FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

POPE FRANCIS AT GROUND ZERO

Pope Francis visited "Ground Zero" at the 9/11 Memorial and Museum in New York City on Sept. 25, 2015. As we reflect on the 20th anniversary of that unforgettable day, may these comments give us comfort.

Dear Friends,
I feel many different emotions standing here at Ground Zero, where thousands of lives were taken in a senseless act of destruction. Here grief is palpable. The water we see flowing towards that empty pit reminds us of all those lives which fell prey to those who think that destruction, tearing down, is the only way to settle conflicts. It is the silent cry of those who were victims of a mindset which knows only violence, hatred and revenge. A mindset which can only cause pain, suffering, destruction and tears.

The flowing water is also a symbol of our tears. Tears at so much devastation and ruin, past and present. This is a place where we shed tears, we weep out of a sense of helplessness in the face of injustice, murder, and the failure to settle conflicts through dialogue. Here we mourn the wrongful and senseless loss of innocent lives because of the inability to find solutions which respect the common good.

This flowing water reminds us of yesterday's tears, but also of all the tears still being shed today.

A few moments ago I met some of the families of the fallen first responders. Meeting them made me see once again how acts of destruction are never impersonal, abstract or merely material. They always have a face, a concrete story, names. In those family members, we see the face of pain, a pain which still touches us and cries out to heaven.

At the same time, those family members showed me the other face of this attack, the other face of their grief: the power of love and remembrance. A remembrance that does not leave us empty and withdrawn. The name of so many loved ones are written around the towers' footprints. We can see them, we can touch them, and we can never forget them.

Here, amid pain and grief, we also have a palpable sense of the heroic goodness which people are capable of, those hidden reserves of strength from which we can draw. In the depths of pain and suffering, you also witnessed the heights of generosity and service. Hands reached out, lives were given.

In a metropolis which might seem impersonal, faceless, lonely, you demonstrated the powerful solidarity born of mutual support, love and self-sacrifice. No one thought about race, nationality, neighborhoods, religion or politics. It was all about solidarity, meeting immediate needs, brotherhood. It was about being brothers and sisters. New York City firemen walked into the crumbling towers, with no concern for their own wellbeing. Many succumbed; their sacrifice enabled great numbers to be saved.

This place of death became a place of life too, a place of saved lives, a hymn to the triumph of life over the prophets of destruction and death, to goodness over evil, to reconciliation and unity over hatred and division.

It is a source of great hope that in this place of sorrow and remembrance I can join with leaders representing the many religious traditions which enrich the life of this great city. I trust that our presence together will be a powerful sign of our shared desire to be a force for reconciliation, peace and justice in this community and throughout the world. For all our differences and disagreements, we can live in a world of peace. In opposing every attempt to create a rigid uniformity, we can and must build unity on the basis of our diversity of languages, cultures and religions, and lift our voices against everything which would stand in the way of such unity. Together we are called to say "no" to every attempt to impose uniformity and "yes" to a diversity accepted and reconciled.

This can only happen if we uproot from our hearts all feelings of hatred, vengeance and resentment. We know that that is only possible as a gift from heaven. Here, in this place of remembrance, I would ask everyone together, each in his or her own way, to spend a moment in silence and prayer. Let us implore from on high the gift of commitment to the cause of peace. Peace in our homes, our families, our schools and our communities. Peace in all those places where war never seems to end. Peace for those faces which have known nothing but pain. Peace throughout this world which God has given us as the home of all and a home for all. Simply PEACE.

In this way, the lives of our dear ones will not be lives which will one day be forgotten. Instead, they will be present whenever we strive to be prophets not of tearing down but of building up, prophets of reconciliation, prophets of peace.

COMMUNITY

WE INVITE YOU TO PARTICIPATE IN ALPHA!

What is it? Alpha is an opportunity to explore life and the Christian faith in an open and informal environment. Alpha runs in churches, bars and coffee shops all over the world. Alpha sessions consist of sharing a meal with other members of the group, enjoying a short video and a discussion where you can share your thoughts in a small group. Alpha is for anybody and everybody who wants to know more about the Christian faith or simply grow in their faith.

There's no judgement, no pressure, no charge and it's FUN! Alpha in the Catholic Context is run around the world, and all have three things in common: good food, a video and good conversation.

We believe Alpha is a key component of what the future holds for us as Divine Mercy parish. It's a wonderful opportunity to get to know people in our faith community, whether they are from St. Philip or Sacred Heart. Come and check it out! No matter who you are or what you believe, everyone is welcome...Catholic or not...practicing or not...or simply curious...Join us! You'll love the food, the videos and the conversation.

Everyone should have the chance to explore the Christian faith, ask questions and share their point of view.

TO HAVE A CHURCH

Have you already experienced Alpha?
If so, keep reading...

Jesus' final command before ascending to heaven, is to "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..." (Matthew 28:19). It's known as the Great Commission, not "the really good suggestion". Why? Because Jesus entrusted his disciples with a partnership in the salvation of the world. The transmission of the Gospel message depends on US. Jesus is counting on us to reach a particular person or persons with the message of His love and redemption. But how do we go about this?

Just invite.

Inviting someone to come to Mass might be a little too intimidating for someone who is unfamiliar with liturgy. But inviting them to dinner? That's easy. Non-threatening. At Alpha you can bring your friend, co-worker, colleague, hairstylist, daughter's boyfriend, or the UPS driver for a meal! You'll be greeted by really friendly people and, if you're in person, have a great (free) meal! You'll watch a video on the very basics of the Christian faith, then have a chance to discuss it with your tablemates. And any and all questions and comments are allowed! Seriously. At Alpha, everyone gets a chance to voice their thoughts and be heard, without judgement. Alpha is a place to have a meaningful conversation, and to explore the biggest questions of faith. It's a welcoming place to begin a journey that will change a life forever. WHO WILL YOU INVITE?

