FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

LISTENING TO POPE FRANCIS

As is the papal custom, a few days before Christmas, on December 21, Pope Francis met with the Roman Curia (the administrative institutions that assist the Pope in his day to day exercise of his jurisdiction over the Roman Catholic Church). I've read through his address several times now. There are some great insights in his talk that help me as our parish continues to move through Renew My Church. Before I get to those insights, let me just say that one of the most exciting things about the papal talk was how Pope Francis dipped into the past and the tradition, in order to point us forward.

Pope Francis quotes St. John Henry Newman (Essay on the Development of Christian Doctrine). I wonder if the members of the Curia put on their "subway faces," the face we put on when we hop on the L or the subway. I imagine them steeling their faces to give away no emotion and not communicate any reaction when they heard the Pope quote Newman: "Here below to live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often."

I am sure the Curia doesn't like change. Most bureaucracies don't. It's in the nature of a bureaucracy to stay the same.

CHANGE

Most individuals don't like change. It wasn't too long ago that kids were taught in Sunday school that the Catholic Church was unchanging. The inflexible, unchanging character of the Church was touted as a positive value. In a changing world there was something unchanging, something that offered stability.

Then along came the Second Vatican Council. All of a sudden, in CCD, we were told that the essence of Church teaching remained unchanging, but how that teaching was expressed changes over time. The Council, being pastoral in nature, was simply expressing unchanging truths in new ways that made sense to modern ears and hearts.

CHANGE AND CONVERSION

Pope Francis used Newman's quote to transition into a favorite topic of his: conversion and the interior transformation to which we are continually called by God in Christ. He noted in his talk that the Church has always been marked by "new beginnings, displacements and changes." We, the People of God, are nothing if not pilgrims. We are always going to be a bit unsettled.

Is that the reason why some are so anxious about Renew My Church? Have we simply gotten used to maintaining things as they are? Do we not want to contemplate the difficult road of "new beginnings, displacements and changes"?

The recent address to the Curia could just as well be addressed to us, especially when Pope Francis says the kind of change he is talking about is not superficial. The change the pope refers to is not like simply putting on new clothes while we remain exactly as we were before. This kind of change does not have anything to do with outward appearances. Instead, change which fosters conversion, and which is transformative, requires discernment, patience, and soul-searching.

ON THE MOVE

I love when Pope Francis says, "We must initiate processes rather than occupy spaces." To occupy a space is to be concerned with stasis. We are plopped down into this particular space, maintaining ourselves as we always have been with no thought to any sort of movement. Some leaders of organizations excel at such "plopping" because it's easy and it doesn't require evaluation or innovation. It just requires everything to stay the same.

As a parish, we can't afford to stay the same. The world won't let us remain fixed where we are. In a world mired in secularization, consumerism, and narcissism—all the isms that have overtaken us—we dare not stay the same and expect our parish to flourish.

Renewal means change. Healthy and deep change requires conversion, and that, in turn, won't happen unless we squarely address a culture of maintenance in our parishes. The kind of meaningful change asked of us by Renew My Church is not something that can be achieved overnight or by one program or one pastoral initiative.

INGREDIENTS TO HELP US MOVE FORWARD

This kind of change will take perseverance. We will need to stay the course over many years. What will this look like? The following are some elements of us persevering, or staying on the course to revitalization.

Preaching the vision. People need to hear "this is what we are striving for as a parish, this is who we aspire to be" to help them visualize and embrace the specific steps necessary to get from here to there.

Praying for help. Individual and communal change of this sort isn't going to happen without appeal to the Holy Spirit. We're never going to get there without God's assistance.

Pushing forward with humility. There will be periods of slowness. There will be mistakes that we make. We will not have all the answers all the time. So what? Is it better to play it safe and do nothing? So along with perseverance, humility is another virtue we can cultivate as we rely on the grace of God, the support of one another, and the inspiration found in the richness of our tradition as we all journey together on this pilgrimage of renewal.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTION GROUP

A scripture reflection group meets every Monday morning in the Sacred Heart offices after the 8:30am Mass.

We gather for one hour to read and reflect on the coming Sunday readings. We simply share what is in our hearts and on our minds. No experience in scripture necessary. All are welcome!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP FROM OUR SCRIPTURES

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..." ISAIAH 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and generously share them with others.

