THE COMMON GOOD

Yesterday at Mariano's, I was chided by a lady shopper who politely but very firmly informed me—with one palm up in a "stop" gesture—that I was going in the wrong direction down the store aisle. Huh?

I didn't realize that the store had put signs on the floor indicating the one-way nature of travel through the aisles! I never thought to look down. I've never had to look down on any of my previous visits these last few weeks. So I wasn't aware. My bad.

Obviously, Mariano's and other stores have instituted all sorts of new shopping procedures to take into account the new times in which we live. The era of coronavirus is upon us in full swing. Even with the much anticipated return to "normalcy", we all know that what we will be going into is a "new normal" not the old normal.

This pandemic is going to be with us for quite some time, and without a vaccine, we will all be observing safe practices. Why? Because safety benefits society as a whole. It benefits each and every one of us.

We have a phrase in Catholic theology to describe this inclination toward widespread benefit: the common good. The principle of the common good refers to "the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily" (Second Vatican Council, Gaudium et Spes, 26, 1966).

The idea of the common good highlights the basic understanding in Catholic teaching that human beings are fundamentally social. This core or basic understanding opposes certain modern viewpoints that see people as autonomous and separate from society, that is, people only entering into social contact because it is advantageous to them as individuals.

Catholics don't buy into this faulty modern viewpoint precisely because we know that we can't find fulfillment all by ourselves. We exist with and for each other.

There you have it. That lady shopper, by stopping me, was upholding the common good. For her safety and my own safety—and probably for the safety of everyone else, all accomplished in one little polite but firm "stop" gesture.

RETURNING TO CHURCH

We know that when we return to gathering in church, whenever that is allowed by the state authorities, the Cardinal will issue firm but polite guidelines for us to follow in each of our parishes. Those guidelines have not been issued yet.

Whatever the details include, these anticipated guidelines will surely include some prescriptions for social distancing and other prudential practices to ensure our safety and the common good.

At the parish level, we've already talked at staff and Senior Leadership Team meetings (through Zoom) how we will most likely have our maintenance folks disinfect the tops of the pews, the door handles, and the public restrooms after each Mass. Hand sanitizer will be available as long as we can get it! I would not be surprised if we also receive a specific directive from the Archdiocese that tells us to discontinue the use of worship aids, Missalettes and hymnals that are left in the pews for multiple users. No doubt we will go to worship aids that are for individual, one -time only use.

I am writing this in anticipation of the actual directive. We know the Archdiocese is working on something to be published soon. Obviously, I will let you know the specifics as I receive them from the Vicar General, Bishop Hicks.

In the meantime, we continue to livestream the weekend Mass. As an aside, I am pleased to report the successful installation of the equipment for which we were waiting. The livestreamed Mass quality is much, much better. I'm continuing to offer daily spiritual reflections Monday through Saturday. Both of these resources can be found on our new website.

Staff, Senior Leadership, the Finance Council, the School and Children's Ministry Boards are all meeting via Zoom. Soon the Parish Stewardship Council also will meet via Zoom.

By the way, if you yourself would like to schedule a video appointment with me, as others have, as long as your computer has a camera and a microphone, I can set up a Zoom appointment for you. Just email me at:

slanza@divinemercynorthshore.org.

Please pray for all those front line workers who see to our well-being. Please, let's continue to pray for one another. Pray for the common good in these challenging times!

MOMS

This weekend we honor our mothers. Who better to teach us about the common good?

You won't be able to take mom out to a restaurant, but consider all the wonderful and creative ways you can treat mom on her special day. Perhaps the kids will honor her with breakfast in bed. If that's the case, don't forget to assign someone to clean up the kitchen! We don't want mom to have to wipe up all those spilled food on the countertop on her special day!

God bless all our mothers!

The Wisdom of Enclosure in Julian of Norwich's Showings May 14th 7-8:00 p.m.

Julian of Norwich (d. ca. 1416) was a widely respected and sought-out English thinker and spiritual counsellor. She lived as an anchorite, enclosed in a cell attached to a church in Norwich, Julian's Showings are a book of spiritual visions that emerged from her life of prayer and that wrestle with the profound theological mysteries of fitting evil and suffering with God's mercy and love. Professor Katie Bugyis will examine Julian's thought in the context of her vocation of enclosed prayer.

