baptism are meant to be lights for others. We are meant to bring light to the world that all might profess faith in Christ.

Why?

Because we believe that Christ is the way, the truth, and the life. The Lord offers us a path to heaven, a way forward in this world that will lead us to life on high.

How might we be a light to others?

In so many and varied ways of service and outreach, of goodness and holiness, in sharing and working to build the kingdom of God here and now. I am grateful to our wonderful parishioners who are striving to do just that.

Most engage in this work of the kingdom quietly and without fanfare. Others are a bit more dramatic or public, not because they want publicity, but simply by the nature of what it is that they are doing. Whether the work is quiet or dramatic, it sheds light.

May this Lenten season be a time of enlightenment for us all as we go deeper into the mystery of Jesus, continuing to cultivate a living relationship with the Lord who is, in the words of the Nicene Creed, "God from God, Light from Light."

Let there be light!

A photograph showing the curved horizon of the Earth from space. The sky is dark with some stars visible. A bright light source, likely the sun, is just below the horizon, creating a lens flare and illuminating the edge of the Earth. The text "And God said: Let there be light. And there was light." is overlaid in white.

And God said:
Let there be light.
And there was light.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

THE SEASON OF LENT

Lent is a special time of prayer, penance, sacrifice and good works in preparation for the celebration of Easter. Two important facets of Lent include baptism and the sacrament of penance.

In the early Church, there was an intense, retreat-like period of time during which those who wanted to follow Christ prepared to be baptized. Over the centuries, this period of time came to be called Lent. Today, we recall our own baptism, and journey with those who will complete their initiation into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. Lent is a wonderful time to pray for those who are preparing to enter the Church at Easter.

The sacrament of penance (or reconciliation) is God's gift to us so that we may be reconciled to God and the people of God, the Church, especially during the season of Lent. The sacrament of reconciliation is offered every Wednesday at St. Philip the Apostle from 3:00 - 4:30pm, and every Saturday morning at Sacred Heart from 9:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.

WORSHIP AIDS FOR MASS

They will be found on our website, which you can download before you come to Mass or scan this QR code with your smart phone camera to access it at church or at home so that you can follow along. NOTE: all three Masses will appear, so you'll need to scroll to the Mass you are attending.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP: A LITTLE HISTORY FROM DEACON MIKE McNULTY

Note: A work of art was recently re-installed in Sacred Heart Church in the east arch of the sanctuary. Deacon Mike McNulty shares his memories of this piece of art.

Shortly before we began the renovation of Sacred heart Church during the pastorate of Father Bob Ferrigan, I received a call from Joseph O'Connell. He is the artist who was engaged by then Pastor, Monsignor Reynold Hillenbrand, to create the Vine and the Branches that highlights the back wall of the sanctuary, as well as the Baptismal and Holy Water Fonts, and what was originally the face of our Ambo, which has now been installed in the east arch of the church. It is a representation of Christ the Teacher and the Four Evangelists; Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. He had heard we were about to renovate the church and wondered what was to become of the work he had created. I assured him that the committee of parishioners working with the Pastor, had designated all of his work as treasures of the church and that all would be retained.

Monsignor Reynold Hillenbrand's father was a dentist and all of the O'Connell family were his patients. Msgr. Hillenbrand, had been Rector of our seminary at Mundelein, and was quite well known nationally for his work with many apostolates such as Young Christian Students, Young Christian Workers, the Christian Family Movement, and also for his work in liturgical reform which came to fruition in the Second Vatican Council. He was a proponent of the laity actively participating in their faith and being witnesses to that faith in the world. He wanted them to be active participants in the liturgy as well. This was at a time when Mass was said in Latin, with the priest facing the altar with his back to the people. Basically, we were silent witnesses to the mystery of bread and wine becoming the body and blood of Christ. All that was soon to change, and Hillenbrand was one of the reasons it happened. He became the Pastor of Sacred Heart when Fr. Haarth, the founding Pastor, died. Five years before the Second Vatican Council, Msgr. set about renovation of the church, pulling the altar out from the wall and saying Mass facing the people. He taught the parishioners Gregorian chant and we became active participants.

On the day Joseph O'Connell called, he told me this story. When he was commissioned to create art for Sacred Heart, he was the proverbial starving artist, living in a rooming house in Chicago. His landlady had a brother, Muggsy Spanier, a jazz trumpeter at the Blue Note in downtown Chicago. One day a week the Blue Note was closed because alcohol could not be sold on Sundays. Muggsy would come to his sisters for dinner on Sundays and Joseph, who played a little saxophone would jam with Muggsy. It turned out that when Muggsy was a student at Holy Name Cathedral grammar school, the nuns were trying to channel his energy into constructive pursuits, and recognizing his musical talent, steered him in that direction. Muggsy wanted to play piano, but having only three fingers on one hand resulted in the nuns buying him a trumpet which, of course, has only 3 valves. When Joseph O'Connell designed our Baptismal Font he rendered the Angel Gabriel blowing his horn on the side of the font, and the Angel has only 3 fingers. It was his tribute to his friend Muggsy. I asked what Msgr. thought about a 3 fingered angel, and he said: "He never noticed and I never told him". I think Msgr. would have loved it. A three fingered angel, it seems to me, is a metaphor for the human imperfection made whole by the sacraments.

We invited O'Connell to come for the rededication of the church upon completion of the renovation. He declined, and we later learned he was dying of cancer. After his death we learned the 3 fingered angel was a bit like a painter signing his work. He had also created statues of the four evangelists and the fingers on the statues were the four numerals in the street address of the church where they were installed. I treasure a book entitled: Divine Favor: The Art of Joseph O'Connell

2021 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL:

COME, FOLLOW ME AND BRING HOPE TO THE WORLD

Our parish is conducting our campaign for the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The Annual Catholic Appeal theme, "Come, follow me ... and bring hope to the world," was selected because as disciples of Jesus, we follow the Master who both gives us hope and sends us to bring his hope to our world that needs it so much.