A PRAYER TO REMEMBER 9/11, FROM CATHOLIC CHARITIES NEW YORK

Lord of Mercy, Prince of Peace,

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

This day does not pass in the calendar without our remembering. We remember images of death and destruction. Images that human eyes were never meant to see. We remember words our ears were never meant to hear, the tender last words of husbands and wives who would never embrace again. We imagine the feeling of emptiness in the arms of children who at the end of the day could not find mom or dad for their welcome home hug. We remember our own feelings of emptiness as our sense of security, as our own confidence in the predictable order of life and work was radically shaken.

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

We remember the heroism of the many that lost their lives in saving others. We remember all those who suffered and died, we grieve for them still, friends and strangers alike, along with their families and friends.

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

And it is right that it should not pass from our memory. But today and in this prayer, along with our remembrance of profound loss, it also seems right that we give voice to our deep longing for peace, and with this prayer, commit ourselves to those actions that will draw us closer to our most ancient and most holy desire, peace among all God's children.

Dona nobis pacem. Lord, grant us peace. Amen.

In case of rain, we WILL move to the Parish Center! See you there!

OUTREACH

SO MANY NEED OUR HELP

We realize that so many of our outreach partners need help as of late: St. Moses the Black and Augustus Tolton Catholic Academy; A Just Harvest; New Trier and Northfield Township Food Pantries; the Fr. Paul Foundation, St. Benedict the African, St. Jean Baptiste in Haiti and Connections for the Homeless. And there are so many more entities that need our help: refugees from Afghanistan; victims of Hurricane Ida; the Women's Center; Misericordia; Bethany House of Hospitality; Big Shoulders and Catholic Relief Services.

The "asks" seem constant, and we don't always know who to help first. But God can help. Prayer helps us discern how God is calling us to act. Many of us have our "favorites"; those charities that garner our attention and our hearts. Every act of kindness and generosity makes a difference.

St. Teresa of Avila once said: "Christ has no body now on earth but yours; no hands, no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes with which Christ looks out his compassion to the world. Yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which he is to bless us now." All we can do is be the hands and feet of Christ in this moment.

Finally, please know that we are grateful for whatever you can do to help our brothers and sisters in need, where ever they might be. We are amazed at your generosity. Divine Mercy always rises to the occasion, and we cannot thank you enough!

Divine Mercy Parish

Food Donations

Each month, Divine Mercy conducts a collection for one of the pantries we serve: A Just Harvest Community Kitchen in Rogers Park, Northfield Township Food Pantry, St. Moses the Black (formerly St. Columbanus) Food Pantry or the New Trier Township Food Pantry. Our Children's Ministry program has also supported Connections for the Homeless in Evanston. Watch for signs and communications each month outlining specific needs. We are ever so grateful for all your donations!

St Jean Baptiste Parish in Sassier, Haiti has been the twin parish of Sacred Heart since 1998. A 7.2 magnitude earthquake struck Haiti on Saturday, August 14th, damaging the church and many homes of parishioners.

A generous donor established the "SassierStrong" Challenge Grant to $20,000, so any donation to this cause is automatically doubled. How can you give? Visit: <https://www.givecentral.org/location/205/event/3319> or Click here for our Give Central site for Haiti.

Rev Paul Satkunanayagam, SJ. lived in the Sacred Heart Rectory for 4 years several years ago, while taking graduate level courses at Loyola University and helping out at the Church. The Father Paul Foundation supports efforts to make peace in his native Sri Lanka, a country torn apart by civil war and still dealing with the impact of the 2004 Tsunami. He established the world acclaimed Butterfly Peace Garden to restore normalcy in the lives of child soldiers. He built facilities to house orphans and created programs to help widows become self sufficient. And, as a pastoral counselor and psychologist, he founded a professional counseling center to counsel the displaced victims of war. Currently people are starving in Sri Lanka as they deal with the aftermath of COVID19. To make a donation to the Fr. Paul Foundation, visit: <https://www.givecentral.org/location/205/event/q840> or click here. THANK YOU!

We're still collecting funds for the purchase of backpacks for the students of Augustus Tolton Catholic Academy (ATCA), the school of St. Moses the Black (formerly St. Columbanus). If you'd like to make a donation, visit our safe GiveCentral portal (or by clicking here), or by sending a check to the parish with ATCA in the memo line. Thank you for your generosity!!

Catholic Charities and Hurricane IDA

You've seen the news and read the reports. Hurricane Ida wreaked havoc when she reached the state of Louisiana and moved onward, bringing torrential rains and flooding to several states. Hundreds of thousands of people were impacted by this storm. At least 68 people lost their lives as of this writing. Others lost their homes or experienced catastrophic damage. Catholic dioceses and organizations said they were mobilizing to help as soon as conditions allowed. Catholic Charities USA is accepting donations to help the hurricane relief efforts at www.catholiccharitiesusa.org.

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL!

On Tuesday night, the JV volleyball team played their very first game of volleyball! This team is brand new to the sport, but they worked together brilliantly as a team to win the game! Coach Casey is so proud of their positivity and team spirit! It will be a great season and good luck to the 7th and 8th grade teams also playing this week!

Kindergarteners got to use their math jars! They used their big dice to roll and record a number. They had to figure out what the value was on the dice and find the corresponding written numeral.

4th grade has had a blast reintroducing math stations back into our curriculum! This is a great way to practice all the skills we have been working on as well as an opportunity to work collaboratively and challenge one another too!