Katie Bugyis is Assistant Professor in the Program of Liberal Studies and in Theology at the University of Notre Dame, where she is also a Fellow of the Medieval Institute. She received her Ph.D in Medieval Studies from the University of Notre Dame, and a License in Mediaeval Studies from the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies. Professor Bugyis is a historian of Christian theology, liturgical practice, and material culture, and is particularly interested in reconstructing the lived experiences of religious women in the Middle Ages. She has published numerous book chapters and articles, and is the author of The Care of Nuns: Benedictine Women's Ministries in England during the Central Middle Ages (Oxford University Press, 2019).

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: A LOOK AT THE SCRIPTURES

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." (1 Peter 2:7)

Every person has been given gifts from the Holy Spirit. These are called "charisms" and they are used to build God's kingdom on earth. While many people are able to recognize their natural talents and abilities, they may be unsure of their charisms. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern their charisms and how God is calling them to use them. Remember - no gift is too small or insignificant in God's salvation plan.

POPE FRANCIS ON TWITTER

Contemplating Mary allows us to turn our gaze to all those many women, mothers and grandmothers who, by their quiet sacrifices, devotion and self-denial, are shaping the present and preparing the way for tomorrow's dreams.

ADULT FORMATION

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER

For all Mothers and those who have been like mothers to us: May God bless them with wisdom, strength, patience and great love, We pray to the Lord!

For all mothers, particularly those who are with child: that they may be supported by loved ones and warm friends, and that they may be understood and blessed;
We pray to the Lord.

For young mothers everywhere, and especially those who are tempted to despair: that through the child they carry deep within, they might know hope and joy; We pray to the Lord.

For mothers, especially those wracked with fear: depression or despair, that the new life of their child may touch them with the eternal love of God; We pray to the Lord.

For expectant mothers: for the gifts of patient endurance and joyful hope; We pray to the Lord.

For each mother who has miscarried: that her love for the child of her womb might deliver her from grief and join her to the hope of the Cross of Christ; We pray to the Lord.

For young mothers tempted to abort their child: that God's grace might give them the wisdom and fortitude to preserve the gift they carry within them; We pray to the Lord.

FR. GREG BOYLE, SJ / HOMEBOY INDUSTRIES LECTURE

In 1986, when Homeboy Industries' founder, Fr. Gregory Boyle, SJ became pastor of Dolores Mission Church, it was the poorest Catholic parish in Los Angeles. The parish included Aliso Village and Pico Gardens, then the largest public housing projects west of the Mississippi. They also had the highest concentration of gang activity. That was saying something, given Los Angeles' reputation as the gang capital of the world.

At the time, law enforcement tactics of suppression and criminal justice policies of mass incarceration were the prevailing means to deal with gang violence. But where others only saw criminals, Father Greg saw people in need of help. Today, Homeboy Industries is the largest gang intervention, rehabilitation and reentry program in the world.

Each year Homeboy Industries welcomes thousands of people through their doors seeking to transform their lives. Whether joining their 18-month employment and reentry program or seeking discrete services such as tattoo removal or substance abuse resources, their clients are embraced by a community of kinship and offered a variety of free wraparound services to facilitate healing and growth. In addition to serving almost 7,000 members of the immediate Los Angeles community in 2018, Homeboy Industries' flagship 18 -month employment and re-entry program was offered to over 400 men and women.

Creighton University recently hosted Fr. Boyle as their Keynote Speaker for their Mission Week. You can watch his lecture here.

You also may be familiar with Fr. Boyle's book Tattoos on the Heart.

FINANCE

EASTER DONATIONS

During these final weeks of the Easter season, if you still haven't had an opportunity to make your Easter donation, we encourage you to either mail it in or donate via Give Central through this link: https://www.givecentral.org/location/205/event/4265

As you might imagine, Easter provides

Easter Collection

Divine Mercy with significant offertory income. And rest assure that the Give Central site is safe and secure.

Last year, for example, we received just over $90,000 in collection income for Easter. Of that total, only $3,200, or 3.5%, was donated electronically. This year, we again set an Easter budget of $90,000 based on prior giving patterns, and obviously well before this current crisis. If you are able, we are grateful for your continued generous support of our parish during this time. Please prayerfully consider an Easter gift to Divine Mercy parish.

You can also mail checks to our main parish office: Divine Mercy Parish, 1077 Tower Road, Winnetka, IL 60093.

THANK YOU!

Amen.