Each pledge makes a difference! All parishes communities participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our parishes, schools and ministries to deliver needed services. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

To make your gift, you can complete the mail-in giving envelope available at church or make a gift online at <http://annualcatholicappeal.com>.

Online giving forms are also available at: www.annualcatholicappeal.com

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY (RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/PREP)

Blessing Bags, Music Ministry, Youth Alpha Retreat and More!

A big thank you to the families that participated -- 175 Blessing Bags were delivered to the St. Columbanus Food Pantry on Ash Wednesday and the additional ones received will be distributed weekly. Divine Mercy parishioner Kathleen Clarke shared:

"I just wanted to let everyone know that the Blessing Bags were a huge hit today! The food pantry clients were really excited to see these goodie bags with many new and necessary items inside. Huge smiles were seen and many loved the handwritten cards tucked inside, too. There were a lot of them - yay!!"

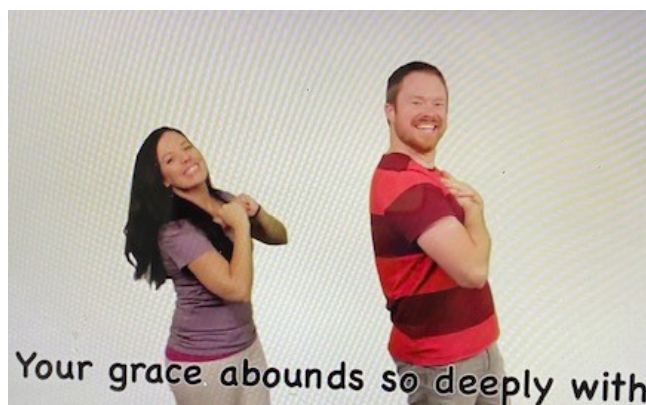

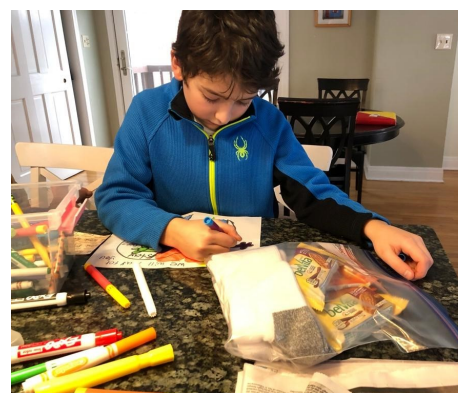

What a wonderful way to begin Lent! Fr. Matt (Pastor of St. Columbanus) was appreciative as always...I just wanted to let you know what an extra special Ash Wednesday it was for so many. "

Pope Francis has encouraged us to find random acts of kindness during these Lenten 40 days. The Blessing Bags are one indeed! Some of our Children's Ministry students sent photos of the prep process (see below). Thank you Riley, Attilio and Wesley. Great work!

Other highlights of the weekend:

- Sacred Heart School Music Teacher Jon Comstock led the 1st graders in a Zoom Music Ministry session. We danced to a video and sang great songs, including "I've Got Peace Like a River". Thanks Jon!
- The 7th Graders attended the Holy Spirit Retreat on Zoom, learning about how the "Holy Spirit fills our hearts with the love of God." Many thanks to all the catechists and Sue Lehocky for leading our retreat.

See you all on Sunday, March 7 for our next session and the 8th Grade Confirmation Retreat — all on Zoom!

Music Ministry and the Holy Spirit Retreat Zoom images!

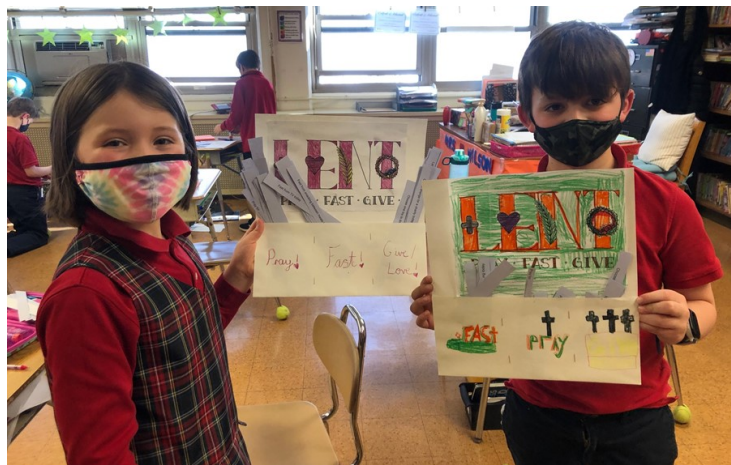

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL!

1st grade finished their unit on the past and present with a presentation of their family trees.

The 3rd graders made a Lenten Reminder Chart in religion class.

6th grade is putting on their geologist caps to explore how minerals are formed. Some minerals are formed through crystallization of solutions. 6th grade students demonstrated how to form crystal structures through the cooling down of a supersaturated salt solution. The results were some really creative and beautiful crystals that were augmented by the artistic design of the student's base structure they made with pipe cleaners.

The kindergartners have been very crafty lately making owls for the letter "O" and George Washington hats for Presidents' Day!

We adore you O Christ and we praise you, because by your Holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Every Friday during Lent our students pray the Stations of the Cross as a school community via Zoom.