RESPECT LIFE

That we may respond to our call to be a holy people by protecting and respecting all human life, especially those who are most inconvenient

DIVINE MERCY MEN'S RETREAT: "TABLE TALK: LISTENING TO JESUS' MESSAGE AS WE SHARE MEALS WITH HIM"

FEBRUARY 21-23, 2020

This Ignatian, silent weekend retreat for Men at Bellarmine Retreat House in Barrington, will be led by Retreat Master Fr. David Shields, SJ. Using various stories from the gospel of St. Luke, we will read and consider the issues and themes that Jesus talked about when he was invited out. By accompanying Jesus at important meals, we can come to know his mind and heart more intimately, deepen our love for him and strengthen our level of discipleship as Catholic Christians.

Fr. Shields is a Jesuit priest of the USA Midwest Province who has been involved in retreat ministry for over 40 years in many formats. In addition to this ministry, Fr. Shields has spent some 20 years with the Oglala Sioux on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota and, more recently, nearly 22 years in Hispanic ministry in Milwaukee, WI. Currently he is the Director of Spiritual Programs at Casa Romero Renewal Center in Milwaukee. Casa Romero is an urban bilingual spirituality center offering bilingual retreats and formation to 1st and 2nd generation Latinx in southeast Wisconsin.

Suggested retreat contribution:
Weekend Retreat is $295 per person ($95 deposit). For more information contact Great Grodecki, 847-906-4105, or Deacon Mike McNulty, 847-446-0856x120.

SACRED HEART RECTORY WINDOW & DOOR PROJECT

In early fall, the replacement of the drafty, 100-year-old windows in the rectory began, along with three storm doors in the back of the rectory. As of today, most have been replaced. The project has been a tremendous success with reduced energy bills, better temperature control, and enhanced curb appeal!

This project was initiated by parishioners. No capital campaign funds or savings were or will be used for this project. To date, $91,000 has been collected to cover the $130,000. You can make a contribution to this project if you'd like to help us meet our goal! Any contributions to this project will be carefully used and greatly appreciated. Just make a note on any checks you send to the parish. Thank you for your continuing generosity.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY (RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/PREP)

What a great start to our year...

Thank you to all of our families and to Father Pat McGrath and Deacon Puhala for the wonderful Family Mass we celebrated last Sunday at St. Philip's. It was a cold, snowy morning, but warm and joyous inside. Congratulations to the children who received the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time last Monday. Thank you to Father Steve, Father Dean and Father Mike for the beautiful First Reconciliation Service. "This Little Light of Mine, I'm Going to Let It Shine." And, it did! Brightly! We are grateful for these special moments with all of you.

Father Pat McGrath, SJ, who is president of Loyola Academy, spoke of being missionaries and spreading the Word in his Family Mass homily.

First Reconciliation, January 14, 2020

The children decorated votive candles and then lit them following the Sacrament of Reconciliation to recognize the Light of Christ in their lives.

TO HAVE A CHURCH

Jesus' final command before ascending to heaven, is to "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..." (Matthew 28:19). It's known as the Great Commission, not "the really good suggestion". Why? Because Jesus entrusted his disciples with a partnership in the salvation of the world. The transmission of the Gospel message depends on US. Jesus is counting on us to reach a particular person or persons with the message of His love and redemption. But how do we go about this?

Just invite.

Inviting someone to come to Mass might be a little too intimidating for someone who is unfamiliar with liturgy. But inviting them to dinner? That's easy. Non-threatening. At Alpha you can bring your friend, co-worker, colleague, hairstylist, daughter's boyfriend, or the UPS driver for a meal. You'll be greeted by really friendly people and have a great (free) dinner. You'll watch a video on the very basics of the Christian faith, then have a chance to discuss it with your tablemates. And any and all questions and comments are allowed! Seriously. At Alpha, everyone gets a chance to voice their thoughts and be heard, without judgement. Alpha is a place to have a meaningful conversation, and to explore the biggest questions of faith. It's a welcoming place to begin a journey that will change a life forever.

Who will you invite?

ALPHA

SOME FEEDBACK FROM PARISHIONERS:

If you yearn for greater purpose and meaning in your every day, consider trying Alpha. After the first gathering, you will sense the potential impact on your life. For me, it was an unexpected and profound gift! Aimee G.

I so enjoyed our small group sessions. It was a place to share, support, and strengthen the bonds of our Catholic Community. Dona C.

I had no idea what to expect but was pleasantly surprised. It helped me review my faith on another level and talk with others about it. I also was very surprised about the number of fellow Parishioners that attended. George K.

Alpha was the first experience that helped me to find a path to forgiveness in my heart. It would not have happened without the inspiring people I shared the Alpha journey with or the amazing overnight retreat. It was truly a life-changing experience. Kirsten L.

When I signed up for ALPHA, I did not appreciate what I would experience. The program was a great way to get to know other parishioners. We became a closer group as the weeks went by. The videos were very powerful means to remind us of how wonderful it is to be a Catholic. Joe M.
